Some Democrats say they now believe that Scontor Butler really was for Bryan and they add that they believe the Populist machine is now for McKinley. Cerainly many Populists are saying they are for McKinley.

It was long ago said that Butler's bome was to have his convention first d nominate Bryan as a Populist, and with a Populist running mate; then de-mand that he accept the Populist nomi-mation or else reject it; that if he rejected it another nomination would be made, while if he accepted it the Populists fig-ared the Democrata would refuse to nominate him. Some of the Democrats ere saying that if this alternative is prented him by the Popullats they hope will decline; that this would strength on him with the Democrats.

"Cable Cart headquarters at front May 10, 9;10 a m-We are now across the Zand river. The enemy are still holding a strong position but we are gradually pushing them back."

Roberts' dispatches this morning showed that the Boers were merely fighting a rear guard action. It is doub ful if they make a stand before crossing the Vaal river. It is now believed that Roberts will not allow the Federals enough breathing space to reform southward of Kroonstan

It is even thought possible to be able to keep the troops moving so rapidly as to drive the Boers right through Kroonstad without giving them time to organ ize resistance in the formidable entrenchments prepared at the Valsch river.
