RALMON, May 15.—The State Agricul RALMON, May 15.—The State Agriculural Department has issued its first rop report for this year, based on reurns from over 1,000 correspondents the report says the condition and procrease of farm work is 01 per cent of an everage; that the percentage of average cotton planted su compared with last rear in 100, and of corn 98: The condilon of wheat is 99 and of cats 90. The ererestage of sown, as nompared with an average, is 91. There is no falling off in the number of horses and mules as compared with last year, but hogs have

It is said that the Republicans count on hringing out the negro vote in great strength in November, in the congressional and presidential vote. The negro vote is not, of course, affected by the constitutional amendment until 1902, when the amendment becomes effective. The Populist State committee is circulating all over the State a number of Senator Butler's speeches against the constitutional amendment. They go almost calirely to roral voters.

The strike at the Eimira Cotton Mills at Burlington, has ended, and all the loums are again in operation. It seems that there was a change in the style of goods to be made, that such changes are frequent and that after tests wages are made to accord with the work. A worker caused the strike, the employes having joined the textile union, which according to reports must embrace a great porportion of the mill hands in the State it appears that the strike was ordered as a test, that there was to be a strike at all the mills is Alamance county and that the maployes at the Releigh mills were to go out also, and perhaps at other places. The Eimira management declined to deal with the union, but told its ramptoyes it would start the mill again a certain day, and if they wished to resume work they could do so. They resume work they could do so. They resumed. Then the examination was made of the new work and it was found that there could be an advance in wages made of the new work and it was found that there could be an advance in wages made on it, as hall frequently before beauths. The strike at the Eimira Cotton Mili the new work and it was found that more could be an advance in wages made a it, as had frequently before been the
