IN RALEIGH.

Grand View Of The Sun's Eclipse From The Capitol Dome.

Visitors Present From All Parts of the Country. Not Enough Naval Reserves to Take a Cruise Superior Court.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, May 28.—The conditions here were extremely favorable for viewing the eclipse. At 7 o'clock your correspondent went on the dome of the Capitol with George O. Rounds of Manassas, Va., who in 1865 had his signal station there, as signal officer to General Schofield. The original signal flag was again displayed. The view of the country was familiar. It was like a vast panorama. As darkness came on the changes of color were beautiful. The swallows came out and whirled about the dome, with plaintive twitterings. A close watch was kept on the southwest for the great shadow. This swept along so steadily that it almost seemed as if sound accompanied it. That instant the sun's corona sprang into view. The greatest masses of light were rather fan-shaped, to the right above and to the left below, the former much the larger and nearly like a half open fan; the lower more pointed in the middle.

There was a quietness as of death. A big star sprang out very near and to the upper right of the sun, while in the northeast and near the horizon a much larger one shone with marked brightness. On the ground observers saw the shadow bars pass in a procession on the grass and earth; chickens hurried to wards their coops and those which did not reach them squatted where they were, the hens brooding their chickens under their wings. The dew fell, or rather formed and was quite pronounced. At 8:49, the instant of contact, the temperature was 71.1-70, and at 8:51 it was 69.2-68. On the capital at 9 o'clock 14-15 clouds signaled with the old signal flag a duplicate of a message he signalled April 13, 1865, "Peace on Earth good will toward men." He prefaced this with the message "To the good people of Raleigh and of North Carolina."

Many persons were here from distant points, as far away as Detroit, Chicago and Boston. There were people on the roofs and on embankments in the suburbs. The governor was today notified by H. H. McIlhenny of Wilmington, in command of the naval reserves of this State, that not enough men could be secured to take the cruise on the Prairie. He will therefore be abandoned. The Governor at once notified the navy department. He and the officer at headquarters say the only thing to be done is for the Government to pay the reserves, then they can be ready at any call. His chief of staff tells me this has long been the Governor's view.

The Supreme Court may be in session all of June.

"I had stomach trouble twenty years and gave up hope of being cured till I began to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has done me so much good I call it the saviour of my life," writes W. H. Wilkins, Albany, Tenn. It digests what you eat. F. S. Duffy.

A fresh lot of Huyler's Candy received every Monday morning at Bradham's.

JOHANNESBURG.

Capture of the Gold City By the British Cavalry Under French.

Special to Journal. London, May 28.—A dispatch from Cape Town says that it is reported that General French has captured Johannesburg. This creates intense excitement in London. It was expected that General Roberts with the main army would be before the city tomorrow or by Wednesday.

It was known however that the cavalry under General French was considerably ahead of the troops under Roberts.

Boxers Make Trouble in China. Special to Journal. London, May 28.—The Boxers are now marching on Pekin. They have burned a station and wrecked a train near there. Five hundred Christians had barely time to take refuge in the French Cathedral at Pekin. The Boxers defeated the government troops sent out against them.

Adjourned by Middle of June. RALEIGH, May 28.—Senators are, if possible, more anxious for Congress to adjourn, than members of the House are, but there is much work yet to be done upon regular appropriation bills which must all be disposed of before adjournment. Consequently, it is almost certain that the date set by the House resolution, June 6th, for adjournment, will have to be pushed a little further long by the Senate, but there is no doubt that adjournment will take place about the middle of June, which is unusually early for the long session, even in Presidential years.

Virginia's Negro Vote. Richmond, Va., May 26.—More complete returns fully confirm the fact that yesterday's election the call for a Constitutional Convention to disfranchise the negroes was carried. The vote polled was quite small, and the majority or the convention will hardly exceed 15,000.

The most remarkable feature is the immense majorities which the black districts gave for the convention. The Second and Fourth, which have overwhelming colored majorities, have given the proposition probably 10,000 majority. The Ninth District, where there are practically no negro votes, gives probably 5,000 against the convention.

The valley and the other districts, while they are carried by the conventionists, show in many cases large majorities against the revision of the Constitution.

The result has been that the negro seems to be doomed to lose his right to exercise suffrage by the counties and districts in which his race have three to one votes of the whites.
