Corporation Commission Now Has Full Power to Determine Values.

Copies of Amendment Sent Out.
Butler Gets Out a Circular.

The Vance Statue.
Cotton States
Association.

Special to Journal.
Raleigh, June 20.—The corporation commission meets today after tomorrow to make the annual assessment of railway property. The Supreme court decides that it has full power in that line, but to make assurance doubly sure the legislature, week before last, enacted a law giving such authority. No one has any idea what steps the commission will take and how much, if at all, it will increase the valuation of the railways.

There has as yet been no consultation on this subject.

The bureau of labor and printing today completed the heavy work of sending out 200,000 copies of the new franchise amendment and 20,000 copies of the new election law, both of which were enacted by the legislature week before last.

The State charter the Waynesville Wood Manufacturing Company capital $15,000, J. A. Cloninger and others stockholders, also the Smack Manufacturing Company of Wilkes county, capital $25,000, which will make freckles and dandruff.

Populist State chairman Marion Butler is this week issuing a circular which he considers of great importance. It calls on the populists to register and see that all other members of their party are registered.

The rains in this section were excessive Saturday night and Sunday morning, and have damaged lowlands considerably. They washed lands worse than at any time during the past two years.

The Raleigh baseball team left for Taboro this morning to play with Taboro the first association game. It appears that there was quite a number of get players from the Virginia State league last week, and that Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington and Taboro wanted to get men. Raleigh didn't get any.

Prices of players have a demand sharply; from $50 to $150 a month. It was at first thought that each State Association team would play only home talent but all the teams have hired men.

At Ridgeway Junction on the Seaboard: Alt Line a great deal of work is in progress. It is two miles from Ridgeway A hotel is to be built there. There are to be changes in schedule of the new fast trains on the Seaboard.

From Ridgeway 1000 crates of cultivated blackberries are now being shipped daily. The crop is found profitable, much more so than grapes.

This morning Dr. H. H. Speight, Richard H. Battle and J. D. Boushall of the committee on the Vance Statue left for Providence, R. I., to inspect the completed statue, cast by the Graham company. That company desired that the committee should go there and make the inspection. If satisfactory the statue will be brought here at once and erected and will be covered until the ceremonies of unveiling August 23.

The programme for the second annual meeting of the cotton states association of commissioners of agriculture was prepared today. The meeting will be held here, August 1, to September 1. Among the notable speakers will be United States Commissioner of Agriculture Wilson on the relations between National and State departments of Agriculture, with suggestions for improving them; Prof. Milton Whitney of Washington and Dr. H. W. Wiley of that city. Roads and road-making will be the subject of an illustrated lecture by State geologist Holmes. There will be a discussion of the best methods of conducting experiments to determine the fertilizer requirements of different plants and soils, of leguminas and crops, of grasses and hay for the sandy soils of the south; a discussion by State chemists as to whether farmers buy fertilizers for the brand name or for the nitrogen, and phosphoric acid they contain; a discussion of the farmers instituting and also of the education of the farmer, discussion of veterinary and entomological subjects, etc.

Irrigating, poison wounds and all other agricultural injuries may be quickly cured by using DeWitt's Which Have Said. It is also a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Take no other. F. B.

Killed in a Wreck.
ATLANTA, Ga., June 20.—A passenger train on the Macon branch of the Southern Railway ran into a wrecking one and a local train north of Milledgeville, Ga., last night and was wrecked.

The wreck caught fire and the entire train, with the exception of the Pullman sleeping car, was destroyed. Every person on the train except the conductor of the Pullman car, perished. Six members of the train crew escaped. Thirty-five persons in all were killed.

The colliers will carry twelve thou-

Bryan to Stay Away.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Upon what is said to be the highest authority. It is reported here that William Jennings Bryan will not attend the Democratic Convention in Kansas City on July 4.
The Colonel refused to permit the use of his name during the election of delegates and on more than one occasion he has declined the invitation of admirers to be their guest.

Two letters recently received in Washington from him say positively that he will remain at his home in Lincoln, during the week of July 4.

Dewey Out Of It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—Admiral Dewey will under no consideration accept second place on the Democratic ticket. This statement may be regarded as the Admiral's irrevocable decision.

Two Critics.

As my "Bed of Farns," a large study from nature on Saranac lake, says W.
J. Sullivan in The Atlantic, was the first thing in which I had attempted to introduce a human interest in the landscape. It was naturally inclined to consider it my most important work, and I was dismayed when Ruskin came to see me and in a tone of extreme disgust said, pointing to the dead deer and man: "What do you put that stuff in for? Take it out; it stinks!"

My reverence for Ruskin's opinions was such that I made no hesitation in painting out the central motive of the picture, for which both subject and effect of light had been selected. Unfortunately I habitually used copal varnish as a medium. When Rossetti called again, he asked me, with a look of dismay, what I had done to my picture. I explained to him that on Ruskin's advice I had painted out the figures, and exclaiming, "You have spoilt your picture!" he walked out of the room in a rage.

What a Knight of the Garter Wears.
A Knight of the Garter dressed in the regalia is an imposing sight. He wears a blue velvet mantle with a star embroidered on the left breast. His trunk hose, stockings and shoes are white, his hood and surcoat crimson.
The garter, of dark blue velvet edged with gold and bearing the motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense" ("Shame to him who thinks ill of it"), also in gold, is buckled about the left leg below the knee. The heavy golden collar consists of 23 pieces, each in the form of a garter, bearing the motto, and from it hangs the "Georgio," a badge which represents St. George on horseback extinguishing the dragon. The "Inner Georgio" is a smaller badge attached to a blue ribbon worn over the left shoulder. The star of the order consists of eight points, within which is the cross of St. George encircled by the garter.

FIGHT AT TIEN TSIN.

Battle in Progress Between Chinese and Relief Column.

Taken Ports Blown up. Russia Sends Eighty Thousand Men. Safe at Peking Thursday. Four American Soldiers.
Killed.

Special to Journal.
London, June 20.—A fierce battle is raging between twenty thousand Chinese troops and the relief forces advancing to save Tien Tsin. The foreign columns were rushed forward yesterday to cut a way through the Chinese lines.

This relief column of 2,000 men was forwarded after the repulse of the small American and Russian force in which four Americans were killed.

The foreign admirals in command of the allied fleets have blown up the Taku forts and sent all the available troops there to Tien Tsin.

At Tien Tsin it is estimated that three hundred foreigners are killed. Fighting continues in the neighborhood of the city. Rear Admiral Bruce at Taku telegraphs that a total force of 2,000 men left Tien Tsin for Peking under Admiral Seymour.

Near Peking the Boxers locked sixty Christian natives in a church and burned them alive.

It is reported from St. Petersburg that the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia has gone to China to take command of the Russian fleet. The Czar orders two army corps to the Chinese frontier, put upon war footing. It is expected that eight thousand Russians will operate in the attack upon China.

The French consul-general says the his foreign ministers and the foreign residents in Peking were safe up to last Thursday.

The increase in the British force to sent to China is fifteen thousand.

A conference was held today between Lord Salisbury and the American Ambassador, Mr. Choate, and it is asserted that the English and American view of the Chinese question is identical, neither favoring the partition of the Empire nor that the time for practical reforms has come.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Admiral Remy has gone to Taku on his cruiser Brooklyn. The navy will carry ten thousand soldiers from Manila to China.

Small in size and great in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills that cleanse the liver and bowels. They do not gripe. F. S. Duff.
