Bachelor's Notes.

Weather fair and dry. Farmers feeling good, as they are nearly through with their crops. Corn and cotton all laid by.

The large three mast schooner Charles T. Stran sailed with a cargo of lumber from Blades Lumber Company's mill. The cargo goes to Elizabeth City.

Mr. Claude Taylor made a flying business trip to New Bern Monday.

Miss Emily Whitehead is visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul at Swansboro this week.

Mr. W. G. Temple went on business to the city Monday.

Miss Eva and Fannie Bell left for Morehead City this week on a visit to friends.

Mr. J. E. Taylor is visiting at Yanceboro.

Mr. Isaac Taylor goes to New Bern on business.

The sailing party given by the young men of Bachelor left for Morehead City on the 3rd and all seemed jolly and gay.

Many of our young people are attending the protracted meeting at Adame Creek, as its just a pleasant drive in the evening.

Politics are getting warm around Bachelor, it is talked all the time. The talk is not anything but when our white men use their influence against the amendment. I think they need enlightening by a political missionary.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the citizens of Trenton Jones county, N. C., assembled for the purpose of paying the last tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. James B. Stany who died July 2nd, 1900, at the old age of 78 years. Mr. Stany was the oldest male citizen of Trenton. He was highly esteemed by all classes of people in the community for his honesty and fair dealing.
