Removal of Federal Convicts To Mashville,

Old Escaped Convicts Recognized. Senator Butler Busy And Worried. Immense Political Cathering in Richmond

cial to Journal.

Rangion, N. C., July 6-United States Marshal H. C. Dockery returned today from Nashville, to which place he took 8 convicts from the pentientiary here, the latter having ceased to be a Federal prison. Marshal Dockery said: "We prison. Marshal Dockery said: "We had no trouble transferring the prisoners. They were handcuffed and shack led and then chained from one end of the car to the other. Every one was glad to be transferred. They were vary happy at the change. We intended to leave 18 here, who has but a little time to serve, but the officials awore they would not receive or keep that unlucky number, so we left only 12. I had 12 guards, so there were 13 of us, but we are all back, save 2."

Marshal Dockery brought an interest-ing piece of news from the Nashvilla penitentiary about Reed, a notorious Pederal cenvict, who escaped from the penitentiary here, last year. Reed is in the penitentlary at Nashville, under ed name. The warder there saked the Marshal if he did not think he evenson, Hill, Towne, Lewis, of Wash knew Reed, and the reply was: "Yes." Reed was brought in, and spoke at once saying, that as long as so many of his sllow convicts from the North Carolina pentientiary had arrived it was useless for him to try to conceal his identity Reed, Miller and Wright were convicted of blowing open post office safes at Winsten and other places, They made their escape one morning going through some planks in the stockade, which had been so sawed as to give them an easy chance to depart. All are desperate men. They had robbed post offices in Virginia as well as this State. Reed and Wright agreed to plead guilty if Miller was discharged. As soon as he was discharged he was rearrested for another
