London, June 7.—The government is informed from Shanghal that the news the massacre of the foreigners in ekin is confirmed.

Pekin is confirmed.

The ministers, the women, children, foreign residents and the European guards in Pekin were all killed after eighteen days of fighting.

The confirmation is from the British Consul at Shanghal and he reports that a Chinese army of eighteen thousand is now marching to attack the foreigners at Canton.

The Chinese troops are moving on all sides and the trouble is apreading.
Rumors from Pekin say that the na-

When the ammunition of the foreign ers defending the legation buildings ran low, the Chinese troops and Boxers rushed in and killed the defenders and then burned the legation buildings with the bodies of the dead.

WASHINGTON, July 7-A dispatch ha ben received from General Goodnow at Shanghal saying that the foreign legations were still in existence at Pekin July 3rd. The dispatch says that the recent attacks of the Bexers had been slight and the Chinese seemed disposed to adopt starvation methods to destroy the garrison.
