MASSACRED.

The Foreigners in Peking Executed
 One Week Ago.

The Total Number Put at 1717.
 Allies in Danger at Tien Tsin. The Whole Situation is Terrible.

Special to Journal.

London, July 13.—An official telegram has been received from Peking saying that all the foreigners in the city were executed last Friday.

The foreigners that massacred are believed to be the foreign ministers and attaches, 72; legation officers 426; employes in the Imperial customs 45; missionaries, students and teachers 750; foreign merchants 125; and transient visitors 300.

A cablegram from Chefoo says that the allied troops at Tien Tsin are in a desperate condition and are preparing to retreat, and that they may not be able to get away safely.

The Chinese forces are giving them no rest. They are fighting day and night. England will send twenty thousand more troops to China from India.

Spain will send no war vessel to China as there are no Spanish interests there to defend.

Washington, July 13.—Secretary Hay has given the Chinese Minister Wu a test message to send to United States Minister Conger at Peking. This is in accordance with the decision to insist that the Minister Wu furnish definite information as to the fate of Conger and other Americans in Peking. If the Chinese Government was able to forward a decree from China, it is argued, it is able to send a communication from the foreign ministers in Peking. The authenticity of the decree made public Wednesday is now doubted in Washington.

The Chinese minister undertakes to deliver the message. He declares that the edict issued by Prince Tuan which he gave to Secretary Hay was genuine.

Consul Goodnow telegraphs that on July 7th the Boxers were bombarding the legations for a final attack and that he feared the worst.

The authorities in Washington believe the horrible news and that the Chinese official telegrams received here were lies out of whole cloth.

New York, July 13.—The Herald will publish tomorrow the following dispatch from Washington:

"China will be called upon through Minister Wu to give definite information regarding the fate of Minister Conger and the other Americans in Peking without delay.

"The authorities are not at all pleased with the action of the Chinese Government in sending out its representatives throughout the world a long dispatch in which an effort is made to shift responsibility for the occurrence at Peking, but in which not a word is said about the legations or the ministers. Before the receipt of this imperial edict there was a disposition to believe that the minister had not been heard from for the reason that the Chinese Government itself was unable to get information through the lines of rebellious Boxers surrounding Peking.

"That excuse now no longer exists. The world has now learned that whoever is in power at Peking—be it the Emperor Dowager or prince Tuan—is able to communicate with the Chinese representatives, if they are still alive, be allowed to communicate with their governments. They will also expect to be quickly informed if the ministers and other foreigners in Peking have been murdered."

"No definite demand has yet been made on Minister Wu, but it has been intimated to him that if the friendly relations which have existed between the United States and the Chinese Government in spite of the Boxer disturbances, are to continue, that Government must relieve the suspense now existing in this country as to the fate of Minister Conger and other Americans in Peking."

London, July 13.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail says the following story regarding the position in Peking emanates from Chinese official sources:

"The two remaining legations, the British and Russian, were attacked in force on the evening of July 6, Prince Tuan being in command. The attack was divided. Prince Tuan commanded the center, the right wing was led by Prince Tsi Yiu and the left by Prince Yiu Lin. The Russians were under Prince Tsi Yiu.

"The attack commenced with artillery fighting, which was severe, and lasted until 7 o'clock in the morning, by which time both legations were destroyed and all the foreigners were dead, while the streets around the legations were full of the dead bodies of both foreigners and Chinese.

"Upon hearing of the attack Prince China and General Wang Wen Shao went with troops to the assistance of the legations, but they were not numbered and released. Both Prince China and Republicans Pleased at the Appointment of Boyd.

Cy Thompson's Big Talking Cyclone Davis Speaks Monday.

Rain Has Come.

Soldier's Home in Improvement.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, July 13.—The Corporation Commission was today notified that the Bank of King's Mountain has become a national bank.

The local Republicans here express great pleasure at the appointment of James E. Boyd as judge of the Winston, N. C. district. They know that if Senator Fritchard had desired that position he could have had it, but he said here during his party's State convention that he intended to "serve" out his time as Senator; that he thought that his duty.

"Cyclone" Davis, of Texas, who otherwise is J. H. Davis, ex-Congressman, who is to stump this State for the Populists, makes his speech at Angier, Harnett county next Monday, with Cy Thompson. Ex-Congressman John B. Fowler also speaks there that day.

Cy Thompson came in yesterday afternoon from his campaign. He was asked what sort of a campaign he was making and replied: "I never had better audiences since I left the Democratic party. The people are against the constitutional amendment and for me for Governor. I am making them good speeches. If there is a fair election we will defeat the amendment by 60-40."

Fine rains fell yesterday afternoon and evening and it is hoped are general, as crops were suffering greatly.

The Democrats here have resolutely put aside National politics until after the State election August 2.

The partially burned engine house at the Agricultural and Mechanical College has been rebuilt.

By the end of the present month the hospital at the Soldiers' Home will be completed. There are now 79 inmates of the Home.

Among today's arrivals was W. B. Shepard, Esq., of Edenton.

Charles B. Aycock arrived here this morning for Hillsboro and went at once to Fugate Springs, on a special train to make his only speech in this county. People from three counties were there to hear him.

FEELING AROUSED.

Piedmont Section Indignant at the Registrar Arrests.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, July 13.—A telegram from Democratic Chairman Simmons who is at Winston says that the four negroes who swore out warrants against two registrars of election, were themselves arrested today and are in the sheriff's custody. The bonds were fixed at $500 each.

Chairman Simmons telegraphs here, that, "Every one who swears out similar warrants will be arrested."

Secretary Pearsall at the Democratic headquarters here says that the people in the upper Piedmont and Winston section heard from are very indignant at the arrests of the Winston registrars and will resent with great feeling this interference with State affairs by Federal authorities.

The United States Commissioner before whom the cases against the registrars are being heard has not yet decided upon them.

HITTING BACK.

Decisive Action Taken at Winston Against the Negroes.

WINSTON-SALEM, July 13.—Four negroes who swore out warrants against Mr. Thompson, the registrar here, have been arrested and are, now in the hands of the Sheriff. A justified bond was fixed at five hundred dollars each.

Chairman F. M. Simmons is still in the city and says that every man who swears out a warrant similar to the one in this case will be arrested.

James E. Reed, of Montgomery county, was in Winston yesterday and said that three negroes and three white men, a few days ago, entered the office of a registrar in that county and holding pistols at his head forced him with threats of killing to register them. Of course they were registered, but immediately upon their disappearance their names were erased from the books. Officers have been in search for these negroes and white men but up to the time of Mr. Reed leaving home the officers had been unable to capture them.
