AN APOLOGY.

There is an old story of a punctiliously polite Greek, who while performing the funeral of an infant daughter, felt bound to make his excuses to the spectators for "bringing out such a small corpse to so large a crowd."

We apologise for bringing out such a small advertisement to so large a crowd of readers, but, hope the very Low Prices will make the necessary amends.

Our show window on Pollock street, exhibits Great Bargains. Trimmed Straw Hats, in all shades at 50c, were early in the season $2.00.

Black and White Sailors at 50c, sold fast at $1.00. Men's Black and Colored Vici Kid, Bals. and Congress Shoes from $1.00 to $1.50. Could not be bought from manufacturer at that price. Lucky is the customer who secures any of these.

NO CAUSE FOR IGNORANCE.

A Chance For Everyone to Get Some Education. Redeem The State.

Ramon, July 22.

Doubtless there may be a class of people who say they cannot advocate the proposed Amendment, for if they do they will disfranchise their children who will become of age after 1905. I would like to say to such a class, (if there be any) that were we living in ancient days, there might be some reason for thinking thus. But people of today have great advantages over people who lived two thousand years ago, especially along the educational line.

I say the young men of the nineteenth century have great educational advantages over those who lived in Cleopatra's time. Books in those days were of an inferior kind, and literature was almost unknown. There were but few places of learning and a limited number that were capable of teaching. But it is not so at the present day. Our land is dotted all over with school houses of different kinds, Colleges, high schools and common schools, and we are surrounded by men capable of instructing us. Our books are so simplified that anyone, in a short time, can easily master the most difficult study.

I would say to the young men of today, when they are forming circles for the purpose of studying the events of the present, when "current topics" are becoming a feature of the day, it may not be amiss to look a little while into the past, and consider the advantages they have over their ancestors.

It is strange but nevertheless true, that so many young men of the present day living in a land of education, surrounded by wide-awake educators, having full access to the simplest and best literature that a nation ever produced, make failures in life. There must be something lacking and may possibly be the will power. No young man should be discouraged because he is poor or has limited means. Remember that the greatest men that the world ever knew started from poor boys. George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and many others who were poor boys, distinguished themselves as great men. I venture to say that there are brighter intellects between the plow handles of the Southern States, than ever decorated the Senate halls of the United States.

The majority of the people of North Carolina today need nothing better than an educational stimulant, and there is nothing that will elicit this stimulation better than the Amendment.

So it becomes every man who loves his country, his home, his family, to wake up from their lethargy sleep and go to the polls August 2nd and make the "Old North State" (the proudest in the United States) what she should be, a true republic as well as in name.

N. M. ARNOLD.

Hon. J. H. Small in Pamlico.

Vandemere, N. C. July 24.

Hon. John H. Small, our most worthy representative in Congress, was greeted yesterday by a large and thoughtful gathering of the citizens of Pamlico county. Many came that they might see and know this noble statesman who has so ably represented them for two years in the halls of Congress, and who so much deserves for a second term the unanimous support of every liberty loving citizen in this district. Some came that they might learn more about the Amendment, some came through curiosity. All were abundantly gratified.

The speaker did not have the time to discuss National issues, which might give him a larger majority in November, but gave his time and eloquence to the great issue before the people of North Carolina.

Mr. Small dealt with the subject in a most powerful, logical and convincing manner.

Men who had been in doubt came away strong in their declarations for the Amendment.

Let everybody hear Hon. John H. Small.

The Dismal Swamp Fire.

News, Va., July 24.—The destructive fire in the Dismal swamp is still burning on the southern side of the great wilderness, where some of Sunday's storm was felt. The heavy rain put out that portion of the fire on this side of the swamp, though it is probable that the fire in the past on the surface and below the ground is still burning and will probably continue to do so until the fall rains set in. There was no rain on the Canadian side, consequently the flames are still devouring the timber and everything inflammable on this side of the swamp. Lumbermen are not the only sufferers by the fire. The millions of birds that nest here, and the millions of fish that are raised in the swamp, are also being destroyed.

The Swamp Guard Club is the only organization that has been formed to combat the fire. Try to help.

STILL IN DOUBT.

Messages Dated July 4th, the Only News From Peking.

Condition of Tien Tsin Appalling. Destruction of the City. Allies Dare Not Advance. Chances of Mediation.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, July 25.—A message sent from Peking July 4th, by Minister Conger arrived at Tien Tsin July 21st. It says:

"Besieged for two weeks in British legation. Chinese army is the only government and determined to massacre all foreigners. Legation shelled daily. Danger of general massacre of all foreigners. Relief must come soon if at all." A letter from the British minister at Peking, Sir Claude McDonald dated July 4th, received at Tien Tsin 21st, appeals for relief, says there was only a fortnight's provisions with 44 killed and twice as many wounded.

A runner who left Peking July 14th says that the city was in a state of anarchy, the Boxers getting the advantage of the government troops. The ammunition of the legation guard was then nearly exhausted.

The allies at Tien Tsin say that an advance towards Peking will be hotly contested by the Chinese.

Descriptions of the condition of Tien Tsin show that the city presents an appalling spectacle. The suburbs were utterly destroyed by the shells and by fire. Inside the city frightful damage was done. Thousands of dead are in the streets.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Substantial results are expected to be obtained toward clearing the atmosphere of doubt respecting the safety of the foreigners in Peking by the President's direct answer to the Chinese Emperor's appeal for mediation by the United States in the pending internal difficulties.

This reply commits the Government to an arbitrary course of conduct and promises only to exercise its good offices in bringing about order conditionally on the Chinese Government acceding to stipulations presented in the answer. The course pursued by the President as outlined in the reply is fully expected to result in forcing the Imperial Government to immediately disclose the real situation in Peking beyond further question. Its effect, it is claimed will be to compel China to show her hand and to make it plain to all the world if she is dealing squarely with the nations, and especially this country in representations made of the foreigners being safe.

The belief is not concealed here that the chances for successful mediation are slight. Mediation cannot be forced upon a party to a cause; it must be acceptable to all the parties. If the United States is to mediate in China's interest she must first secure the assent of all the powers who have suffered in life or property at Peking. The difficulties in the way of such an undertaking are likely to be many and serious, in view of the exhibition of feeling in Europe. But it is said here that the United States will cheerfully undertake the task provided its conditions are met.

Jerry Turned Down.

FORT SCOTT, KAN., July 24.—The feature of the day's proceedings in the Populist, Democratic and Silver-Republican convention which met here today in separate halls, to nominate State tickets, or effect a fusion in the interest of a single ticket, was the turning down of the Senatorial aspirations of Jerry Simpson by the Populist convention. The ex-Congressman desired to go before the next Legislature in the event of a Populist or fusion success at the polls with the definite endorsement of the State convention, for the office of United States Senator.

Mr. Simpson took the floor and urged his own candidacy. He was bitter in his denunciation of some of his opponents and the convention was soon in an uproar. He retired amid groans and hisses. When a vote was taken endorsement was refused by a majority of nearly two-thirds.

The Gold Hunter.

Washington, July 24.—Burgess-General Sternberg received a report today from Burgess R. G. Ebert, of the army, dated Nome, Alaska, June 25, which gives the details of the conditions existing at that place.

He says that within two or three weeks the population has increased from 2,500 to 30,000, with tent and buildings everywhere located along the beach. The military authorities were very much in the first place and with the influx of the new population have become great wealth. He describes a horrid condition existing, as there is no method of cleaning up the town, and no provision for the destruction of accumulations of garbage and filth.

RALEIGH.

Butler's TEXAN Speaker. Holton's Poor Work. Butler Not Wanted East.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, July 25.—Harry Tracy, one of the two Texans sent for by Senator Butler and now speaking in this State, is the man who organized the Farmers' Alliance in North Carolina, ten years ago.

Isaac M. Meekins, the young Republican whom the "revenue ring" is trying so hard to knock out as the nominee for Congress from the 1st, district, is doing some plain talking, saying the negroes and revenue officers are the bone of his party in North Carolina, that the revenue officers know that after the ratification of the franchise amendment a white Republican party will be formed in this State but that they will have no leadership in it.

Republicans are criticizing Republican State chairman Holton's poor management, and say he is the worst chairman the party has ever had but that he will never resign.

It is very clear to persons here that Senator Butler had better keep away from Southern North Carolina and that the arrest of the registrar at Rose Hill by his directions has put the people in that section of the State in such a frame of mind that it is not safe for him to venture there. The fact is that the people are determined to put a stop to the arrests of registrars.

The laws of the June session of the legislature have been printed and make 84 pages.

Col. A. W. Hilday, who was until last year president of the agricultural and mechanical college is here on a visit.

Many gifts of machinery for the textile department of the agricultural and mechanical college are being made by manufacturers. Marked interest in the new department is shown.

The cost of yesterday's session of the legislature was not quite $100.
