ITALY DISTURBED.

Assassination of King Humbert Places Country in Danger.

Queen Acts As Regent. Attempt To Overthrow The Kingdom. Three Shots Fired And Death Soon Resulted.

Special to Journal.

—LONDON, July 30.—The assassination of King Humbert of Italy at Monza, sets Italy on fire. The government troops have seized the telegraph offices in the endeavor to prevent the seriousness of the situation becoming known to the outside world.

Italy is apparently in a state of revolution, the aim of the anarchists being to overthrow the kingdom. This appears to be nearer of accomplishment than at any time during the troublous reign of the late King.

Queen Margherita is acting as regent until the new King Victor Emmanuel arrives at Rome. There are hints of a political motive being behind the assassination.

Monza, Italy, July 30.—King Humbert has been assassinated.

He was shot here this evening by Angelo Bressi and died in a few minutes.

Monza is a city of Northern Italy, nine miles northeast of Milan. It has a population of 25,000, and has been visited a number of times by King Humbert.

The King had been attending a distribution of prizes in connection with a gymnastic competition. He had just entered his carriage with his aide-de-camp amid the cheers of the crowd, when he was struck by three pistol shots fired in quick succession. One bullet pierced his heart. He fell back and expired in a few minutes.

The assassin was arrested and, with some difficulty, was saved from the fury of the populace. He gave his name as Angelo Bressi, describing himself as of Prato, in Tuscany.

China's Circumlocution Office.

The Chinese Foreign Office, or Tsung-ti-Yamen, was established as a temporary bureau of necessity after the war of 1860. It consists of eleven aged, sleepy incompetents, who muddle with foreign affairs.

All these eleven elders have reached such posts by steady advances. They are always septuagenarians, worn out with the exacting, empty routine rights and functions of such high office, and physically too exhausted by their midnight rides to and sunrise departures from the palace to begin fully the days tedious at the dissipated Tsung-ti-Yamen.

The appointment for an interview with the non-committal, irresponsible board must be made beforehand, the Minister and his Secretaries are always kept waiting, and the inner reception rooms swarm with gaping attendants during an interview. Once the American Minister made a vigorous protest, and refused to conduct any negotiations while there were underlings in the room and, as it was business that the Chinese Government wished conducted, the minutes was summarily cast out—cast out to the other side of the many-hinged, latched doors, where they scuffled audibly for first places at tracks and knotholes.

The other envoys would not sustain the American protest, and soon the farce of the empty room was played to an end, and the servants came in with their pipes and fans, tea and cake and candles, as usual, stood about, commented on, and fairly took part in the diplomatic conversations, as before.

An inconspicuous time is always consumed in offering and arranging the teas and sweets, and to any direct questions these ostentatious statesmen always answer with phrases of the melon seeds or ginger root.—London Mail.

THE MAJORITY.

It is Estimated That the Amendment Will Have 40,000.

Butler Still Struggling. The Texas Populist Not Wanted A New Campaign Button.

Glad When It Is Over.

Special to Journal.

—BALTIMORE, July 30.—The estimate made here is that the Democrats are sure to carry the State by not less than 40,000. It was said this morning that Senator Butler has offered to bet they would not carry it by 50,000; that is that the constitutional amendment would not receive that much majority.

Senator Butler, Cy Thompson, W. H. Worth, A. E. Holton and other Populists and Republicans were in conference yesterday. The Senator issued a special edition of his paper yesterday morning. He is flooding the mails with his paper and other literature. Torn copies of his paper littered the streets yesterday and today. He had sent them to Democrats, who tore them up or threw them away. Stump Aahby, one of the Texas Populists, came back yesterday from Lumberton, where the citizens told him politely, but firmly that he could not make any fusion speech. He laughed and told them they were 16 to 1, and that he believed in that ratio.

Secretary Pearsall at Democratic headquarters says he has during the campaign made 1500 assignments of speakers.

The Wake Democrats are wearing a new button. On it are the words, "If you are White vote White."

People in this part of the State are glad the campaign is so nearly over. It has kept public attention keyed up to the highest pitch for a long time. Little else is talked of. The Democrats are very proud of the big majority which Wake is going to give next Thursday.

Editor John T. Pleasants, of the Baltimore Sun, is here, getting material for special articles on political conditions in North Carolina. It will be remembered that two years ago Prof. William Carlisle, of Johns Hopkins University, was sent to this State by the Sun to do work of like character, that is from a sociological point of view.

Loge Harris sticks to his statement that as between Aycock and Adams he will vote for Aycock. He does this in return for the knifing Adams gave Governor Russell in the last Republican State convention.

Several years ago a Hialeah man planted in a swamp near here a few roots of the Egyptian lotus. Now this magnificent flower is running riot over the swamp, and no more thoroughly tropical scene can be found in this State.

N. C. Baseball Yesterday.

Special to Journal.

Durham, July 30.—Statesville defeated Durham in a close game today by a score of 3 to 2. The batteries were Kenna and Lawbert, Burns and La Grand. Charlotte, July 30.—Wilmington defeated Charlotte today by a score of 4 to 1. Batteries, Sweeney and Gwaltney, Malcolm and Cuddy.

The Shah in Danger.

Special to Journal.

PANAMA, July 30.—An attempt was made here today to assassinate the Shah of Persia who is a visitor to the Exposition.

The Legislature.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, July 30.—The Legislature met in adjourned session at noon today. The session was only half an hour when adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon.

Can Cuba Govern?

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Maj. E. T. Ladd, U. S. A., Treasurer of Cuba, who was in Washington a day or two ago, talked very plainly about the Cubans, considering his official position. He said: "The Cubans are a harmless people, in no way fit for self-government, and the announcement of the early departure of the United States troops which, among the better element, had not been expected for the next ten years at least, has aroused a strong feeling against the proposed step. The Spaniards and the better class of Cubans undoubtedly prefer an American protectorate. A cry for self-government comes from the idle class and those who do not represent the best interests of the island. The finances of the island are in good condition. Since the first of January 1898, we have collected something like $25,000,000 and have spent some $20,000,000, leaving a surplus of about $5,000,000. The commercial conditions are better and the sanitary conditions far ahead of what they have usually been."

One Minute Cough Cure is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Try it. F. A. Duffy.

SAME STORY.

Conflicting Reports From Peking Make a Distressing Situation.

The American Troops Can Advance On Short Notice. A Great War Is Now Threatened. Night Attack. Repulsed.

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Word arrived at Tien Tsin on the 27th that there was authentic news from Peking that the foreigners were safe and that the bombardment of the legations ceased on the 16th by mutual agreement.

News of the 29th is conflicting. Messengers who are reported to have left Peking on 23rd state that firing on the legations was resumed on the 18th and that the foreigners had only 25 rounds of ammunition remaining while they had been using sixty rounds daily.

Consul Fowle at Chefoo telegraphs the State Department that the Austrian, Italian and Dutch legations were entirely destroyed and the French legation partially. The Chinese shelled the legations from June 20th to July 17th, ten Chinese regiments being engaged. The Consul states that the body of the murdered German Minister was saved from the hands of the Boxers.

An account of a night attack upon the legations has reached Tien Tsin. The American and British in the legations allowed the Chinese to get into a trap and killed a thousand of them. The Chinese afterwards bombarded the legations more freely.

A cablegram says that the Pope has been notified by a Bishop that the foreigners in Peking are safe.

The American troops at Tien Tsin are ready to advance on Peking upon 24 hours notice.

That one of the bloodiest wars in history is about to be fought in China is now almost the general belief in Washington, but a much better understanding must be reached by the nations supposed to be allied against China before anything important is likely to be accomplished. The jealousy, open and secret between Russia and Japan, is believed to be largely, if not entirely responsible for the delay in starting the allied army from Taku to Peking. The safety of the foreign ministers is no longer the most important factor.

Even accepting the Chinese assurances of their safety, the known massacre of other foreigners has made the occupation of Peking by a foreign army necessary in order to teach the Chinese a needed lesson in good behavior as well as to compel the payment of a suitable indemnity. If the other powers declare war on China, the President will have to call an extra session of Congress to decide what this government will do.
