THEY ARE ALIVE.

British Minister At Peking Gets Word to His Government.

LONDON, July 30.—The British Government is now fully convinced that the Ministers in Peking are safe. The Admiralty has made public the following dispatch from Rear-Admiral Bruce at Tientsin: "Following message from Peking, signed by MacDonald: 'British Legation, Peking, June 30 to July 16 repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides, both rifle and artillery fire. Since June 16 an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. Chinese barricades close to ours. All women and children in the British Legation. Casualties to date 63 killed, including Captain Strouts. A number of wounded in hospital, including Captain Halliday. Rest of legation all well except David Oliphant and Warren, killed July 31.'"

The dispatch, of course, is from Sir Claude MacDonald, the British Minister. Besides this, the British Consul at Tientsin telegraphs to the Foreign Office that a letter from a Japanese colonel in Peking states that the legations were safe July 22. There had been no firing on the legations, according to this dispatch, since July 15.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The effect of the day's news from China is to freshen the hope that the government can soon get in direct communication with Minister Conger.

The mass of testimony as to his being alive as late as July 23 is now so great as to warrant the department in resuming the consideration of projects for the future. With all of its anxiety to get Mr. Conger and the Americans in Peking safely away, the department is proceeding with caution and is by no means disposed to accept any proposition that would unduly jeopardize their lives. Such might be the acceptance of an off-hand acceptance of the proposition to have the Chinese Government to deliver the Foreign Ministers at Tientsin, for it is realized that the escort might be overpowered by superior forces of Boxers on the way to the sea.

How Humbert Died.

MONZA, ITALY, July 30.—The shot which killed King Humbert was fired at 10:45 o'clock last night. When the King was wounded he exclaimed: "It is nothing."

He was put in the royal carriage, which covered the distance between the Gymnastic Society clubhouse, where the crime was committed, and the royal villa at full speed, requiring but three minutes for the trip. The King expired on the way, and, although placed on a bed at the villa, was dead when the doctors arrived.

When Queen Margharita arrived at the villa it was still hoped that the King would still survive, and when the truth was broken to her a heartrending scene ensued. Bursting into tears she exclaimed: "It is the greatest crime of the century. Humbert was good and faithful. No person could have loved his people more. He was one who bore ill will to none."

When the Queen's mother arrived there was another scene of grief. The expression of the dead King's face is tranquil and even seems smiling. The corpse was bled immediately after death.

The assassin, Angelo Bressi, fired three shots from a pistol as the King was leaving the Gymnastic Society's building, where he had been present at an award of prizes. The fatal bullet is believed to have passed close to the King's heart.

Bressi was born in Prato, Italy, 30 years ago, and is a weaver. He comes from America, where he had resided at Paterson, N. J. The assassin says he had no accomplices and that he committed the crime because of his hatred of monarchical institutions. He reached Monza July 27 from Milan, where he stayed a few days. In prison he is strictly guarded.

WORST OF ALL.

Ewart's Remarks on Butler Severe Beyond Measure.

No Disturbance Yet But Antis Would Like Some. Favorable Reports Coming in Reply From Washington.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, July 31.—No attack on Senator Butler has been so severe as that by ex-judge H. G. Ewart. He says the Senator richly deserves tarring and feathering. He says he and a good many other western Republicans will scratch the names of the eight Populists on the Fusion ticket, voting only for the three Republicans on it. Several local Republicans here say they will do the same thing.

The Republicans have hoped that there would be acts of rioting in this State, but so far they are utterly disappointed. As Chairman Simmons says the "Red Shirts", who are merely uniformed Democratic Clubs, deter from disorder instead of promoting it. The only shot fired so far was by an ambushed negro, who at Asheville last night while concealed in a dark alley fired into a Democratic procession and hit one of the paraders.

Traveling men say they never saw politics so hot as in the eastern counties. Everywhere there is the most extreme confidence and determination on the part of the Democrats.

There has been doubt as to Vance county's vote. Congressman Atwater, came from there to lay and says that county will give the Constitutional Amendment from 300 to 400 majority and the legislative and county Democratic tickets from 300 to 800 majority. Vance and Warren will elect a Democratic Senator. Chatham county is close. It was said today by Democrats that despite Fusion boasts they did not believe it would give as much as 200 fusion majority.

At Democratic Headquarters the opinion is that the Charlotte Observer estimates 40,000 of the majority for the Amendment is very near the mark.

It is learned that the Democrats have fine prospects in Alamance, which the Fusionists have persistently claimed.

At Wilkesboro Senator Pritchard was booked to speak yesterday. He didn't appear. Many Republicans were there to meet him, and among them were 100 negroes on horse back, who wanted to go in the parade. The white Republicans had a conference and decided to ask the negroes to keep out of the parade. This made the negroes violently angry.

Today Democratic State Chairman Simmons received the following letter from the U. S. Civil Service Commission: "Your communication was duly received, dated July 23, with regard to the activity of federal office holders in North Carolina in the State campaign. An earlier acknowledgment would have been made but it was expected that the affidavits to which you refer would shortly arrive. Immediately upon the receipt of these affidavits the Commission will give the matter its earnest attention." The affidavits are coming in rapidly. A large batch will be sent.

Shah Up-to-Date.

PARIS, July 30.—The Shah of Persia went out to the Palace of Sovereigns yesterday for the purpose of trying an automobile.

Serpellet, the inventor, showed the Shah how to guide the machine himself and make the changes to the different speeds. The Shah finds this noiseless machine which has no vibration, suitable to the royal dignity, and has ordered one himself.

It was rumored that an attempt had been made against the life of the Shah of Persia, but investigation proved this incorrect. While the Shah was visiting the Exposition this morning a member of his suite walked near by a ransacking French carrying an ostentatious portfolio in his belt. On account of his suspicious actions the man was arrested.
