BUTLER ON TOWNE.

Populists Will Vote To Suit
Themselves.

Corporation Commission to Meet
The Rayburns Trouble.
Cotton Will Interest.
Sims on on Negro
In National Politics.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, Aug. 10.—Senator Butler says editorially in his paper here: "We see in the Democratic papers that Towne has come down as our candidate for Vice-President and will not accept our nomination. He may have the right to refuse our nomination but he cannot assume the right to say whom we shall vote for. We see it charged in Democratic papers that Towne has had the promise of a cabinet position and if it should be that of secretary he can record the fact that the populists will attend to their own business."

At the next session of the Corporation Commission, Aug. 15, the matter of the classification of freight in general will be considered. The Southern, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line will there be represented. These systems have recently issued a new inter-state classification and the roads are applying it from point to point in this State, or this shippers in North Carolina have made complaints to the Commission. The latter may adopt the new classification or adhere to the old one. Some of the rates of the new are higher and some lower than those of the old one.

The Seaboard Air Line files in the United States District Court here exceptions to the report of Special Master Eugene S. Martin that the order of the Corporation Commission making 10 tons of fertilizers a minimum car load, was just and reasonable.

There are two widely differing statements as to the necessity for sending troops to Bayboro last Saturday night, one that they were needed and that the fact that they were sent for dispersed a mob; the other that there was no mob, and that the call for troops was a slander and a libel upon the good people of Pamlico county. It is a queer complication.

The Democratic State Executive Committee is expected to meet here about September 1. The State Chairman will spend ten days or a fortnight at Beaufort.

State Treasurer Worth has gone to High Point to attend the great "yearly meeting" of the Friends or Quakers. At this there will be at least 5,000 people Sunday. There are delegates from all the other great centers of Quaker life in this country.

It is expected that a number of young women will avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the textile department at the Agricultural and Mechanical college here. Hand looms have been ordered for the designing department. Students will study the principles of weaving, and the course of instruction will include carding, spinning, weaving and dyeing. A dye house will be added.

North Carolina has more cotton mills than any other State, and this textile department will be the center of a new line of development. The electrical engineering building at the college is nearly ready for use. It is 30x50, and of brick, which were forwarded by Superintendent Day of the penitentiary, to whom the college feels under particular obligations. In this building there will be ten dynamos of different types, all for purposes of study. The college will perhaps next year have a blast furnace for smelting.

Democratic State Chairman Simmons when asked if the negro question or color line was to be an issue in National politics in North Carolina this year replied: "The National campaign in North Carolina will be made on the issues for instilled by the Kansas City platform."

It is reported that Cyrus Thompson who was the Populist nominee for Governor but was taken down, said yesterday he intended to vote for McKinley. Chairman Simmons said he had been so told, and he added that he thought as a rule the Populists in North Carolina will vote for McKinley. He says he does not think over 6,000 Populists votes were cast in the State election last week.

Another Message From Minister
Conger. Germany to Send Twenty Thousand Additional Troops. French Troops
For Protection At Shanghai.

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 10.—Minister Wu has delivered another message from Minister Conger to the State Department.

The message is in cipher, and says the Minister will not leave Peking, though urged to do so, as that would mean the massacre of 3,000 native Christians.

It is also said that the other Ministers at Peking will not leave without instructions from their governments.

BERLIN, August 10.—Special—Germany has decided to send twenty thousand additional troops to China. Five thousand will leave at once.

Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, who is to be in supreme command of the Allied forces in China, sails on the 22nd inst.

LONDON, August 10.—Special—It is reported the Emperor of China has ordered Li Hung Chang to negotiate terms of peace with the Powers.

Two thousand French troops are ordered to protect the French settlement at Shanghai.

The Chinese, usually lacking in the tactical skill of modern armies, appear to be acquiring it. They are now anxiously threatening Tientsin, the base of the allies, which is garrisoned by a small body of American troops. As most of the allied troops have advanced to the front, the Chinese move may serve to draw them back.

Official advices received in Washington yesterday state that Yangtze was captured by the allies last Monday. This place is 18 miles northwest of Tientsin and 7 miles northwest of Peking, where the allies won a battle on Sunday. The Americans lost about 80 killed or wounded in the attack on Yangtze and many were prostrated by heat and fatigue. A dispatch to the London Daily Express says the total loss of the allies was 200 and that four hours' heavy fighting preceded their victory.

Yangtze is to be used as the allied advanced base for the movement on Peking, 40 miles distant. General Terashiki, second in command of the Japanese troops, states in a dispatch to his Government that the real advance on Peking will begin August 15, by which time the allies will have assembled a force of 50,000 men. It is believed that the capture of Yangtze is only a preliminary and that the town will be equipped as an effective base by August 15, so that the real advance in force on Peking can begin at that time.
