the Inconscious Humor That Crops out to the Green Isle. The author of "Irish Life and Character' says truly that one has only to mix with an Irish crowd to fear many a hughable expression, quite in-nocently attered. As the Duke and Duchess of York were leaving Dublis

Duchess of York were leaving Dublia in 1807, amid enthusiastic cheering, an old woman remarked:

"Ah! Isn't it the fine reception they're gettin, goin away?'
In 1802 Dublia university celebrated its tercenteurry, and crowds of risitors were attracted to the city. Two laborers, rejoleed at the general prosperity, expressed their feelings.

"Well, Tim," said one, "thim tarcintinaries does a date for the thrade of Dublia, and no mistake."

JUST A BIT OF LIFE.

A Pathette Incident of the Paura

Speaking into a small shop in an obscure and poverty ridden locality, the man who "went broke" at the races was realizing on a superfluous article of jewelry. A woman so poor and pinched in feature, so marked with care and desperation that it made him feel sick to look at her, was holding something under her shawl and wait ing nervously until he should have finshed his transaction.

"Walt on her. She seems to be in a burry," he said to the man behind the counter, and at the word of permission the shelter of the shawl.

"How much do you want?" queried

"Fifty cents," replied the woman. with a gulping in her throat and an eager look in her eyes. She clutched the money tightly and ran into another creature, poor as berself, but bearing her troubles in duller fashion. She had a baby's clonk, never costly and much worn, on which she wanted to borrow money, the same sum as the other woman had asked for .. February 13, 1970, Surp'us and Undiv. The man who had been offering a diamond felt uncomfortable, "There give me $50. The stone's worth four Prompt and careful attention given to times as much." And, seizing the money, he hurried after the woman who had just left the shop. He was not given to acts of charity, and he felt awkward, the more so as the woman ill business cutrusted to us. Account thrank from him as be accosted ber.

"I beg your pardon," he began, "but here's $5 I have no use for. Perhaps Curious Mexican Laws. They have some very curious criminal laws in Mexico. For instance, it is twice as much of an offense to mutiinte the face of a woman as that of a man. The law seems to be based on the idea that a woman's best possession is her beauty and that to mar it does her a great injury.

There is another curious law. If a person should be wounded in an encounter, the punishment to the offender is fixed by the number of days his er is fixed by the number of days his victim has to stay in the bospital or under a doctor's care. A line is fixed at 40 days in the way of a general division. If the injured mas occupies more than 40 days in his recovery, the pen alty doubles up.

An Impudent Frand.

An impudent frand was perpetrated upon a Manchester bank by one of its customers, who opened an account with some few hundreds of pounds. The man, after a few weeks, drew two checks, each within a pound or so of its bainnes, and, selecting a busy day, presented himself at one end of the counter, while an accomplice, when he saw that his frieud's check had been cashed immediately presented his own to a cashler at the other end. Both cashlers referred the checks to the ashlers referred the checks to the edger clerk, who, thinking the same ashler had asked bim twice, said ght" to both checks. The thieres

And a single anointing with CUTICURA, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors with loss of hair, of infants and children, and is sure to succeed when all other remedies fail.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for soften ing, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanstive antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of suasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. Curr CURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated or toilet soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic tollet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in One SOAP at ONE PRICE, VIZ., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap,

ECZEMA'S ITOH IS TORTURE.

Ecrema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured. Ecrema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to coze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes nor other externat applications do any real good, for as long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.
