STILL ARRIVING.

Russians and Germans Still Pouring In The Chinese Empire.

International Commission Expected To Be Formed. Japs Before Forbidden City. Appeal For Help For Survivors.

Special to Journal.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Transports are pouring German and Russian troops into Taku.

The Fifteenth Infantry, the Third Artillery and five hundred American marines at Tientsin are awaiting orders. Rations for forty days are forwarded to Peking.

The allies will send an expedition to destroy the city of Pao Ting Fu, to avenge the massacre of foreigners there. The Black Flags are marching on Peking and killing the prisoners not ransomed. The viceroy of Suchow has sent troops to oppose the French.

The allied powers are arranging to have an international commission like that which settled affairs at the island of Oreste, to deliberate and settle terms of peace in China.

The Japanese command the gates of the Forbidden City and are awaiting instructions as to whether to hold them in possession or destroy them.

Prince Tuan, leader of the insurrection, is reported to have been seen here, and a diligent search is being made for him.

Chinese cavalry are operating near Tung Chow and a squadron of American cavalry and Sikhs has been sent in pursuit of them.

New York, August 14.—The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions received the following cablegram today from Peking under date of August 20:

North China Christians surviving slaughter destitute, homeless. Send immediate help, thank offering. Peking rescued. Wherry, Hobart, Smith.

This is interpreted as meaning that immediate help in the way of money is asked as a thank offering for the rescue of the Christians in China. The cablegram is sent conjointly by Missionaries Wherry, of the Presbyterian Mission; Hobart, of the Methodist Mission, and Smith, of the Congregational Mission, to the home boards of all the missions, and it is endorsed by Minister Conger. In response to this appeal the Presbyterians, Methodists and other boards of foreign missions are about to issue a petition for money.

Huntington's Will.

New York, August 24.—In the will of the late Collis P. Huntington, the contents of which was made public today, the bulk of his great fortune is left to his widow and children. The largest specific sum in cash mentioned is $1,000,000, which goes to Clara Elizabeth, the Princess Blatzfeldt, the adopted daughter of the millionaire financier and railroad man, to be held in trust for her during her life.

An exact statement of the amount could not be made, in all probability, so vast is the estate, but the most conservative estimates place the total at $30,000,000. Those who are in a position to know, however, place the amount at from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000. Some Wall street estimates go as high as $100,000,000, but this is considered very excessive.

Enjoying Life.

Special to Journal.

New York, Aug. 25.—Bob Fitzsimmons, after whipping Tom Sharkey at New York last night, went to a ball with $12,500 in his pocket. He and his wife danced all night.

New York, August 24.—Whipped into insensibility in less than two rounds is the story in brief of Tom Sharkey's meeting with Bob Fitzsimmons, at the Coney Island Sporting Club tonight. Fitzsimmons was the victor, Sharkey the loser. Fitzsimmons said all along that when an opportunity presented itself he would prove conclusively that he was Sharkey's superior, and settle accounts for the injustice done him when he met Sharkey in California four years ago.

Sharkey was equally confident that he would prove to be Fitzsimmons' master in the ring, but the result of tonight's battle and the brevity of it proved that Fitzsimmons is still a greater fighter, and able to beat the best of heavyweights. He has beaten Corbet, Rubin and Sharkey.

Cordua Died Bravely.

Special to Journal.

LONDON, August 25.—Lieutenant Cordua, the Boer officer convicted of an attempt to kill British officers and kidnap Lord Roberts, was shot this morning at Pretoria. Cordua met his fate bravely.

There were fifteen persons implicated in the conspiracy to kidnap Lord Roberts. They planned to set fire to houses in the suburbs of Pretoria and while the soldiers were engaged there to forcibly enter the houses occupied by the British officers, kill all except Lord Roberts and make him prisoner.

The trial began on Aug. 14. He admitted his implication and declared he had been overruled to join in the conspiracy by a man named Gano. An unsuccessful effort was made to connect Commandant General Botha with the affair. Gano is said to be an American. He denies having suggested the plot.

To Hoist Cuban Flag.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 24.—It is indicative of the policy of the United States Government that the Cuban flag will be hoisted tomorrow with elaborate ceremony over the palace in Santiago. It will float there for the first time since General Shafter ordered it hauled down in 1898.

Old-Time Negroes.

MACON, GA., August 24.—An anti-bellum negro association, to comprise members from all the Southern States, will be organized in Macon September 25. The object is to discontinue the crimes of young negroes which lead to lynchings and to establish better race relations. Booker T. Washington will attend the convention.

Hot Contest in Eighth.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., August 24.—The fight for the Democratic Congressional nomination in this district is getting hot. Forsyth has two men seeking the nomination, J. C. Burton and E. B. Jones. Unless a compromise is arranged, neither one will win. The others in the race are R. N. Hackett, of Wilkes; S. Graves, of Surry; E. F. Lovall, of Ashe; J. F. Newland and ex-Congressman W. H. Bower, of Caldwell. The Convention will be held at Lenoir, September 6th, and the candidates are predicting a long and hot contest before a nomination is made.

At His Doctor's Suggestion.

The doctor says you ought to take life easier—to enjoy yourself more.
All right; I'll go take a trip on this money which I had saved to pay on his bill.

Indefinite Imitation.

Bore—Your face looks familiar. Haven't I seen you somewhere?
Gore—Very likely; that's where I live. If you ever happen to be in that part of the country again drop in and see me.
