RUSSIA'S VOICE.

Says That The Relief of Legations Completes the Military Move.

Railway Being Repaired to Peking Important Cabinet Meeting at Washington. No More Troops. Refugees From Peking.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—A Japanese force is on the way from Tientsin to occupy Pan Ting Fu, a German convoy is provided with stores and provisions. The railway is now working half way from Tientsin to Peking.

A telegram from St. Petersburg reiterates the statement that Russia will almost immediately notify the Powers that she considers the relief of the Peking legations as the final accomplishment of the military task of the allies.

A special cabinet meeting is being held at the White House today. Important developments are expected regarding Chinese matters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Action was taken by the War Department this morning carrying out the recently announced policy of this Government to send no more troops to China at present.

An order was sent to the department's agents at Kobe, Japan, to divert the First United States Cavalry from that port to Manila instead of allowing it to proceed to Taku, according to the original orders.

TIENTSIN, CHINA, Aug. 28.—Fifty Americans, including Misses Condit-Smith, Woodward and Payne, have arrived here from Peking, which city they left five days ago by boat.

Fifteen of the American wounded, including the marines wounded during the siege of the legations, have also arrived here by boat from Peking. Captain Myers, of the United States Marine Corps, is suffering from typhoid fever in Peking and cannot be moved.

Knights of Pythias.

DARTMOUTH, Mich., Aug. 28.—The Military Division of the Order of Knights of Pythias did itself proud in its biennial parade this afternoon, and the vast crowds who witnessed the inspiring pageant gave enthusiastic approval all along the march. Nine thousand uniformed and helmeted Knights and musicians marched in rapid and orderly manner over the route of five miles, and were officially reviewed, first, by Supreme Chancellor Sample, and before dismissal by Major-General Carahan, commander of the Uniform Rank.

Thinning Ranks.

CHICAGO, August 28.—For four hours and a half to-day the thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic passed in view before their leaders and before probably a million spectators, packed in almost solid masses along the four miles of the line of parade. It was, according to Commander-in-Chief Shaw, the greatest parade since that day in Washington when the hundreds of thousands of veterans, the most powerful army on earth, marched in review to their final disembarkment.

Probably thirty thousand members of the army of veterans took part in the parade. With ranks almost perfectly aligned, but occasionally faltering under the burden of years, they filed past the reviewing stand on Michigan Avenue, saluting as they marched past General Nelson A. Miles, Commander-in-Chief Shaw, Daniel A. Sickles and the Spanish Minister, Duke D'Acros.

Famous Woman Dies.

NEWPORT, Va., Aug. 28.—Mrs. Butler, wife of Major-General M. C. Butler, U. S. A., died at Old Point Comfort this afternoon of acute pneumonia. She came to Old Point three or four days ago.

Mrs. Butler was sixty-eight years old, and the daughter of Governor Pickens, ex-Governor of South Carolina. The body will be taken to Edgefield, S. C. for interment.

It will surprise you to experience the benefit obtained by using the dainty and famous Little Pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. F. S. Duff.

WADDELL A CANDIDATE.

Announces the Fact in a Characteristic Letter to the People.

Special to Journal. WILMINGTON, N. C., August 29.—The following card was issued today to the Democratic voters of North Carolina: I respectfully inform you that I am a candidate for the nomination to United States Senate, which is to be made by the primaries on the 6th of November next and as such I solicit your votes. If either of the candidates for that position has served the Democratic party and the State of North Carolina longer and better, and has done more to establish white supremacy, and is otherwise better fitted for the place than myself I think that he ought to be preferred to me. Whether that be the case or not is for the people to decide, and I shall bow to their decision. ALYDAN MOORE WADDELL.

Humbert's Assassin.

Special to Journal. ROME, Aug. 29.—The trial of Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, began here today.

Bresci notified the Judge that he would not reply to questions.

Lynched for Murder.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 28.—A brutal murder was followed by a lynching at Forest City, a short distance from Charlotte, this afternoon. The murdered man was Mills H. Flack, a prominent citizen of Rutherford county and a member of the State Legislature. The man who was lynched for the crime was Avery Mills, a well-known negro of that section.

Flack had been missing peaches from his orchard. Circumstances seemed to point to Mills as the thief. Flack met Mills this afternoon and accused him.

Mills drew a pistol and shot Flack, the bullet entering the body near the heart, causing death almost instantly. Flack's body was soon found at a point near his house, and Mills was captured an hour afterward.

An armed mob took the negro from the officers, swung him to a tree and then riddled his body with bullets. Mills is said to have been a desperate character, and his victim was one of the most popular men in the State.

England Pays High For Coal.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The British Admiralty has bought 100,000 ton of Welsh steamer coal at 28 to 30 shillings per ton the highest price ever paid.

There is continued active discussion of the rise in the price of coal. The Standard's New York correspondent minimizes the importance of coal exports from the United States, on the ground that there is no guarantee of a maintenance of the present price, while there is a lack of contracts of sufficient dimensions to warrant the establishment of a steamship line confined to the coal trade.

STATE CAMPAIGN.

Time Set For Its Opening Announced As Sept. 10th.

Proceedings of the Agricultural Convention. Dr Lewis' Report on Smallpox. Students are Arriving. St. Luke's Home.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, Aug. 29.—The Democratic National campaign in North Carolina will begin September 10. Positive announcement to this effect was made today.

Two more members of the association of commercializers of agriculture arrived today to attend its convention here, being Frank Hill, of Little Rock, commissioner for Arkansas, and president Digger of the Alabama agricultural and mechanical college.

The features of the session of the convention today were the addresses on soils and soil text by Milton Whittier, chief of the soil test division of the United States agricultural department, and the illustrated lecture on good roads by state geologist Himes.

The soil test in this State is making good progress. The experts are now along the line of the Atlantic and North Carolina railway.

The Raleigh hosiery yarn mill has sold its "mule" spinners made in 1890, to a Huntsville, Ala. mill, and is putting in new "mules," which will spin finer yarns.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, Secretary of the State Board of Health, says there are now five times as many feet of smallpox as there were last year at this date.

Students are arriving at the Agricultural and Mechanical College here earlier than ever before. It is eight days before the term begins, yet there are now over fifty present.

For St. Luke's home for the aged and infirm women, and also for the widows of Confederate veterans $4519 has been raised in various cities and towns in the State. The home is here.
