Death of Dr. McGuire.

RICHMOND, Va., September 20-Dr Hunter McGuire, the chief surgeon of Stonewall Jackson's Corps and one of the best-known medical men of the south died here this morning. His death occorred six months to the day from the time he was stricken with paralysis. This attack occurred in the streets while Dr. McGuire was being driven from his home ta St. Luke's Hospital, on West Grace street.

At the close of the war Dr McGuire made his home in Richmond, having been appointed to the chair of surgery in the Medical College of Virginia. He resigned this appointment in 1878, but in 1880 he accepted the emeritus professorpital and home for the sick, which he conducted with the greatest success.

In 1894 he established the Virginia Hospital and the University College of Medicine.
