REGISTRATION.

The Number of New Names Very Few as Was Expected.

Result of Going to the Fair. Marshals' Ball a Success. Old Resident Dying. Cotton Bulletin Report.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, October 27.—Today the registration books closed for the national election. It appears that there was a very trifling additional registration, over that for the August election. All the Democrats had registered for the latter. Negroes say there was little or no new registration of their race. Secretary Pearson of the Democratic State Committee expresses the opinion that the new registration is not over one percent of those for the State election in August.

The Supreme Court will devote next week to the call of appeals from the 6th district. The docket is light.

Thursday a farmer named Green, living near Youngville, came to the State Fair here. This made his wife very angry and by way of expressing her anger she ran away during his absence. Her family says she eloped with a young man, a neighbor. There is no trace of the elopers. A search was made for the woman yesterday.

A specimen of each of the prize winning apples from Vance county at the State Fair was today sent by the growers to Mrs. George Vanderbilt, now in New York.

The Marshals' ball which closed the many gayeties of the State Fair was held last night and was very brilliant. Chief Marshal W. T. Old was presented by the Assistant Marshals with an opal pin, Mr. J. Richard Young, Insurance Commissioner, making the presentation speech. The Chief Marshal then presented to each lady present a souvenir pin in the shape of a horseshoe.

Dr. Thomas D. Martin one of Raleigh's oldest citizens, is dying at the home of his kinsmen, Capt. S. A. Ashe. He is a native of northeastern North Carolina. The State Agricultural Department today issued its bulletin for October. It is devoted mainly to game in the State and the game laws. It says the question is "Should the farmer give the game away or sell it?"

It calls for a new game law, as the present one is a maze. It says the farmer should protect the game and charge for the shooting privilege.

The cotton situation is of great interest. Two-cent cotton is naturally in saving. Will it continue so, or go lower or higher? There has been no satisfactory answer.

Without going into unnecessary details, it may be safely asserted that no surplus of consequence was brought over from last year. The total crop of the world will hardly supply the world's demand for the coming year, unless the cotton materially curtail their production. At the same time there is a limit to the price beyond which the manufacturers cannot operate. What that limit is must be fixed by the demand for the goods, and can be ascertained only by test of the market.

Notwithstanding the present downward tendency, the price ought not to fall below ten cents, and will not, if farmers do not crowd the market. It may not, and I think will not, go much above for some months to come.

This is a brief summary of the situation, as it presents itself to this writer; the price will be affected by the yield, and the total yield is not yet ascertained, nor can be until the season closes depending somewhat upon the weather, and, especially in the Southern States, upon an early or late frost.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of cramp: It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. F. B. Duffy.

Mrs. Emily Holt Dead.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Emily Holt, the widow of the late Edwin Holt, died at Graham today. She was the mother of the late Governor Holt and was 92 years of age. Her descendants are the largest and most influential family in the State. Her husband was the founder of the cotton industry in North Carolina.

The Chicago Parade.

Special to Journal.
CHICAGO, October 27.—Republicans held a monster "Prosperity and sound money" parade today. A hundred thousand marchers were in line and millions and billions marched side by side carrying full blown flags. All business was suspended. Two millions of people witnessed the parade in which were many elephants and over a hundred lions.

BRYAN IN NEW YORK.

The Great Demonstration Arranged to Close The Week.

New York, Oct. 26.—Everything is now ready for the reception to be given Hon. William J. Bryan by the National Association of Democratic Clubs tomorrow night.

All Democratic clubs in the city, as well as a number from Connecticut, will take part in the demonstration. Mr. Bryan will arrive at 3 o'clock in the afternoon from New Haven, and will be taken to the Hoffman House, where dinner will be served. At the conclusion of the dinner he and his party will witness a special display of fireworks, which will be given in Madison Square. In this square has been erected eight different stands from which meetings will be addressed simultaneously.

The Madison Square Garden meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock, with speeches by David B. Hill, W. Burke Cockran, Senator George L. Wellington of Maryland, and Anson Phelps Stokes. In the meantime Mr. Bryan will be driven through lines of Democratic clubs to the Broadway Athletic Clubhouse, Cooper Union and Madison Square Garden, at each of which he will speak. All along the route meetings in the number of 75 will be in progress, and Mr. Bryan is scheduled to speak from his carriage at 29 of these.

His Madison Square Garden speech will occupy about an hour and twenty minutes. The Democratic candidate expects to reach his hotel before midnight.

Bryan to Yale Students.

Special to Journal.
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—William J. Bryan spoke to Yale College students today, and in his speech said that the great coal strike showed the necessity of arbitration for the settlement of labor troubles. Six monster meetings are being held in New York City tonight at which Mr. Bryan will speak.

Bobbit's Chili Pills cure chills and malarial troubles. That is what they were made for. Cure after other remedies fail. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by Davis' Pharmacy.

Son of Great Man Arrested.

Special to Journal.
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A son of Sir Edwin Arnold has been taken from this city to London to answer the charge of embezzling $350,000. His wife is in San Francisco where he was arrested.

Atlanta's Horse Show.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 26.—Atlanta's first horse show closed tonight. Kentucky and Illinois horses carried off most of the prizes. The show was a pronounced success and will be made an annual affair hereafter.

Torturing skin eruptions, burns and sores are soothed at once and promptly healed by applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles. Beware of worthless counterfeits. F. B. Duffy.

Reward For Alford.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A reward of $5,000 will be offered by the First National Bank for the arrest and detention of the defaulting note-teller, Cornelius L. Alford. This conclusion was arrived at and announced made today after a long conference of the bank officials with Captain McCluskey, of the Detective Bureau.

The evening Telegram today prints the statement that Alford was taken and is still at a sanitarium not far from Mount Vernon. It is said that when the defaulting knew he had been detected in his stealing he completely collapsed.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that use One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. F. B. Duffy.
