SOME WAYS OF THE CHINESE.

The war with the Chinese Empire has opened up what has always been an unknown country.

Many and diverse have been the attempts to enter the secret places of China, which the people of that country regard as sacred, and since the occupation of China by the allied forces much is being made public of the Chinese.

In the Contemporary Review, Emerson Baldwin, M. P. has recently contributed an article on some Chinese ways, from which the following is taken:

"Justice as obtained in the Chinese courts is a farce. A case occurred where the writer was in China in which a Chinese judge sitting with an English magistrate, declared that he was obliged to give judgment against the evidence or he should lose his appointment!

"The criminal law of China provides that an offender can only be punished if he confesses his guilt, and if he tardily in conforming to this condition he is compelled to confession by a series of tortures of the most painful and awful character.

"Superstition is rife from end to end of the land and leads to cruel and brutal acts of the worst description.

"The system of 'squeeze' and extortion which exists throughout the East is found in no aggravated form in China that stifles enterprise and prevents expansion of trade and leaves the masses of the people barely with the necessities of life, while their superiors in position become wealthy by corrupt accumulation.

"This system of 'squeeze' of course applies to the question of railway construction. One of the most intelligent Chinamen the writer met in Shanghai offered him a concession for a railway from Pekin to Chungking, the foremost condition being that the sum of £120,000 in cash should be paid to a leading Government official at the cutting of the first sod.

"As a further illustration it may be pointed out that out of the 18 railway concessions already supposed to be granted (extending about 8,600 miles) not one has as yet been commenced."

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Relieving of Children.

"Do you know much about the training of children?"
 "Do!" returned the fond father.
 "Well, you bet I do. I know a whole lot, and if children weren't so contrary and unappreciative, I'd have the best-trained bunch in the neighborhood."

Spread Like Wildfire.

When things are 'the best' they become 'the best selling.' Abraham Hara, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have had since 30 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of ailments. It builds up the entire system. This new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by C. D. Bradham, Druggist.

Some men become pessimistic because a girl refused them, and others develop the same symptoms because she did't.

Great Luck of An Editor.

"For two years all efforts to cure Emma in the pains of my hands failed," writes Editor H. H. Lantz, of Syracuse, Kan. "Then I saw what was sold by Becken's Anker-Sarsaparilla." It's the world's best for eruptions, sores and all skin diseases. Only 50c at C. D. Bradham's.

TOOK HIS LAST TONIC FOR A BOTTLE.

The old man, in his tattered, patched coat, shuffled up to the bar, where he had drained off so many drinks, and looked wistfully at the bottles of red liquor in a row about two arms' length away.

"Say, Jim, old boy," he said to the bartender in the most winning tones he could muster, "you wouldn't take a nian's last cent for a drink, would you?"

"You bet your life I would!" snapped Jim, with the viciousness of a steel trap. Jim suspected an effort to get a drink on tick and proposed to forestall it.

"Well, I s'pose I got to have her, so set her out," and the soaked heaved up a great sigh that shook his frame with emotion.

Jim heaved a much lighter weight sigh on discovering that the drink was to be paid for. He set out the bottle of the roughest goods he had in the house. The unwelcome customer poured out four fingers and drank it down with evident relish. Wiping his mouth on his coat sleeve, he reached into his pocket, and pulling out one old, tarnished cent that he had found on the sidewalk, he slapped it on the counter.

"There you are, Jim!" he gurgled.

"What's this?" yelled Jim in loud, strident tones.

"You said you'd take me last cent for a drink, and there it is."

Jim reached under the bar for a baseball bat which he always had on tap, but before he could get it out the artful soak had disappeared through the front door.—Chicago Chronicle.

Changeable Ever.

"What are you looking so grim about?"
 "Oh, my fiancée has changed her mind."

"Still worrying over that? It was fully a month ago since you told me she had broken off the engagement."

"Oh, it's been on and off again twice since then."

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis. Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of digested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by F. S. Duffy.

Monkeys by the Seashore.

"What a mistake it is," observed the doctor, as they walked along the shore, "to speak of this as a waste!" "Waste! There isn't a drop that is wasted. Without the ocean the continents themselves would soon become uninhabited deserts."

"Therefore," commented the professor, "while it laves the sand it saves the land."

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will quickly heal the worst burns and scalds and cut and raw surfaces with prompt and soothing effect. Use it for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. F. S. Duffy.

Miss Peppery—"You don't mean to say that you absolutely do nothing?"
 "Oh, my dear, no, really, I don't even do that. My man attends to everything," I know.

SERVICE IN A BUSINESS NEGOTIATION, A HOME CONVENIENCE, A GOOD NECESSITY.

An Awe Stricken Witness.

"I well remember," said a veteran lawyer, "the trial of a case in which Judge Henry T. Backus was doing cross examining. Now, the judge was noted for his lavish use of six footed words, and he used frequently to surround his most common and unpretentious phrases with a plethora of high sounding phrases. The case I speak of was tried in South Ste. Marie, and there was a simple, inoffensive Frenchman on the witness stand. He understood little of the attorney's profound interrogatories and gave his answers in a confused and stammering way calculated to ruffle the sweetest temper. Finally the attorney paused in the middle of his cross examination and objected because the answers of the witness were not responsive. He was advised by the court to couch his questions in simpler language. Then Judge Backus, pointing his finger at the meek looking witness and looking him straight in the eye, thundered:

"Sir, I desire you to respond to my interrogatories categorically and without prevarication or take the consequences!"

"Oh!" exclaimed the Frenchman, rising from his chair in fear. "Oh! What dait?"

Of course the incident convulsed the spectators and the court, and it was some time before order was restored and the case could proceed.—Detroit Free Press.

The "IF" in Checkers.

Analyzing a game just played at the club by two checker experts seems to be almost as fascinating a recreation to the spectators as any other branch of the game. Time and again have we watched a half dozen checkerists who were busy suggesting "this move to draw" or "that move to win," while an equal number would be just as eager to prove the unsoundness of the lines in question. By the time both sides are through, the position has been thoroughly sifted and its intricacies are apparent to all. Many players, however, are not very anxious to have their "good things" displayed and advertised in this manner and generally decline to answer "leading" questions.

When an amateur whom the late James Wylie had just defeated in a game, reset the pieces at a certain position and said, "Mr. Wylie, if I had played so instead of my original move, I think I would have drawn the game," the "Heed Laddie" retorted, "They are all draws if you put them back far enough!"—Shaefer's Checkerist.

THE TURN OF LIFE.

The Most Important Period in a Woman's Existence.—Mrs. Johnston Tells How She Was Helped Over the Trying Time.

CHARLOTTE JOHNSON.

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand appreciates this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying, and sometimes painful symptoms.

"These dreadful hot flashes, swelling of the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop for good, that only a few of the symptoms of a dangerous nervous trouble. The nerves are crying out for assistance. The cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. The three following letters are guaranteed to be genuine and true, and still further prove what a great medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women.

Mar. 18, 1899.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been sick for a long time. I was taken sick with fooding. All my trouble seemed to be in the womb. I ache all the time at the lower part of the womb. The doctor says the womb is covered with ulcers. I suffer with a pain on the left side of my back over the kidney. I am fifty years old and passing through the change of life. Please advise me what to do to get relief. Would like to hear from you as soon as possible."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Mendota, Ohio.

Jan. 23, 1898.

I have been taking your remedies, and think they have helped me a great deal. I have been in bed for ten weeks when I began taking your Vegetable Compound, but after using it for a short time I was able to be up around the house. The aching in the lower part of womb has left me. The most that troubles me now is the flowing. That is not so bad, but still there is a little every day. I am not discouraged yet, and shall continue with your medicine, for I believe it will cure me."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Mendota, Ohio.

April 13, 1900.

I send you this letter to publish for the benefit of others. I was sick for about nine years so that I could not do my work. For three months I could not sit up long enough to have my bed made. I had five different doctors, and all said there was no help for me. My trouble was change of life. I suffered with ulceration of the womb, pain in side, kidney and stomach trouble, backache, headache, and dizziness. I am well and strong, and feel like a new person. My recovery is a perfect surprise to everybody that knew me. I owe all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would not do without your medicine for anything. There is no need of woman suffering so much if they would take your remedies, for they are a sure cure."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Mendota, Ohio.

When one stops to think about the good Mrs. Johnston derived from Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine, it seems almost beyond belief; yet it is all true as stated in her three letters published above at her own request.

As a matter of positive fact, Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of letters from women who have been safely carried through that dangerous period "Change of Life." Mrs. Johnston's cure is not an unusual one for Mrs. Pinkham's medicine to accomplish.

REWARD:—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lima, $2500, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. L. E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.
