RALEIGH.

Railroad Hearing Postponed. Amateurs Rehearsing. The New Secretaries.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Nov. 22.—The date set for the final hearing at Raleigh of the railway's side of the $100,000,000 tax assessment case was Nov. 26. Today a postponement was made to the 30th. John W. Hindsdale, one of the attorneys for the State, says that it is the State's desire to take as much evidence on its side in December as it can. Then there may be a postponement of that side until after the adjournment of the Legislature.
At Henderson this evening Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Cooper gave a reception to their son, Mr. Sidney Cooper and his bride, who was Miss Mary Louise Jackson of Atlanta. It was one of the handsomest social affairs on record at Henderson.

Amateurs here are hard at work rehearsing "Esmeralda" for presentation Dec. 11.
Revenue officers made a raid in Johnston county last night and captured an illicit distillery. They say there are more such distilleries there than in any other county in the district.

As a result of the revival meetings held here last week and this week by Rev. George Stewart several saloon keepers will go out of business January 1st. This information is given me by Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

Attorney-General Waiser is kept at home by the sickness of all his children. One has pneumonia, another, typhoid fever and the third has been sick six months.

The farmers in this section are sowing an unusually large acreage in wheat. Mr. P. M. Pearsall will be the private secretary and Miss Horner of Goldsboro, the stenographer to Governor Aycock. Mr. Hillary T. Hudson, a son of the late Rev. H. T. Hudson, chief clerk to Auditor B. F. Dixon; Mr. George Norwood of this county, chief clerk to Secretary of State Brian Grimes, and it is said ex-sheriff Arlington of Nash, now in the State Agricultural Department, will be chief clerk in the treasury. Labor Commissioner Varner and Superintendent of Instruction Toon have not chosen their clerks.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeit bills are being hunted. Honest men will not receive you into buying worthless counterfeit bills of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing aches, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. F. S. Duffy.

Russian Duty on Flour.

TACOMA, Washington, Nov. 21.—The Russian Government will, on Jan. 1, put a duty of 80 cents a barrel on flour for Siberia. The object is to monopolize the rapidly growing trade for the Black Sea millers.

This will be a hard blow to the Pacific Coast millers, who have been building up a big trade, through Vladivostok with Siberia. The completion of the trans-Siberian line may cut off most of the trans-Pacific trade with Russian ports.

Will Sell Their Twins.

LEWISLAND, O., Nov. 21.—Moses Perlin and wife offer five healthy twin boys for sale. The first four years of their married life they had three children, one at a time. The following year they had twins, now offered for sale. The father of the twins put an advertisement in a newspaper, saying that the twins could be adopted, because he was too poor to care for them.

When investigation was made it was found that the father and mother wanted pay for the twins.
"Oh, no," said the mother, "we can't give the twins away. We will sell them for $50 cash, but if we can't get pay for them we will keep them ourselves."

Was Disappointed in Love.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 21.—Miss Phoebe Meeks, the famous recluse, has just died at her home here, aged eighty-five.

Sixty years ago she was disappointed to love, and she made a resolution to cut herself off from the world. So far as known, from that day she never left her home, and, notwithstanding there is a railroad within 100 yards of her home, she absolutely refused to look at the cars. The windows and doors on the ground floor of the little brick house were closed, and the only communication Miss Meeks held with the outside world during recent years was through a small aperture in one of the doors where the necessities of life were passed in by a woman employed by the recluse.

Fast Cotton Picking.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 21.—In a cotton picking contest at Good Hope, Ga., yesterday, Warner S. Hale gathered 730 pounds of the staple. His friends claim he has established a record.

DOUBT IN CHINA.

Demand for Punishment, Too Large an Indemnity, Resist Advance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—These two important developments occurred today in the Chinese situation:
Minister Cui called to Secretary Hay, asserting his belief that the punishments imposed by the recent decrees issued by the Chinese Government are not sufficient. This opinion is diametrically opposed to that entertained by the President and secretary of State.

Germany has proposed that as a condition to continuing the negotiations China be compelled to execute eleven princes and officials responsible for the Chinese outrages. This condition is highly unsatisfactory to the administration, which is expected to take steps to secure its modification.

Advices from Peking concerning the question of the indemnity which the powers will demand of China are discouraging to the officials here, who apprehend that serious differences will arise among the powers respecting the amount of the claims to be presented. Minister Cui has been discouraged at the attitude of several powers, which seem inclined to fix the indemnity at so high a figure that it is not believed even China, with her enormous resources will be able to meet it. There are other alarming features, which indicate that China may rebel against what she claims to be extortion should the powers persist in their demands.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—Count von Waldersee cables from Peking that he has advices from Colonel York's corps showing that the Chinese general Ho, with 10,000 regular troops and much artillery, is near Kalgan, prepared to resist energetically a further advance of the expedition.

Colonel York, therefore, will await reinforcements before attempting to proceed.

When you want prompt relief little pills that never gripe use DeWitt's Little Early Risers. F. S. Duffy.

The Tornado.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 21.—The latest reports received from the sections Central and Western Tennessee and Northern Mississippi which were swept by a tornado yesterday show that at least 61 persons were killed and 71 injured.

Root Likes Cuba.

SANTIAGO, CUBA, Nov. 21.—Secretary Root and General Wood, with the other members of their party, left this morning for Guantanamo.

The Secretary declines to discuss political questions for publication, but says that Cuba is the richest and prettiest place he has ever seen.

Oldest Schooner Wrecked.

BROOKLYN, November 21.—A message received here from North Brooksville, Me., says that the schooner Polly has been wrecked. She had 75,000 feet of lumber as a cargo, shipped at Bangor for Boston. The Polly was a 48 ton schooner, and she had the distinction of being the oldest craft in the American marine having been built in 1805 at Amesbury. During the war of 1812 the Polly was a privateer and was instrumental in capturing a British gunboat off the coast of Maine.

She was to have gone to Chicago at the World's Fair, but some business difficulty arising, she failed to get up the lakes. She was the oldest schooner of her class afloat and was a close competitor for the honor of being the oldest American vessel in active service or in ordinary with the Old Ironsides (Constitution) at the navy yard.

SATURDAY'S FOOT BALL GAME

The Great Contest Between University Teams of North Carolina and Virginia.

The following from the Norfolk Virginian Pilot of 22nd will be read with interest by every foot ball enthusiast.
The final arrangements for Saturday's great football contest have been completed, and all is in readiness for the two teams to line up.
The contesting events will arrive in this city tomorrow, and both will in all probability stop at the Monticello, the Virginians having already made arrangements with that hotelery for accommodations.

The team from Charlottesville, with at least 150 hundred first "crackers" and the Stonehill Band of Stoneman, will come in over the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the Chapel Hill delegation will arrive via the Southern Railway.

All indications point to an exceedingly large crowd coming; in fact, already some excursionists have arrived. The hotels will have a big rush, and first-class ones have written long ago engaging rooms for the occasion. The store windows are liberally decked with the colors of both teams, and the Orange and Blue can be frequently seen adorning the lapel of the passers by. Taking into consideration the wonderful work done by both elevens this season, and the intense spirit of rivalry which exists between them, it is extremely difficult to come to any conclusion as to the probable result of the game. Both teams are equally confident of winning, and the betting odds are still even. For the benefit of those interested we give the records of the respective teams.

Virginia defeated Washington and Lee, Richmond College, Johns Hopkins, Gallaudet and Blackburg; played a tie game with V. M. I., and suffered defeat at the hands of the Carlisle Indians and Georgetown. Her total score was 174 points in the above named games, against a total of 31 points scored by her opponents.

Carolina has defeated Vanderbilt, University of Tennessee, University of Georgia and several minor elevens, and has played a tie game with both Sewanee University and Virginia Polytechnic Institute (Blacksburg).

These records are far from being bad, and those who go to League Park Saturday will certainly not have cause to complain that the game lacked spirit and excitement. If the usual custom of years gone by is lived up to, previous games between these two teams have always been desperately contested, and the prospects are that this year's affair will not fall short of those passed.

Mr. Dagold Barber, a student of Mr. E. L. Highton, had the sad misfortune of losing by fire one fine pair of his best containing 3 bales seed cotton and 15 barrels of corn and 12 bushels wheat.

Trade has been very good in our town this fall and winter owing mostly to the high price of lint and seed cotton.
Mr. E. L. Arthur, representing the grocery firm of S. F. McNaite of Wilmington, was in our town this morning soliciting and replying orders from the merchants. He reports having done a good business since taking the road for a livelihood.

Mr. E. T. Bender, chief guide for northern sportsmen in this, the eastern portion of North Carolina, has a party of three northern sports at his Catfish Lake Lodge where they are having most delightful sport in various ways, they break the monotony by fishing after returning from the chase in the Lake where large quantities of fall are readily caught with the hook. They report having bagged up to this writing, deer, bear, turkey, duck, breast and quail in such abundance that it is an sport at all about them. The spring time seems to have had the effect of increasing the deer and bear in close proximity with the lodge and in fact in the big game among them by.
