THE BAPTISTS.

The Seventieth Annual Convention at Raleigh December 5th.

A Century Celebration December 9th. No More Democratic Primary Likely. Slow Returns. Interest in the Foot Ball Game Today.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, Nov. 22.—The Baptist State convention which meets here December 5th, will be the 70th, annual one. It met here last in 1892. Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh of Oxford will preside. The number of church members within this convention is 167,000, an increase of 7,000 over last year. There are 140,000 negro Baptists in the State. The contributions for foreign, State and home missions during the year aggregate $45,000, an increase of $5,000 over last year. This does not include educational collection. All the Baptist educational institutions are most flourishing and 1,600 students are attending them. They include Wake Forest college for young men, the Baptist Female University at Raleigh, Oxford Female Seminary, Chowan Baptist Female Institute and 49 academies, some of the latter having as many as 300 students.

Particular attention attaches to this convention because of the "Century Celebration" on Sunday, December 9th, at which prominent speakers from other States will be heard, including Rev. Dr. H. Pitt, editor Religious Herald, Richmond; Rev. Junius Millard, pastor Putaw Place Baptist church, Baltimore; Rev. Dr. R. F. H. Kerfoot of Atlanta. Rev. Dr. R. J. Willingham of Richmond, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Frost of Nashville; the three last named being respectively the general secretaries of the foreign mission, home mission and Sunday School boards of the Southern Baptist Convention. Another interesting matter will be the selection of a successor to Rev. John E. White, secretary home mission board. Those principally named are editor J. W. Bailey of the Biblical Recorder, Rev. C. W. Blanchard, Rev. J. F. Love and Rev. Chas. S. Thompson, the latter now occupying a similar position in Virginia, but being a native of this county.

The State Democratic Committee at its meeting September 5th, adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to draft a bill for the submission to the next legislature, for the purpose of having a legalized primary. Chairman Simmons appoints as this committee, Heriot Clarkson, chairman, Thos. J. Jarvis, Cyrus B. Atkinson, Thomas W. Mason and James A. Manning. Mr. Clarkson was the introducer of the resolution. Since Sept. 5th, a primary has been held and the Democrats appear to be sufficiently amused with it, so much so that the odds are ten to one the legislature will not enact a law legalizing primaries.

The long expected returns of the primary for Senator came in today from Madison county. Those from Cherokee have never arrived. The canvassers wrote again today, urging that they be sent.

There is a $10.00 tax levied by this State on fortune tellers. The sheriffs are falling to enforce the law. One of the fortune tellers is here, and actually advertising her business. Last year the sheriff went after her but she left hurriedly.

About 50 persons will go from here to Norfolk to see the football game between the teams of the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina. It is said that feeling is pretty high between the teams. Not a few North Carolinians say they were deliberately "gimped" out of a game at Richmond. Betting will be lively on the game. The Tar Heel team is a strong one and will play to the death.

The plumbers are now fitting up the new hospital at the Soldiers' Home.

The State charter the Chapel Hill improvement company, which will deal in real estate, etc.

The lumber interest in this section is looking up again. There is quite a demand for flooring.

The machinery for the Melrose Knitting Mill here has arrived and is being installed. The new Raleigh Hosiery Mill is two thirds completed.

A few years ago a man here got a divorce and remarried. Wife No. 1. Here he was sick and night before last a neighbor took her in a carriage to her former husband's home and put her in the porch. He and his present wife were in the house. He sent for the police to take her away, but before their arrival she mustered up enough strength to walk away.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

No other aid so great to the housewife, no other agent so useful and certain in making delicious, pure and wholesome foods, has ever been devised.

There are imitation baking powders, sold cheap, by many grocers. They are made from alum, a poisonous drug, which renders the food injurious to health.

Druggists Want Tax off.

WASHINGTON, November 22.—A delegation of druggists are in Washington, prepared to try to convince the members of the House Ways and Means Committee which is wrestling with the problem of how best to reduce the war taxes, that schedule B of the war tax law, which deals with articles in which druggists are particularly interested, is the one that ought to be entirely wiped out, whatever may be done with the others. The brewers are making a still hunt, with the assistance of shrewd and high priced lobbyists, for the reduction of the beer tax.

The majority members of the Ways and Means Committee have held consultations with the President, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to get ideas about now the bill should be drawn—the minority members will not participate in the committee meetings until the bill has been agreed upon by the majority. Secretary Gage told the committee that reductions amounting to as much as $30,000,000 a year might safely be made, and that is about the amount that will be realized in the fall, but the trouble lies in deciding where to make the reduction. It is not an easy task, as no matter how they are made a howl will be made by those interests which do not share in them.

The Hawaii Voters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Mr. S. M. Ballou, a Harvard man who has been a prominent member of the bar of Honolulu for five years, is in Washington. He said of the recent election in Hawaii, which resulted in a "triumph" for the natives, against both Democratic and Republican parties: "The legislature in both branches has a majority of natives. Fortunately, they have not two-thirds and will be unable to do any great damage, as the Governor, through his power of veto, can checkmate them. Otherwise, one might expect to see such things as an effort to restore ex-Queen Liliuokalani to the throne. Indeed, Robert Wilcox, the Congressional Delegate-elect, frequently advocated that, and promised the Kansans that if he were sent to Washington he would be able to accomplish not only that, but that he would stop the segregation of lepers."

De Witt's Little Early Risers are the best liver pills ever made. Easy to take and never gripe. F. S. Duff.

Com Paul in France.

MARSEILLE, Nov. 22.—Today proved a triumph for Mr. Kruger such as even the Boer delegates and his most ardent admirers failed to anticipate. The delirium of enthusiasm which marked every step of his progress from the time he landed until the hotel was reached, was a revelation even to the people of Marseilles themselves.

The scene of the landing place was an unimagined one. The decks of all the steamers in the Lyons Basin were crowded with sightseers. The lower harbor was all the paper for the description of a number of French youths, with multicolored flags and pennants, among which Boer flags were prominently displayed.

The Pope Ill.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the Temps, from Rome, says the Pope yesterday visited the Basilica of St. Peter's and experienced such fatigue that he had to take to his bed. It is further claimed that he fainted twice.

Peace in South China.

HONGKONG, Nov. 22.—One thousand Black Flags have returned to Canton. Although the rebellion has subsided in this vicinity the East River district is disturbed. The villagers are repudiating the rule of the mandarins, refusing to contribute taxes. They have established a kind of self-government.

The French are extremely so, relying on the visit of gunboats as an effective means of settling indifferences. Three gunboats remain at Hankow to enforce a claim of $119,000. The mandarins offer 50 per cent of the amount, which has not been accepted. There are fears of fresh outbreaks of dissatisfaction.

Both makers and circulators of counterfeit money are being hunted.

Honest men will not desert you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The original is indelible for curing piles, sore, eczema and all skin diseases. F. S. Duff.

Sir Arthur Sullivan Dead.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Sir Arthur Sullivan, the musical composer, died of heart failure at 9 o'clock this morning. He had been ailing since he returned from Switzerland, in the middle of September. He caught a chill there and his chest and lungs became affected. His work in his last fortnight ago, he was composing and singing in his usual laughing and talking just before he expired. The afternoon papers print long obituaries of the deceased.
