credit mark to this State,

It is because of such a record, that the Governor, whose term expires with the end of this year, will go out of office, unknown, except to be mamed in a hushed voice; and unnamed, except with the feeling that North Oarolina is ashamed to have placed on her record list of Governors, the name of the man from the lower Cape Fear section, from where so many honored sons of the Old North State have come.

Fortunately but a few more days must pass, before North Carolina will have her present gubernatorial shame removed and the people of the State, and the people of the Bouth and the country, will know who is the Governor of North Carolina, and feel only pleasure, at home and abroad, in naming their Chief Exeoutive. 30
