RALEIGH.
Special to Journal.
Baptists Prepare To Raise The $100,000 For Education.
Will Change Name of University. Federal Changes Expected. Mormons Continue To Work. Preparations For Inauguration
Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Dec. 19.—The Baptist century committee met here today, Rev. Dr. Charles E. Taylor chairman, the other members being Rev. Dr. Vann, Prof. Sikes and N. B. Broughton. Arrangements were completed for raising $100,000 next year for his education, of this sum $50,000 is to go to the Baptist Female University here, $30,000 to Wake Forest college, $10,000 to Chowan Baptist female institute and the remaining $10,000 is to be divided among perhaps a dozen Baptist high schools. Chairman Taylor says it is the purpose to establish a high school or academy in every one of the 50 Baptist Associations.
The legislature will be asked to change the name of the Baptist Female University here to the Woman's College. It appears that a number of the Baptists do not like the present name. They say it is not a university at all.
Gov. Russell returned last night from New York, to which city he went after the conclusion of the centennial celebration at Washington.
The hearing here of the State's side of the tax assessment case ended today. Many tax assessors were heard, the drift of their evidence is that they assess property at what will bring at a forced sale, a cash sale, yet one of them said only one such sale of land had been made in his township in years. This particular piece of property assessed at $5000 brought $7100.
The 18th volume of the State Records is out. There will be one more, the last, the index. The copy for all titles in the printer's hands. There will be three volumes of the Regimental Histories of North Carolina troops in the Civil War. The copy for these are also in the printer's hands, with the exception of the histories of three regiments, which are written but have not yet appeared.
The executive committee of the State Board of Health met this afternoon, Charles H. Spence of Asheville presiding. He introduced and General William H. Cook of Raleigh was the new president. Two men's interest in the bonds were ordered paid. The year's interest will still be due, but another payment is apt to be made.
A prominent federal official here says that he has the best of reasons for believing that President McKinley will make surprising changes in federal officials in the South next year, and that will be the case particularly in North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.
The Mormons continue their work in North Carolina and they regard it as a promising field of effort. Most of their work is done in the eastern counties. They have over 40 workers, and have a conference, with a presiding elder. The conference is now in session at Goldsboro. The Mormons assert that their missionaries or proselytes have visited fully half the homes of white people in North Carolina.
Lewis W. Harringer, a son of the late Hon. D. M. Harringer, Minister to Spain, died at his home, in Philadelphia, yesterday. He lived here until about 25 years ago, and at the time of his death owned valuable property here.
The report of Principal John E. Hay of the institution for the white blind here, is issued. He asks the legislature to make a per capita allowance of $250 a year. There are 366 pupils now present.
Adjutant General Royster says he thinks 1000 troops will be here at the inauguration of Gov. Aycock if the weather is favorable. The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce has appointed a large special committee to take charge inauguration matters. It is the purpose to provide lunch, hot coffee, and quarters for all the soldiers who come.
When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. F. S. Duffy & Co.

Supreme Court Opinions.
Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, December 19.—The Supreme Court handed down the following opinions:
Cochrane vs. Improvement Co., from McDowell, affirmed.
Baker vs. Brem, from Burke, affirmed.
Gers Water Co. vs. Durham, new trial.
Jefferys vs. Railway from Guilford, new trial.
Falcon vs. Hicks, from Duplin affirmed.
Venable Will Case, from Stokes in favor of propounders.
Kremer vs. Railway from McDowell, new trial.
Dave vs. Yelton, from Gaston affirmed.
Hoffman vs. Insurance Co., from Gaston, new trial.
Manufacturing Co. vs. Blythe, from Mecklenburg, affirmed.
Blaisdel vs. Lee, from Mecklenburg, new trial.
Harsh vs. Dellinger, from Mecklenburg, error.

Population of Raleigh.
Special.
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 19.—The census of Raleigh taken by the Board of Aldermen was completed today.
The accuracy of the government census is established, there being a gain of only 31 votes of the recount.
The city census shows 8227 white, 5447 negroes, total 13674. A large negro exodus is found to have taken place.
He's needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung troubles. F. S. Duffy & Co.

New Name For Sing Sing.
SING SING, N. Y., Dec. 18.—By a unanimous vote the citizens of this place voted to petition the Legislature to change the name of the village from Sing Sing to Ossining, which is the name of the town.
To prevent the State prison at Sing Sing from taking on the name of the new town it is proposed to erect a new station at the prison gate and remove the Sing Sing sign to it.

The One Day Cold Cure.
This cold and sore throat use Kerrett's Cold Cure for quick relief. Easily taken as candy and quickly cured.

Rich Gold Ore in Colorado.
CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., Dec. 18.—Ore was shown in the hotel, tonight from the Mary Nevins, on Rosebud Hill, which ranks with the richest ever found in the camp.
One specimen, two inches in thickness, displays particles of gold as large as a pea, and will assay $500,000 to the ton.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. F. S. Duffy & Co.

Red Lights in the Senate.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Senate has adopted red lights as signals, and the new display is exciting the interest of the latest visitors.
The occasion for the adoption of red lights was the desire on the part of the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate to meet the convenience of many members of the House. Owing to the fact that the Senate has been of late much of the time in executive session, members of the House who had business at the Senate traveled across the building, only to be refused admission when they had reached the Senate door. Col. Ransdell thought of a way to save all this unnecessary travel. The main door of the Senate Chamber can be seen from the main door of the House. If visitors are not so numerous, Col. Ransdell had three electric lights included in red bulbs placed right over the main door of the Senate. When the Senate goes into executive session a doorkeeper turns on the lights in these red lamps. A member of the House who starts out for the Senate at once sees these red lights and may postpone his visit until the lights are turned off.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases and can't help but do you good.—F. S. Duffy & Co.

Talking the Cheeser.
"Why do you go back to the tailor who cheated you?"
"Why, I don't think he'd have the nerve to cheat me again."

Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, cuts, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. F. S. Duffy & Co.
Cure For Insomnia.
I suppose all of us are suffering from the invasion of electricity. My old friend Bounce, who was a victim of insomnia for 40 years, thinks he sleep much better than any other man on earth. He lost his way in the Adlon docks and staid overnight in the cabin of a forester. His sleep was the deep sleep of a just man made perfect, and in the morning he found that he had not moved all night.
"It's the insulation," the forester insisted. "You city folks are filling your selves with contact. If you'll break the contact you'll be able to sleep and get your nerves back."
This matter of "contact" was finally explained to mean that our bodies are in contact with the floors, the floors with the walls and the walls with mother earth, so that whatever personal magnetism a man has in him goes away in the nighttime, leaving him like a log on his mattress. The forester had obtained four glass insulators from telegraph poles somewhere and screwed them on the posts of his guest bed, so that the electricity could not run away. Bounce the very day he got home insulated his bed, and from that moment to the present his insomnia has been banished.—New York Press.
Cautions.
Many years ago, when printed music was dearer than it is now, a plain, quiet man, evidently from the country, went into a London music shop and asked to see a certain book of tunes. The clerk laid before him an oblong volume with two tunes on a page, a book familiar to old time choir singers.
The old man drew out of his coat a pocket an ancient yellow life and, opening the book at the first page, began to play softly, turning the leaf with careful fingers as each page was finished.
The clerks, very much amused at first, grew weary of the droning noise of a tune and one of them, waiting till a tune was ended, ventured to say politely:
"Do you think you will take the book, sir? Does it seem to suit you?"
The life was lowered, and the player, looking over it at the youth in mild surprise, said gently:
"I cannot tell. I have played only half the tunes," and placidly turned another leaf.
Hobson's Choice.
How many of us who use or hear the familiar expression, "It was Hobson's choice," are acquainted with the real sort of selection that Tobias Hobson offered his guests? This is the genuine version of the tale. The said Tobias Hobson was a Cambridge innkeeper, with 40 horses in his stables, some better, of course, than others. When a traveler came to request a mount, he was obliged to take the steed that stood nearest the door, although there were so many others advertised as for hire. If the traveler objected to that mount, all he could do was to wait until some other traveler had come for one and so removed this and left its next door neighbor nearest the stable door.
An Unexpected Retort.
"Where," asked the female suffrage orator, "would men be today were it not for women?"
She paused a moment and looked around the hall.
"I repeat," she said, "where would men be today were it not for women?"
"He'd be in the garden of Eden eating strawberries," answered a voice from the gallery.—Boston Traveler.

Folding-Bed Victim.
CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Henry Bonn, a wealthy and retired tobaccoist, who resided with his family at 4,308 Langley Avenue, was found dead in a collapsed folding bed by members of his family at 10:30 o'clock last night.
Bonn retired at 9:30 o'clock and nothing unusual was heard by the other members of the family during the hour that followed to indicate that an accident had occurred. He was sixty-eight years of age.
