Tax on Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, January 15 .- The Senate Finance Committee today had under consideration the war tax reduction bill. The Republican Senators on the committo authorize the penitentiary to buy or t e indicated a pretty general agreement lease, or build one or more fertilizer fact jat the total reduction should be about $40,000,000, of $45,000 0.0, while the Democrats were disposed to cut even

The bill probably will be recast. The committee evidenced a strong dicettion to reduce the tax on tobacco and to leave the beer tax as fixed by the House. It seemed generally agreed shat the House provision for the removal of the tax on bank checks should not be accepted.

Four thousand people visited the State nuseum yesterday.

The people here and all the visitors express unbounded pleasure at the success of the inauguration ceremonies yesterday.

At the reception at the executive mandon last night over 4,000 persons were present. The hands of several of the adies of the receiving party were actually blistered by the incessant hand shaking. Mrs. Aycock, was almost completely exhausted. It was the largest reception ever given in this State.

At the ball last night 100 couples danced. It was not an inaugural ball but a private one. There was no inaugural ball. On the 28d Instant the Cap ital club will give a ball to the new State officers and the legislature, which it is the purpose to make the handsomest ever given in this State.

J. J. Laughinghouse, a well known farmer of Pitt county, assures me that there will be a considerable increase in the cotton acreage in eastern North Carolina and a decrease in tobacco. He says anybody can raise cotton while only a few can make tobacco successfully.
