THEY MAKE TERMS.

Railroad Presidents Offer Agreement on ten Million tax Case.

Terms Will be Sent to Legislature by the Governor. Bills Introduced on State Deposits and Tax Assessing.

Special to JOURNAL.

Raleigh, Jan. 28.—A Bill was introduced in the Senate today to require the State treasurer to deposit funds only in State banks. A bill was introduced and passed imposing high license on the sale of liquor at Greensboro, not less than one thousand dollars nor more than $5 hundred. The introducer of the bill declared that this was the correct way to settle the liquor question all over North Carolina.

The House met at seven thirty o'clock the earliest hour of meeting on record. A bill was introduced by Winston, authorizing the Governor to employ and pay counsel for the defence of State election officers under indictment in Federal courts.

Winston also introduced a bill to restore to the State board of education its former powers to regulate use of text books in public schools.

Willard introduced bill making the corporation commission a board of tax commissions, to exercise general control and supervision in all county and city tax lists and assessors, so that all property, particularly personal property may be assessed at actual cash value and requiring one member of the board to visit each at least once annually and investigate.

Settlement on the long suit involving the increase of ten millions in assessment of railways for taxation was made today. President Warren G. Elliott of Atlantic Coast Line presented on behalf of various railways an agreement to the Governor and the chairman of the corporation commission. Governor Aycock will send messages tomorrow or Wednesday to the Legislature giving the terms of agreement and transmitting a recommendation of corporation commission that it be accepted.

The most soothing, healing and antiseptic application ever devised is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It relieves at once and cures piles, sores, eczema and skin diseases. Beware of imitations. F. S. Duffly & Co.

EARLY LEGISLATIVE MEETINGS.

Soldiers Home This Week. No Auditorium For Raleigh. Too Many Dogs.

HALFBOON, January 28.—The lower house of the legislature did an unprecedented thing this morning, by meeting at 7.30 o'clock, Saturday morning it met at 9.30, Graham of Granville desiring early hours. Then, to get even with Graham, Rountree of New Hanover made a motion to meet at 7.30 this morning. Mentioning Graham had secured leave of absence until Tuesday at noon, so the joke was not on him at all, but on Rountree and the others. The house disposed of a lot of minor local measures this morning.

The State charter the Enfield Knitting mills at Enfield's capital $10,000, R. J. Corbett and others stockholders, and authorizes the Louise Cotton mills at Charlotte to issue $100,000 of preferred stock.

The finishing touches are being given to a new Willard hosiery mill here. The machinery is nearly all installed in another new knitting mill here, the Melrose.

The Security Life and Annuity Insurance Company, the charter of which was granted by the Legislature Saturday, was organized that afternoon at Greensboro, and began business today.

There will this week be a good deal of talk about the Soldiers' Home, as the Daughters of the Confederacy and the State Association of Confederate Veterans meet Wednesday to decide what they shall ask the legislature to do for it. The home now gets $10,000 a year. There are 100 on its roll, and of these about 75 are present. There are always a number absent on furlough. There are more in the home in the winter than in the summer; as quite a number stay at their homes in the summer and do light work, in gardens, etc.

The Superintendent of the Home says that if the annual appropriation were $25,000 a hundred more could be taken, and that there are now 50 applications on file. The cottage system is in use. There are 23 living rooms. The buildings are of wood, one story in height. Wood fires are in use. Most of the inmates are from the country and it is said this sort of life is healthier for them than if they were in a large steam heated building.

The Legislature committees on military affairs are invited to the agricultural and mechanical college Friday to see the drill of the cadet corps and to make inspection. There are 250 cadets. There are only 148 rifles and it is said no more can be obtained from the government. This is strange, as the latter has a great stock of rifles on hand. The North Carolina Congressmen ought to be able to secure the needed rifles at once.

But little has been heard lately about the auditorium for Raleigh. No place in the State so greatly needs one. The subscriptions aggregate $11,000, of which only a fourth has been paid in. Steps are now to be taken to enforce the collection of all. Many people say they never expect to see an auditorium here.

Some of the legislators say they will make the most heroic effort ever made in the state to tax dogs. Some one has made the statement that there are two million dogs in the state. Half that figure is probably nearly correct.

A charter is to be applied for by an auditorium company, of Win-tou-Jalem capital $25,000.

Thus far the legislature has enacted only one law establishing a dispensary. There are several dispensary bills before it.

The legislature joint committee on penitentiary is now at the Roanoke farms, and will be there several days. A study is being made of the entire penitentiary system. Later in the session a great deal will be heard about the penitentiary. Some favor the farm system while others oppose it. There is yet no indication of ideas or plans.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. F. S. Duffly & Co.

A Cold Weather Joke.

A business man came down to his office on a winter morning when it was bitterly cold.

"How, how cold it is!" he said to one of the clerks. "Just shut that safe. If you please."

The clerk obeyed with a puzzled look. Then when he could restrain his curiosity no longer he asked:

"Excuse me, sir, but why did you tell me to shut the safe?"

"Why," replied his employer, with a sly chuckle, "there are a good many drafts in that safe."—London Fun.

The "Other Fellow" Saved Him.

Wife conversing—What does this mean, sir? Do you know the name?

Husband—Yes, of course, I was (also) named, or "died," by Dr. J. C. Aycock.

Wife (alarmed and growing suddenly sympathetic)—Archie! Good gracious, General! Are you much hurt?

Husband—No, no, dear, but I'm (like) out. Axminster top's 'd' r' other (like) (like)—Pick Me Up.

Quality and not quantity make Dr. J. C. Aycock's Little Early Bitters such valuable little liver pills. F. S. Duffly & Co.

COTTON SQUEEZE.

Great Excitement in New York Over the Sensational Advance.

Sold up to 12 50 and Closed at 11.30. Shorts Hard Pressed, Big Shortage Said to Exist in the Market.

Special to Journal.

New York, January 28.—There were wild scenes today on the cotton exchange, when January cotton touched the highest point on record, the opening was 10.30 and the quotations steadily advanced until 12 50 was reached at 11 a. m. an advance of 2.20 points from the opening.

This means an advance of $12.75 a bale. Such a "corner" has not been seen on the market for years.

Howard Wilson, of the firm of Fernie, Wilson and Co., has the credit of organizing the corner. He was one of the two or three persons who had any composure on the exchange today.

The rapid strides made in January brought many brokers and operators to the exchange to watch developments.

The squeeze had been threatened for some time. A week ago there was a very large outstanding short interest in the option but most of it had been covered Friday and Saturday.

The shortage which remains today was largely for New England Chicago and Southern speculators who had been skeptical of any further advance and who had been holding off until the last day in the expectation that the deal would collapse. As soon as the advance was noted today some traders began to cover, and this disclosed the fact there was no one willing to sell and that the clique which had been running the deal the last month had given out orders to bid up the price.

The trading was mostly in hundred and 2 hundred bale lots, one hundred bale lots being the smallest lot dealt in on a contract.

Wilson's company is said to have had 50 thousand bales of cotton actually purchased being long of one hundred thousand more for January delivery. The bold manipulator is said to have settled privately with many of the "shorts."

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Bitters are very easily taken and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. F. S. Duffly & Co.
