THE LEGISLATURE.

Very Little Commendation of Proposed Impeachment.

Public School Law Urged. Scotland County Claims on Cotton. Maximum Car Load Report. Child Labor in Mills.

Raleigh, February 7.—The legislature is urged by Prof. Venable, superintendent of public schools from Buncombe county to enact a law providing for duplicate graded schools in each county, these to have 4 grades taught each term. Under this system, a device of his own, the public schools of Buncombe are open from 5 to 7 months annually, a longer term than were in Durham county, and twice as long as in other counties.

There was much talk today by incoming people about the proposed or rather discussed impeachment of Judges Furches and Douglas, and it was entirely one way—that the idea was ill advised and impolitic and the punishment too severe. In other words it has aroused sympathy for the judges and as one lawyer and ex-legislator says, "they are the under dogs in this fight and we do not believe in kicking them." An ex-Democratic State chairman says he has not heard a single person commend impeachment.

The bulletin of the State Board of Health for January issued today, says there was small pox in 21 counties, Alexander, Buncombe, Caswell (77 cases 2 deaths), Forsyth, Franklin, Granville (21 cases), Paullico, Pearson (11 cases), Rockingham (10 cases), Transylvania and Vance. The disease is literally from one end of the State to the other.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the North Carolina Home Fire Insurance company was held here yesterday. A 6 per cent dividend was declared. Business has increased 47 per cent in the past 2 years. All the directors and officers were re-elected.

It is claimed by the farmers of the new county Scotland that they raise more cotton, in proportion to acreage, than any other county in the United States, surpassing even Carroll county, Miss.

Auditor Dixon had a severe attack of grippe. So has S. L. Patterson, commissioner of agriculture.

Judge Simonton of the U. S. circuit court confirms the report of Special Master Eugene S. Martin in the case involving the right of the Corporation Commission to fix the maximum car load of fertilizers on the Carolina General railway at 10 tons. He pays a high tribute to the report of the master and says the rate is proper. This ends his long litigation and the commission order holds good all over the State.

By Monday the argument by all the cotton mill owners, that there shall be no more "child labor" complained of in mills will be heard. It will be filed with the legislature.

An invitation was read in the Senate yesterday from Governor and Mrs. Aycock to a reception to be given Friday night from 8 to 10. On motion of London it was accepted by a rising vote.

The following bills have been introduced in the Senate:

By Warren, to change township lines in Craven county.

By James, to incorporate the Greenville Banking and Trust Co.

By Long, to provide State banking system; to regulate fees of notaries public and others in protesting instruments.

By Speight, to provide a general stock law.

By Morton, to protect merchants and millers in North Carolina. Referred to committee on manufacturing.

By James, to appropriate funds for the North Carolina School for Deaf and Blind.

House bill, to extend the time to compromise and settle the State debt, came up. The time expired in 1893 and the time is now extended to 1903. Passed final reading.

House bill, to amend chapter 174, laws of 1891, for protection of owners of mills logs in Hyde, Onslow and Pamlico counties, passed final reading.

In the House the following bills have been introduced:

By Nicholson, to allow Beaufort county to levy special tax.

By Caraway, resolution from board of trustees of Kingston graded schools to accept them from provision of Aycock text-book bill.

By Nash, to provide for water-works for Elizabeth City.

By speaker Moore, to apportion the congressional districts of North Carolina.

The school text book bill as it passed the Senate passed its second and third readings.

Bills were introduced excepting graded schools from the operation of the act in Asheville, Statesville, Charlotte, Kinston, Salisbury and Hot Springs. On motion of Whitaker of Forsyth all bills were referred to the committee on education.

Wednesday of next week at 12 o'clock was fixed to consider the bill to provide a permanent roll of registered voters on the State.

NEW DIVORCE LAW.

Previous Acts Since the Code are Repealed. Provision for Remarriage.

Raleigh, Feb. 7.—The only feature of the day in the Legislature was the debate on the divorce bill.

Simmons of Wake county offered in the House a substitute bill repealing all the laws on divorce since the code. This was adopted and the bill in this shape passed the readings.

An amendment was adopted that all persons divorced under recent laws can remarry upon procuring a certificate from the court.

Queen's Fortune for England.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The latest rumor regarding Queen Victoria's will is that it bequeaths $700,000 each to the Duke of Connaught, Prince Christian of Schleswig Holstein, Princess Louise and Princess Beatrice, and includes liberal legacies for the Duchess of Albany and a number of the late Queen's grandchildren.

The bulk of the Queen's private fortune, however, goes to the King. Two small houses on the Osborne estate are given to Princess Beatrice.

King Resigns as Grand Master.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—King Edward has decided to abandon the office of Grand Master of the Free Masons. The Duke of Connaught will be installed in the office in his stead.

Addison Cammack Dead.

New York, Feb. 5.—Addison Cammack, formerly one of the most successful operators on the New York Stock Exchange, died at his home in this city today, of Bright's disease. Mr. Cammack was known on the Board as the greatest "bear" of his time. He was a Kentuckian by birth.

He was a "bear" at the time of the Grant & Ward smash in 1884, but later in the year William H. Vanderbilt persuaded him to turn over, and the late C. F. Woerishoffer, a fellow "bear," did likewise. Both made millions by it while a fellow-operator, Henry N. Smith, refused to turn, and was said to have lost $3,000,000.

Mr. Cammack was quiet in manner when doing business, but at times rather gruff and positive. He was a rich man accredited with being worth from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, and had always been known as a generous giver.

There is always danger in using counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is a safe and certain cure for piles. It is a soothing and healing salve for sores and all skin diseases. F. & Duff & Co.
