TO APRIL THIRD.

Legislature Adjourned Yesterday Morning to That Day.

Session of Sixty Five Days. Bills Died on Calendar. Impeachment Matter Puzzles all Sides. News Paper Men Hard Worked.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, March 15.—The Legislature adjourned this morning after a session of 65 days, five without pay. The Senate goes in; not as the Senate, but as a court of impeachment, which puts it on a footing with other courts.

Over a hundred and forty bills with favorable reports died on the calendar. The last 48 hours of the session were marked by much talking.

The Legislature meets again April 3d. It does not really adjourn now, but takes a recess. There is no telling what it will have to do then, or how long it will have to stay in session. Representative McCulloch of Bladen said today "Many puzzling questions grow out of the impeachment matter, and as to what we may or may not have to do when we meet April 3. The best lawyers are puzzled. They talk very boldly until you take them aside and then they say they do not know any more about the matter than we do."

There is rejoicing at the end of the session, especially among the newspaper men, who had to do the hardest work they ever did.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. F. S. Duff & Co.

RESOLUTION OF SORROW.

On Ex-President Harrison's Death. Sympathy to Family.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, March 15.—Both Houses adopted by a rising vote a resolution expressing deep sorrow and regret at the death of Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, who was one of America's greatest statesmen, and tendering the sincerest sympathy to the deceased man's family.

GIVEN A PRESENT.

Lieut. Governor Turner Remembered by Senators and Clerks.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, March 15.—Very little business was done in the Senate today. Senator Dula, Republican, offered a resolution thanking Lieut. Governor Turner for his impartiality as a presiding officer.

Senators Dula, Crisp, Marshall and Buchanan, and all the Republicans said their relations had been most friendly with the other political parties on the floor of the Senate.

The Lieutenant Governor was presented a chest of silver ware by the Senators and clerks.

TO CHECK BLOODSHED.

United States and Russia act Together at Peking.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Further indiscriminate execution of Chinese will not be countenanced by the United States.

Moderation not only in demands, but in the infliction of punishment by the Chinese authorities is now sought by the President and Secretary Hay. Special Commissioner Rockhill having cabled the State Department asking for specific instructions in regard to the punishment of provincial officials whose heads are sought by the German and other diplomatic representatives, Secretary Hay wired him this afternoon that the President desired him to use his influence in behalf of moderate punishments. Mr. Rockhill will not demand any further executions, but he will leave to the Chinese authorities the infliction of such penalties as they may see fit to impose upon officials and persons charged with complicity in the anti-foreign outrages. Mr. Hay practically reiterated in his instruction his recent dispatch announcing that the President hoped further bloodshed would cease.

The attitude of the United States is similar to that of Russia. Russia has long been in sympathy with the policy of this Government against further executions. The authorities here propose to continue their efforts to preserve the concert, but it is hoped to prevent the adoption of another blood demand by inducing a majority of the powers to support the United States and Russia.

Gen. Harrison's Funeral.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.,—March 14.—The arrangements for the funeral of General Benjamin Harrison, ex-President of the United States, have been completed. The body will lie in state at the Capitol Building from 11 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening, and the funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Malone officiating. The funeral will be attended by many of the noted men of the United States. President McKinley and his Cabinet will be here.

RALEIGH.

Martin, the Defaulter Said to Have Led Double Life.

New Revenue Law. Last Day of Partridge Shooting. Views on New Text Book Matter. Public Printing Problem.

RALEIGH, March 15.—The new revenue law contains the inheritance tax; does not contain what is known as the double tax on property of corporations and shares therein; or the tax on municipal or corporate loans.

Maj. W. H. Martin, the defaulting ex-clerk in the State treasury, is yet in jail and said this morning he had no hope of giving the $4,000 bail demanded. It was said today by the ex-chief clerk of the treasury, that Martin had made work with the penitentiary vouchers for 1900—that he said he had sent them to the penitentiary by express, but that the penitentiary officials say this is not true, and that they have never received the warrants.

The statement was reiterated today that women were the cause of Maj. Martin's fall. A government official said he had been told that Martin "led a double life" for many years, and that in view of this he was not surprised at what had happened. Martin says he gave the money to widows and orphans, and that he intends to pay it all. People here have had confidence in him as a business man. He had held good positions for 35 years.

The legislature repealed the old charter of the State, Wilmington and Western railway, in order to get it out of the way, so it will not conflict with the Southern, Wilmington and Durham railway, which it is desired, will certainly be built.

Among the visitors to the capitol and other public buildings today was the venerable A. R. Spofford, so long the Librarian of Congress.

Today was the last day of the partridge shooting season in nearly all the counties. This legislature has enacted many game laws, practically all of them being along the line of protection of game.

The specifications for the public printing were all prepared today. This question presents a great problem.

The text book board will get bids up to March 20, will turn over all the books submitted to the commission of teachers and on the 23d of April will open the bids and make the awards. Three views are held, 1st, That all books should be changed; that the law really messes this 2nd, That there be a conservative course, some books kept, others changed. 3rd, That the present books be kept, in the interest of economy.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Little Early Risers when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. F. S. Duff & Co.

Committee to Investigate.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, March 15.—A special committee was appointed today, to investigate the books of the State Treasurer. The committee will begin its work regularly on next Monday. Some work was done by the committee today.

BRYAN HAS HOPES.

Would Not Be Surprised At His Nomination in 1904.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—William Jennings Bryan told the friends with whom he spent the day in Washington that he believed he was as strong as ever with the rank and file of the Democrats; that all the efforts to reorganize the Democratic party against his interests had come to naught; that he saw no rival that need be seriously considered, and no one who might be developed into such a rival, and, in short, left the impression that he expected to be re-nominated or elected in 1904.

The personal ambition of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill he thought the people would distinctly see behind their recent letters and other outgivings, and he thought the nomination of one of them by the Democratic party for the Presidency was as unlikely as the nomination of the other.

Mr. Olney he does not take seriously as a candidate for the Presidency. He sees no one in either House of Congress who can be considered, and he sees no one coming up in the country who may develop into such a candidate. He knows that Mr. Hill, Mr. Gorman and other Democratic managers, including most of the strong men in the South, and a large minority, if not the majority, of the Democratic National Committee are working quietly but earnestly to eliminate him from the possibility of consideration for the Presidency.

He knows that the Democratic party was never in such a state of disorganization as at present.

But Mr. Bryan believes that the party will be reorganized in time for the Congressional elections in 1902, and, indeed, for the local elections next fall, and that in a large majority of States, at least it will be reorganized in his interests. Changing conditions will change the issues and make it entirely possible for him to lead once more the Democratic party, which will have its great opportunity in an inevitable reaction against the party in power. It is not strange that with such views, Mr. Bryan looks better than for several years past and is in abounding spirits.

Needless to say that most Democratic leaders outside of the small coterie of Mr. Bryan's personal admirers think that he is entirely self-deceived and that slowly but surely the plans for reorganizing the Democratic party so as to leave him in retirement and nominate a new candidate in 1904 whom they admit, is yet to be discovered, will work out successfully. The results will first appear in changes in the control of the Democratic organization in local elections this spring and fall.

A majority of the Democratic National Committee and all the strongest Democratic leaders are working in concert on this plan. Almost every State east of the Mississippi, including every State south of Mason and Dixon's line has already, it is said, been placed on the anti-Bryan list, although they are very careful not to figure openly as in antagonism to Bryan but rather to Bryanism. The change which they anticipate in the position of the party will appear later in convention declarations against policies which bear that stamp.

GAMBLING BILL.

Important to Barroom Keepers and Police men.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, March 15.—The House transacted little business today. A bill was passed to prohibit gambling in barrooms, the penalty being the revoking of the license of the barroom keepers who permit it, and to disqualify from office all policemen who wink at such offenses.
