NINETEENTH YEAR

EX-PRIME MINISTER OF HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Commends Peruna to His Friends as a Positive Catarrh Remedy.

Hon. Celso Cesar Moreno, Ex-Prime Minister of Hawaii.

The Hon. Celso Cesar Moreno, ex-Prime Minister of Hawaii, and projector of the Trans-Pacific cable, 1876, is a distinguished statesman, and the best known Italian in the country. In a letter from Washington, D. C., to the Peruna Medicine Co., he says:

"I can commend your great national catarrh cure, Peruna, to my friends throughout the country as a safe, reliable medicine. I know of no other tonic that will build a person up as well as Peruna. It is a positive cure for the universal disease, catarrh, and those who will try this remarkable medicine will find a sure cure."

Very respectfully, Celso Cesar Moreno.

Charles B. Royer, 909 W. Washington street, Morristown, Pa., writes:

"My oldest daughter Malinda Royer, secured of deafness by Peruna. When she began to take Peruna we had to go up close to her and talk very loud to make her hear. After taking one-half dozen bottles of Peruna she can hear you in any part of the room. She can hear an ordinary conversation."

Malinda Royer.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called some other name than catarrh. The fact is, catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equal great importance, that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

Catarrh is an American disease. Fully one-half of the people are afflicted more or less with it in some form. Previous to the discovery of Peruna, catarrh was considered well nigh incurable. Since the introduction of Peruna to the medical profession thousands of cases are cured annually.

Mr. W. M. Holland, of Hartwell, Ga., proprietor of the Hartwell Tin Works, writes of Peruna as follows:

"I am more than pleased with the benefits derived from Peruna. The winter of 1899 my weight was 150 pounds. I used several bottles during the winter and now weigh 211."

"I have recommended it to all my friends both as a tonic and catarrh cure. If I had been lucky enough to have seen it several years ago Peruna would have saved me much inconvenience. I can never be too thankful to you for the benefits received from your valuable remedy. My mother has also been wonderfully benefited by your valuable remedy."

GUESSING.

All Sorts Of Opinions Of Result Of the Impeachment Trial.

Termination Expected By Thursday. Interest Will Be Very Great. The Effect Will Be Lasting.

Raleigh, N. C., March 23.—The wide variance of views as to the result of the impeachment trial continues. One side figures that the judges will get 2 majority; the other that the vote will be 37 to 13 against the judges. There is plenty of lobbying, people say who know about such things. It was said today that even peacemakers were lobbying. Nearly everybody takes sides. The opposing factions show their predilections in the plainest way by word and by applause.

By Thursday night, they were saying today, the trial will be at an end, and the Senators ready to tear themselves away and go home. All the guessers are at sea. Guesser No. 1 says the judges will get a majority. Guesser No. 2 says this is impossible, as he looks at it, but that there will certainly not be a two-thirds vote to convict. Guesser No. 3 says the vote will be very close and he really can't predict the result. Guesser No. 4 says that the conviction is a certainty and has always been one.

As yet, though people bet or offer to bet on almost any court, no bets have been heard of on the result of the impeachment trial. One man said if he had $10,000 he would bet it all that the judges were convicted. He bets this on the ground that Locke Craig would have never introduced the impeachment resolution unless he was sure there would be conviction. It is observable that a number of Republicans say there will be conviction. They say "the Democrats are bound to have the court."

Great as the interest has been all the while it is small compared to what it will be when the supreme moment arrives, that moment which damns or delivers the accused judges. To the general public it is like a baseball game. To the counsel there is the pride of mastery. To the accused the pride of success or the gloom of failure. To the accused the end of the greatest strain their lives have ever known.

A business man here said that it might be a long range view, but he would venture to predict that the trial which he deemed utterly ill-advised, would be felt as a political factor for years to come. He said he had so told some of the highest Democrats. There will be much more heard and said about the trial after it ends than before it.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY.

Large Membership in New York. Old Soldier Pardoned. The Printing of New Laws.

Raleigh, March 23.—Gov. Aycock has a letter from Judge Augustus Van Wyck, the president of the "North Carolina Society of New York," in which the latter says: "We have organized the North Carolinians of this locality into a very strong society and it is in every respect equal to the best of the State Societies at this great centre. May 30 we propose to give our first banquet, which will be as handsome and as large as any of them. We have concluded to give a North Carolina flavor to all the speeches. There will be four of them. We want you to respond to the first toast and discuss 'how the South is performing the new duties devolved upon her as result of the changed conditions brought about by the war.'"

Arrivals of convicts at the penitentiary are not numerous now. The last arrivals are from Northampton and New Hanover. There was also brought from Northampton to the criminal insane department of the penitentiary a man who tried to murder his mother. The work of building dividing walls and fences between the criminal insane and the convicts will begin next month.

Gov. Aycock pardons B. E. Pope of Halifax who was serving a sentence for assault with deadly weapons. The injured person asked for pardon. Pope is old and infirm. He was wounded in the civil war, in which he was a good soldier.

None of the legislative acts have been published yet, save the very few which by special act the Secretary of State was ordered to get out at once. Thus the revenue act is not printed. All public printing is being held up until the printing commission awards the contract which will very probably be done Monday.

"Black and White" Studio.

Not black and white people, but a system of drawing. I have opened a studio at No. 55 Pollock street, where I will teach the system and also give lessons in pastel and oil painting. I make portraits in order from sittings or from photographs, and appeal to those who want good work and have the money to pay for it. Visitors are welcome. OTIS A. MILKIN.

THE PEABODY FUND.

Its Allotment at Various Towns. The Educational Conference at Winston-Salem.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, March 23.—Today the State Superintendent of public instruction was notified by Dr. Currie that $4,200 of the Peabody fund is allotted to this State for 1900-01, as follows: Greensboro $2,000, Winston $700, Elizabeth City $400, Fayetteville $150, Franklinton $250, Monroe $200, and Mt. Airy, Kinston, New Bern, Washington and Waynesville $100 each. Of the allowance $1,100 was received today. Some of the $4,200 has already been paid to schools.

The Superintendent of public instruction is invited to deliver an address on "Rural Schools" at the Conference on education at Winston-Salem April 19-21. He today made up a list of 50 prominent educators in the State, to be specially invited to attend the conference.
