NOT GUILTY!

Verdict Reached by Court of Impeachment Yesterday.

RESULT WAS EXPECTED!

Prosecution Wished to Withdraw After First Ballot. Defense Refuses. First Vote 27 to 23. Last Vote 16 to 34.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.

RALEIGH, March 28.—There was a big attendance at the closing proceedings in the impeachment trial today, the Senate chamber was filled with people to hear the conclusion of the trial of the judges.

Hon. C. B. Watson finished his speech in one hour, it lacked spirit. The speaker seemed to feel that defeat was impending. He again attacked F. I. Osborne, of the counsel for the defense. Osborne again arose and corrected the speaker.

There was no disposition on the part of the Senators to delay the taking of the vote. A motion was made by Senator London to vote without debate and the motion was carried.

Senator Justice offered an amendment allowing Senators two minutes to explain their vote.

Senator Travis suggested that a conference of the Democratic Senators be held before voting, but the suggestion was not received favorably.

The first of the five articles of impeachment, as presented by the House managers, was read and President Turner asked each senator as his name was called, whether he voted guilty or not guilty. The utmost silence prevailed in the Chamber as the roll was called and the answers were made by the Senators with a solemnity worthy of the case.

The vote on the first article was as follows:

RALEIGH, March 28.—The cycloce in Granville county was much worse than was at first reported. Mr. A. A. Hicks, who has just arrived here states that Paul Cannady, a young white boy and two negroes were killed, and M. J. W. Harris fatally injured. The village of Wilton was almost destroyed. Mr. Harris was in the Harris store, a large wooden building, which was destroyed. He was caught under the debris. Several plantation settlements were almost destroyed.

MAYORALTY CAMPAIGNS.

Raging in the Cities. A Lumber Shower. Strawberry Crop to be Short To Care for Soldiers' Home.

RALEIGH, March 28.—Municipal campaigns are in progress in most of the larger towns of the State, though the election is not held until the first week in May. In Raleigh there are three candidates for mayor, Mayor A. M. Powell Joseph E. Pogue and J. S. Wynne. The primary is held next Tuesday. In Charlotte, where the primary is held on the 9th, there is a hot fight between Dr. R. J. Brevard and P. M. Brown. Wilmington has already nominated the present incumbent, Col. A. M. Waddell. There are three candidates in Greensboro, J. W. Forbis, John L. King and C. G. Wright.

President George T. Winston, of the A. & M. College, has been invited to deliver an address before the American Academy of Political and Social Science, at its meeting in Philadelphia next month. He will speak on the restriction of suffrage, and the industrial phase of the race problem.

The late Legislature appointed only three magistrates for Wake county. In some there are scores of new appointees, two sets having been appointed in one county.

Members of the law classes at the University, Wake Forest and other colleges are here to hear the closing argument in the impeachment trial. Most of the leading lawyers of the State have been here at some stage of the trial to hear the legal arguments.

At Kirtrell, which is located in the edge of the cyclone district in Granville, a curious phenomenon occurred the afternoon of the storm. There was a severe wind, and with it a perfect shower of shingles, timbers and pieces of furniture.

Strawberry men expect a short crop this year, with a late season, but on this account expect better prices for the production.

Driving along a road near Oxford Henry Robards, a negro, was seized with a sudden attack of vertigo. The horses ran away, turned the wagon over in a ditch, and threw a pitchfork into the negro's body. He was pierced in the leg, head and face, and was lying in a pool of blood when found. In spite of this, it is thought he will recover.

Considerable Damage.

The Granville County Cyclone Worse Than First Accounts.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 28.—The cyclone in Granville county was much worse than was at first reported. Mr. A. A. Hicks, who has just arrived here states that Paul Cannady, a young white boy and two negroes were killed, and M. J. W. Harris fatally injured. The village of Wilton was almost destroyed. Mr. Harris was in the Harris store, a large wooden building, which was destroyed. He was caught under the debris. Several plantation settlements were almost destroyed.

AGUINALDO A CAPTIVE.

Daring Feat of General Funston Overcomes the Wily Filipino.

MANILA, March 28.—General Funston with the assistance a number of Macabebes, has captured Aguinaldo in the country near Casiguran, nine miles from Baler, on the northeast coast of the island of Luzon. The rebel leader and his entire staff are now in Manila. General Funston employed a very clever ruse to reach Aguinaldo. His plan worked successfully.

FELL OVERBOARD.

Marion Lindsey, of Goldsboro, 19 Years of Age Drowned.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.

GOLDSBORO, March 28.—Marion Lindsey, aged 19 years, son of Thos D. Lindsey of this city, fell overboard from the steamer "Goldsboro" near Seven Springs yesterday and was drowned.

Lindsey was a stalwart young fellow and had but a few days ago entered service upon the steamer.

Brave Clothes Make Brave People.

Military Sack Suits. In either single or double-breasted Coats that hang close to the figure, with good, broad shoulders, giving the wearer an erect, soldierly appearance. Exceedingly smart, a sack suit, sometimes. Then why not get it right? There is as much difference in clothing as there is in people. Some are expressive in their general appearance. They have character. The style, design, finish, workmanship, material, all contribute to the desired effect.

A DRESS PARADE

In Fashion's review weavers of our made to order suits form a striking procession. Our stock of woolsens presents the first choices in the fabric for this season. I fight as a saphy, cool as a hilltop, and artistic as a picture, these patterns hold admiration, pleasure, and make up in the suitest suits in town. We fit all perfectly.
