Falling Vision.

As a person grows older their sight goes from them, and as soon as the Crystalline lens or the eye focuses so far away as to cause diffusion circles on the retina at the same time giving a correspondingly small retinal image your eye is laboring under a serious strain.

This change, or defect is inevitable unless a person happens to be near sighted or Myopic, it is caused by age, a hardening of the lens and the muscles losing their strength, every eye has a very strong lens which in health has the power to focus for close and far objects, their power is given to it by circular and radiating muscles (sphincter muscles) called the ciliary muscles, thus when we look at a close object the circular muscle contracts thereby making the lens more convex and giving it a shorter focus, and when we look away the radiating muscles contracts also the lens by its own spring, like elasticity flattens giving a longer focus. If the eye has not this power it has to be supplied by science in the shape of lens adjusted correctly to give the eye its proper focusing power to relieve that headache, etc.

VERY SENSITIVE.

A City Employee Champions the City Council.

The JOURNAL yesterday published an account of the facts of the last meeting of the board of Aldermen, in regard to the recess meeting, passing no special ordinance upon anyone, but perhaps showing some dissatisfaction with the proposed manner of electing the water works employees for the next two years, at a recess meeting.

This statement of facts seems to have called to the front the present superintendent of the water works, J. C. Thomas, Jr. He took occasion yesterday, as a politician, to openly criticize the JOURNAL saying that it was "a disgrace to the JOURNAL to criticize the board of aldermen when it had the city printing," and implying that said printing would be taken away for its temerity in publishing anything not to said Thomas' taste.

It seems to the JOURNAL that it is its duty to have something to say about the water works in politics. In common with many others it advocated that the water works be bought and hence feels somewhat responsible that it shall be well managed and especially that it be kept out of politics. It is now right in politics and as an instance, the superintendent is a person whose only claim is being a politician. The JOURNAL does not believe that the work performed by this gentleman in politics has been especially beneficial, referring by this to the "fine work" done in Bern precinct by him. There was too much enthusiasm shown at that precinct.

The Journal has no candidate for Mayor or for Aldermen and any preferences are merely personal. Finally there has been too much sensitiveness among city officials to the slightest criticism. Let them do their duty and nothing can touch them.

ROBERTS-CUTLER.

Beautiful Wedding at Centenary Church Yesterday Afternoon.

The Young People Prominent in New Bern Social Life An Impressive Ceremony.

Departure For The North.

Yesterday afternoon long before the ushers arrived, or the doors were opened there was a crowd in front of Centenary Church, anxious to enter the church, to witness the marriage ceremony of Miss Adelaide Hart Cutler and Mr. Daniel Monroe Roberts, which had been announced to take place at 5 P. M.

The prominence of the contracting parties, gave the marriage a special importance, and some time before the hour announced for the wedding, every seat was filled and all space within Centenary Church was occupied by relatives, friends and those interested in seeing the ceremony.

The bride, Miss Cutler, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyeurgus H. Cutler, is one of the best known young ladies of this city, and is also well known in Greensboro and Raleigh. She has always been prominent in the social affairs of Centenary Church, and was a member of the choir. Mr. L. H. Cutler her father, is President of the Farmers & Merchants Bank, and head of the L. H. Cutler Hardware Company, of this city.

The groom, Mr. Roberts, is in the meat and grocery brokerage business. He is well liked, and stands high among the young men of this city. His father is Capt. Daniel L. Roberts, wholesale grocer, who is also Treasurer of Craven county.

For yesterday's event, Centenary Church had been tastefully and beautifully decorated.

Back of the pulpit, and within the chancel, palms, calla lilies, plants and vines were banded in tropical luxuriance, making a back ground of flowery splendor.

Facing the main church aisle, outside of the chancel, was an arch of vines and flowers, and suspended within the arch, under which the young couple to be married had to take their places, was a wedding bell, made of iris lilies and narcissus. The clapper of the bell was composed of jonquils.

Two thirds down the main church aisle were gates of daffodils and amaryllis, through which the wedding party had to pass. The choir gallery was also hung in vines and flowers.

At 5 o'clock, the great church organ, Mrs. J. A. Meadows organist, announced through the music of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the approach of the wedding party.

In regular order the pages, the flower girls, the groom's attendants and the bride's attendants, marched out to meet the approaching bride, the bridal procession forming in the church vestibule and coming into the church in the following order:

The flower girls, little Misses Ruth Watson, in yellow silk, and Myrtle Hubbard, in blue silk, who took their places at the flower gates, holding them open while the bridal procession passed through.

The pages, Masters Cutler, Watkins and George Holland, dressed in white flannel suits, with white silk blouses.

The bride's attendants, Miss Clyde Ellington, of Raleigh, first bridesmaid, Misses Pearl Powell, Mamie Hay and Carrie Arendell. They wore white organdies, picture hats trimmed with yellow roses and carried bunches of white carnations.

The groom's attendants, Messrs L. H. Cutler, Jr., Albert H. Bangert, T. J. Roberts, Will R. Hay, George Henderson, and Howard S. Byron.

The first maid of honor, Miss Fannie Cutler, sister of the bride. Her dress was yellow satin, flowers on hat yellow carnations, and carried Easter lilies.

Last came the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father. She was superbly gowned in white crepe de chine, with pearls and orange blossom trimmings, white veil and carried roses.

As the bride reached the bridal arch, she was met by the groom, who was attended by his brother, Harry Roberts, serving as best man.

Together beneath the arch the young couple took their places, while just beyond and outside the arch, stood the Rev. H. F. Bumpas, pastor of Centenary Church, who very impressively performed the marriage service of the Methodist church.

Immediately after the marriage service, while the wedding party was leaving the church, the choir sang the Bridal chorals from Lohengrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left on the steamer Newberne last night for a trip to the north, Baltimore, Washington and other cities, and upon their return will make their home in this city.

As witnesses of the love and regard in which the newly married couple were held, a great number of costly and handsome presents were received. They are too numerous to specify, but consist of rich cut glass ware, furniture, pianos, art ware, silver ware, decorated dish ware, embroideries, laces and rugs.

CITY BOND SOLD.

Brings a Good Price, Considerably Above the Last Sale.

The bond for $10,000 of the city of New Bern was sold yesterday at 108 1/2. The best previous bid had been 106 1/2 and at the meeting of the board of aldermen Tuesday night, on motion of C. T. Watson, clerk J. J. Tolson sent a telegram to a Chattanooga firm offering the bond at 108 1/2. An immediate reply was received accepting the offer.

The sale of the $29,000 bonds to pay for the water works last August was made at 106 1/2, so that this sale was at a considerable advance, making a difference of $235. The sale puts $50 into the city treasury, that being the amount realized on the sale above par.

It was thought that there would be some difficulty in selling the bond in a single amount. Only one bond could be issued, for the whole amount, owing to an error of the clerk in the Legislature who copied the bill wrong. It was expected that the amount would be in small bonds, allowing them to be placed largely at home, many of them being accepted by the creditors of the city.

The sale indicates that the city's credit is very good.
