Butler Goes to Greensboro to Urge Prosecution. Pou Thinks It Immaterial. Ransom Says There is no Case.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, April 5.—The report has been going around for several days that the prosecution of the cases in the Federal courts against the election officers had been stopped. The Democratic leaders have been hearing the matter for some time.

It is learned tonight that Ex-Senator Butler has gone to Greensboro to put a stop to the not pros proceedings in these cases, being determined that they shall go on.

The question now is, whether Marion Butler, district attorney Holton, Marshal Milliken and other office holders are powerful enough to have the cases prosecuted, or whether the friends of Judges Furbush and Douglas, Ex-Gov. Jarvis, Frank Osborne, B. F. Long and other leading Democrats, will have more influence and put a stop to the actions.

Your correspondent tonight asked Democratic Ex-Chairman James H. Pou about this matter. Mr. Pou said that he had heard such rumors and felt completely indifferent as to the result of the opposing forces above described. He said that if the cases were tried there would in all probability be a verdict of acquittal, and that in case of conviction there would be a new trial and quashing of the indictment in the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ex-Senator Ransom declared that no Federal statute applied to these cases. He says that he has carefully examined the Federal statutes and cannot find a law on which these prosecutions can hang; that it is only a question whether they will stop the prosecution now or after they stopped later.

Aguinado's Manifesto.

Manila, April 4.—Aguinaldo has the assistance of Chief Justice Arellano and Mr. Fisher, General McArthur's private secretary, in preparing his manifesto. The tenor of the contents is not divulged.

Aguinaldo is realizing the futility of further resistance and is desirous of sparing the Filipinos additional distress through the justice and generosity of the American people. The chief of the revolution will urge the insurgents to cease fighting and accept the American sovereignty.

Peabody Fund Distributed.

RALEIGH, April 5.—Today $1550 of the Peabody fund was distributed to various schools, of this sum $1000 went to the State Normal and Industrial college at Greensboro. Of the remainder $550 went to the white graded schools at New Bern, Washington, Wayneville and Monroe, to negro normal schools at Elizabeth City and Fayetteville.

Mystery Near Greenville.

Goldboro, April 4.—A white man was found dead in the road near the river at Greenville yesterday. It is learned that considerable mystery hangs around his death. Yesterday the deceased was granted a divorce from his wife and it seems as though he was judging from the direction taken on leaving town. There was no mark of violence on the body.

State Interest in Charleston Exposition. Fine State Museum. Public School Libraries.

RALEIGH, April 5.—Mr. William Dunn of New Bern, who is here, says the cold weather has not hurt the truck. The latter is more backward than usual, as the season is a late one.

Marked interest is felt in the participation by this State in the Charleston exposition, which is now assured. Gov. Aycock manifests a lively interest in the matter. The commissioner of agriculture says he has always desired the State to be represented and thinks a great show can be made for something like $12,000. Much of the material used in installing the exhibits will be available for permanent use in the State museum, as will also the greater part of the exhibits.

The designs for the cases in the annex of the State museum are now being prepared. The numerous specimens of woods are being resurfaced, and this particular exhibit will be far larger than ever before. A section of a paper, 8 feet in diameter and over 400 years old will be shown. Last year the commissioner of agriculture of Virginia expressed astonishment at the scope of the museum Yesterday Col. Hemphill and the other visitors from Charleston expressed their surprise.

The act for rural public school libraries will be issued in a day or two, with the instructions for the management and use of such libraries. The act was drawn by Prof. Grimsley, under the special auspices of the newly formed State Literary and Historical Society of which Judge Walter Clark is the president. The society is deeply gratified at the enactment of the law and at the popular interest in, and approval of it.

Judge Francis D. Winston of the 8th district, appointed yesterday by Gov. Aycock, will hold his first court in August in Halifax county. There is yet a judgeship to be filled, and the question whether Walter H. Neal or W. J. Adams will get that plum.

Under the regulation prescribed none of the book dealers are allowed to say a word to the text book sub-commission which is examining books. A teacher says this really gives the advantage to the old firms which have supplied books, because it does not give the newer firms an opportunity to present the merits of their books. The general public, however, thinks the arrangement a very fair one.

It is now expected that the new revenue act will yield ample revenue.

State has 460 Sawmills.

RALEIGH, April 5.—An effort made to ascertain the number of sawmills in operation in this State brings out the fact that there are approximately 460. This is said to be a pretty close estimate.

Spring coughs are especially dangerous and unless cured at once, serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture but is a high grade remedy. F. S. Duffy & Co.

A Corner in Peanuts.

New York, April 4.—It was announced today that a firm in Hoboken had cornered the peanut market, having purchased all the nuts in the Chicago, Boston and New York markets as well as having secured this week 125 carloads from Norfolk, Va. There has been an advance in price from 40 to 90 cents a bushel lately, and a member of the firm says this has been due to the corner, and expressed his opinion that it will go still higher.

MARTIN BREAKS DOWN.

Preserves His Composure Until the Prison Closes Upon Him.

RALEIGH, April 5.—Mr. W. H. Martin, the embezzler, who was placed in the penitentiary about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was quickly dressed in convict clothing. He had kept up an unmoved appearance all the while until he entered the prison, when he broke down completely and cried like a child. He denies that his relations with women caused his downfall, but the fact is notorious now. In fact it was said last night that a member of his family two years ago or thereabouts told him he would kill himself if he continued his relations with women.

Skin troubles, cuts, burns, scalds and chafing quickly healed by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is limited. Be sure you get DeWitt's. F. S. Duffy & Co.

Compulsory Education Predicted.

RALEIGH, April 5.—A man of high public position says he is sure the next Legislature will establish a reformatory for young criminals and that it will take a long step towards compulsory education. This summer the people of Mitchell county are to vote upon the question of such a law. This is the first step ever taken in this State in this direction. The result of the vote will be watched with interest.
