FAMOUS STATUE.

Examination of Facts Relating to Canova's Washington.

Fayetteville Light Infantry to Return to State Guard. State Fair Did Well. Old Soldiers in Hospital.

RALEIGH, April 6.—An inquiry was made the other day as to whether the bust of Washington by Canova was not the one taken as a model by Canova in making the famous statue of Washington which was in the rotunda of the Capitol here. It required considerable search to get at the facts. One account said a portrait which was in the possession of the American Consul at Leghorn was used. But the official statement is that "it was copied from the bust taken in life by the celebrated Cerracchi while in this country." The statue was ordered in 1816, was shipped in a sloop of war in the spring of 1818 and arrived December 24th of that year at Raleigh and was at once put in place.

June 21, 1831 the Capitol burned, workmen having fire coals on the roof, which they were covering with zinc, to take the place of shingles which had caught fire a little while before. The walls were so defective that it is said they would have fallen any way and might at any time have caused great loss of life. The newspaper account says the head of the statue was saved, also the body, one arm and a leg nearly perfect. Relic hunters stole pieces, and all had to be inclosed. A sculptor named Hughes of England offered to restore the statue, but it seems that in 1839 the head was stolen.

It is considered quite probable that the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, which in 1893 left the State Guard, will again become part of it. Gov Aycock desires that this course be taken.

The report of the annual State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy is published, including the address by Capt. C. B. Denson.

The report of the State Fair is made. It is even better financially than expected.

There are now 16 of the inmates of the Soldiers' Home in hospital, of whom 4 have heart disease, and one is paralyzed.

It is said by sportsmen here that "Tar Heel" of Tarboro, who made so fine a record in the pigeon-shoot at New York is Mr. Henry Bridgers of Tarboro, well known as an admirable shot.

PERUNA THE GREAT TONIC.

MRS. & COOK, PITTSFORD, N.Y.

MISS ANNIE ZLOTT, NEWARK, N.J.

MRS. ANNA ROES, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

So many housewives suffer from nervous depression due to ovarian weakness peculiar to their sex, and suffer on year after year, not knowing what their ailment is. Mrs. Mary Cook, of Pittsford, N. Y., suffered for six years before she learned of Peruna. Mrs. Cook recently wrote the following letter to Dr. Hartman:

"I was not well for six years, paid many doctor bills, but never improved very much. I gave up hopes of ever recovering."

"Finally, I wrote to Dr. Hartman, and I am thankful to say that I am now well, through his good advice and medicine. I am gaining in flesh and feel young again. I was very emaciated, but now my own children are surprised in the great change in me when they visit me."

Miss Annie Zlott, 72 Livingston street, Newark, N. J., took Peruna for extreme nervousness. She says: "I was very ill and thought I would die. I had a terrible headache and my head swam; I thought I would never get well; I seemed to have a great complication of diseases and bought medicines, but they did me no good."

"Finally I gave up and thought I would wait for my end. One day I happened to pick up one of your books. I read of other women who were near death and had been cured by Peruna, so I thought I would try it."

"I took a couple of bottles and began to feel better. I continued its use until now I am a well woman. I praise Peruna highly and wish other women would use it."

Mrs. Anna Ross, 218 North Fifth street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Four weeks ago I believed I had consumption; I took a severe cold, and although for the first few days the mucus in my throat and chest was loose, it finally became so bad that I had difficulty in breathing."

Pain in the shoulders followed. As had placed my confidence in you and Peruna, I followed your directions strictly, and improved from day to day, as you now well again."

Most women feel the need of a tonic to counteract the debilitating effects of summer weather. Peruna is such a remedy. It cures all catarrhal conditions whether it be weakness, nervous depression or summer catarrh. For a free booklet on summer catarrh, address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

AGUINALDO HAS A CHANCE.

But the Government Not Inclined to Give Him too Much Credit.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Aguinaldo was so prompt in taking the oath of allegiance to the United States that it recalled some of his former acts of treachery, such as selling out his Filipino associates in a revolt against Spain; consequently there is a disposition in official circles to be suspicious of his intentions and to be certain that he shall have no opportunity to play traitor to the United States. Gen. MacArthur has acquiesced in this government with certain promises made up an immediate end to the war in the Philippines, and he has been instructed to give Aguinaldo the opportunity to carry them out. If he does so in good faith he will not only be given his liberty but will also probably be given some position of importance under the civil government of the Philippines.

Russia not Excluded.

St. Petersburg, April 5.—Russia now blames the powers for China's refusal to accept the conditions of the evacuation of Manchuria, and calmly says she is in no hurry and can await events. The unbiased opinion here is that Russia occupied an impregnable diplomatic position, from which nobody can dislodge her. However warlike Japan may feel, Russia is confident that no opportunity will be given her to take the offensive without placing herself in the wrong. As far as can be seen Japanese threats have not caused a ripple of excitement here.

Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, April 6.—The game of baseball here this afternoon, of Lehigh University vs the Agricultural and Mechanical College resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 12 to 1.

The game was at the ball field at the State fair grounds, which has been remodeled. The grounds are in much better shape than ever before. The new grand-stand seats 2000, the "bleachers" as many more.

All Deny the Tale.

New York, April 6.—The story that J. Pierpont Morgan and Senator Hanna were at the head of a syndicate that had offered to acquire and complete the Panama Canal without cost to this government, if this government would pledge itself not to assist in the construction of a canal over the Nicaragua route, would have been very important if true, but as all the interested parties have declared to it to be untrue that seems to settle it.
