CALL FOR AID.

People of Jacksonville Ask Their Fellow Citizens to Help Them.

An Enormous Loss of Property. Thousands are Homeless. Many Lives Lost. Order Evacuates in the Burned City.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 4.--The Mayor of Jacksonville issued an appeal this afternoon to the people of the United States for aid in the great calamity that has fallen upon the city in the great fire that swept two miles through its centre.

He says that the loss is eight million dollars and that ten thousand people are homeless.

There is no lawlessness in the burned city and many soldiers from other neighboring cities are on guard. The fire is the greatest that has ever occurred in the South.

Many persons are reported to have gone insane from excitement and 20 deaths occurred by fire and other causes.

It is also reported that twenty persons were forced by the flames into St. John river and were drowned. A search for the bodies of the unfortunate ones is now in progress. Two fire engines.

The crews came from Savannah on a special train in response to urgent telegrams asking aid and a telegram sent to Brunswick, Ga. stating that the city was burning up and asking for help was responded to with one thousand feet of hose and three firemen sent by special train, which made the run at 60 miles an hour to Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 3.--The buildings on the entire length of Beaver street, from Davis street to the creek on Liberty street, have been destroyed. This is 14 solid blocks of residences. For the same distance Ashley and Church streets have been blotted out.

When the fire reached Bridge street in its eastward course it developed in flames three blocks--the Duval, Monroe and the north side of the Adams, burning up that entire section of the city and running 14 blocks to the Duval street bridge.

The conflagration has burned over as far as is definitely known a distance of two and a half miles long by a half mile wide.

The City Hall went, the Fire Department Building, the Armory, the County Courthouse, the clerk's office, with the county records, the Criminal Court house, the City Jail, the schools, the Catholic Church and orphanage, St. John's Episcopal Church and the Convent. Almost all the fine buildings in the city were burned in less than four hours.

At 8:30 p. m. the fire was checked at the intersection of Laurel and Bay streets, where the Commercial Bank is located. The bank went up in flames, but the Western Union building just across the street was not damaged.

Among the prominent hotels burned besides the St. James and Windsor were the United States and the Placid.

Insurance Men Win.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, May 4.--The insurance men here defeated the lawyers in a lively game of base ball, by a score of 15-11.

City asked to Refund.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, May 4.--A claim for about $13,000 is made upon this city, for taxes which it is asserted Raleigh unlawfully collected from saloons outside the city limits. The charter of Raleigh gives it police control outside the boundary, as set of the last Legislature directs the refunding of taxes collected on property beyond the limits of any city or town. Under this the claim is made for taxes from 1878 to 1900, both years inclusive. One saloon keeper's claim is for over $5000. The city authorities evidently thought that as they had police jurisdiction they had the taxing power.

Attends for a Year.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, May 4.--The Police report issued here today says that 1577 persons were arrested in Raleigh during the year ending April 30. Of these 958 were white men.

Complaint of Road Material.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, May 4.--There are complaints that the granite, taken from the old State quarry, for macadamizing the streets, is too soft, wears away and causes a great deal of dust. It is said that granite from the quarries at Greensboro ought to be used.

TWO FACTIONS.

Likely to Defeat the Auditorium Project in Raleigh.

Cost of the Book Committee Loss Suit but Inherits Fortune. Convict Pardoned, Haid to Scientist Official.

RALEIGH, May 4.--Not a few persons consider the outlook for an auditorium here very unpromising. There are two factions among the stockholders, one desiring the Academy of Music bought and enlarged, the other wanting a site which was selected but which was objectionable to most of the stockholders and to practically all the general public. The leader of each faction has proxies, and the faction which opposes the Academy of Music plan did not attend the stockholders meeting which was called for last night. Next Thursday there is to be a meeting and this, it appears, will settle the fate of the much-talked-of auditorium project, one way or the other.

The last of the accounts of the members of the sub-committee was filed today. The total cost of the commission was $1804.44.

William Wallington, the man who sued the Seaboard Air Line for damages because he was struck and injured by a bull which an engine knocked from the track against him, is here. He lost that notable suit but he is now happy, as he says he has been left a fortune in England.

Gov. Aycock pardons Will Morgan, white, aged 19, sentenced to 4 years on the roads in Mecklenburg county. Morgan is an orphan and had lived with his aunt, who is a cotton mill operative. She brought a unique petition for pardon to the Governor. It is signed by the solicitor, by 300 citizens and several lawyers. It quotes the words of Jeanie Deans to Queen Caroline and says, "Like Jeanie Deans, she prays a pardon, with regards." The aunt wept freely when the Governor told her "your request is granted." She took Morgan back with her and they will go to her old home in South Carolina to live.

The Weather Observer says rain is now needed practically all over the State.

The selection of a superintendent of the penitentiary proved to be a far greater task than the new directors thought it would be.

John B. Boner, well known in this State as one of the three or four North Carolina poets, will soon be here. Literary work in New York has greatly impaired his health and his physician tells him he must come to North Carolina for the summer.

Last of Dewey's Fleet.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.--The Navy Department has ordered the gunboat Petrel to return to the United States from the Philippines, thus leaving the gunboat Concord the only fighting vessel of Dewey's Manila Bay squadron in Asiatic waters.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS.

Their Pilgrimage to Louisville in August. A Great Convict of the Order.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.--Arrangements were completed today for the pilgrimage of the Knights Templars of North Carolina to the Twenty-eight Triennial Convict of the order in America to be held here August 27 to 30 next. Very Eminent Sir and Dr. Frank T. Mortwether of Asheville, Grand Master and Deane of the Grand Commandery of the Old North State, came to Louisville to close a contract for quarters. He was escorted over the city by Col. J. T. Gaskill, chairman of the Convict Committee on Hotels, and secured accommodations for a party of forty knights and ladies at Brook and Broadway, one of the prettiest homes in that section of the city. Here the North Carolina Templars and their wives and daughters will find every convenience of a large hotel and still be in the heart of residential Louisville.

This will be the first National meeting of the white stoned army that North Carolina Knights ever attended in body, however an extra good showing is expected to be made. Dr. Mortwether also holds the position of Eminent Commander of Cynus Commandery, No. 5, of Asheville, and the arrangements were made for the grand Commandery crowd as well as for the Cynus members. He said all Knights Templars of the State desiring to attend would act as support to the Grand Commandery. There are ten extraordinary commanderies in North Carolina inside the one at Asheville, Wilmington, Charlotte, Durham, Raleigh, Winston, Waco, Greensboro, Tarboro, New Bern, South.

The preparations for the Convict in Louisville are the most elaborate ever contemplated in a Triennial City, dating from the first in New York in 1844. There are 1,200 men, Knights and support, and the cost of the trip has been raised to $100 per man. An advertisement for the trip has been issued in Louisville.

HEALTHY WOMEN.

Mary J. Kennedy, manager of Armour & Co's Exhibit at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, Neb., writes the following of Peruna, as a cure for that common phase of summer catarrh, known as indigestion. Miss Kennedy says:

"I found the Peruna a real change of diet incidental to eight years' traveling upset my digestive system. In consulting several physicians they decided I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. Their prescriptions did not seem to help me any, so, reading of the remarkable cures effected by the use of Peruna I decided to try it and soon found myself well again."

"I have now used Peruna for about three months and feel completely rejuvenated. I believe I am permanently cured, and do not hesitate to give unqualified praise to your great remedy, Peruna."

The causes of summer catarrh are first, chronic catarrh; second, derangements of the stomach and liver; third, impure blood.

Such being the case anyone who knows anything whatever about the operations of Peruna can understand why this remedy is a permanent cure for summer catarrh. It eradicates chronic catarrh from the system, invigorates the stomach and liver, cleanses the blood of all impurities, and therefore permanently cures by removing the cause--a host of maladies peculiar to hot weather. The cause being removed the symptoms disappear of themselves.

A willful failure on the part of any school committee to perform the duty required in this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall subject each and every member of the same to a fine of not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars. Provided, that the instructions in accordance with the provisions of this section given to the teachers of the schools within twenty-four hours after the receipt of each and every notice shall be deemed performance of duty on the part of the school committee.
