The State superintend n' of public intruction is receiving many inquiries re arding swamp lands. Some of these are from the far west.

John W. Thompson, the commissione of immigration has found during the wo years he has been, in office that nothing can be done in securing foreign immigration to North Carolina, as the great steamship companies coopera. with the western railways in inducing them to go west. Then too the western States have agents in Europe and spend large sums there. This is the reason for the failure to secure imm! gration to this State.

January 5 a large number of valuable gems and gem stones, which the agri cultural department sent to the Pari exposition left Paris for Raleigh. The did not arrive until today. The Ameri can express company received them but gave no explanation of the outrageou delay. The agricultural department of ficials say the only explanation is that the gems were permitted to lie in the custom house at New York.

Gonzalo De Quesada, Secretary of the Cuban Legation in Washington.

Senor Queeds, Secretary of the Cuban Legation in Washington, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Esteban Theatre, Matabzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen many audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotional excitement, but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Marti." In a letter to The Peruna Medi-cine Company, written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. know of nothing better."
