ED. JOURNAL -In the notes from Haleigh this morning the report that the Secretary refused a charter to a "Christian Science College" proposed to be established at High Point, N. C., is incorrect. That he refused upon the advice of the Attorney General to grant could not help him. DeWitt's Witch the right of Corporation to the "Hamper College of Science and Healing" at that place is true, as the letters published in the News & Observer from the distinguished gentlemen show. I have read most carefully the proposed charter and can find no reason for anyone being so mistaken as to think it could mean Christian Science except from the stand point of supposition and misapprehension.
