American Diverses In British Courts. "It has been almost a custom," any the Toronto Mail and Empire, "owing to the difficulty of obtaining a divores in Canada, for citizens unhappily mar-ried to go to the United States and ob-tain a divorce after a few months' real-dence. Returning to Canada, some of these have remarried in the belief that the divorce was valid. Now the de-cision of the house of lords in Earl Russell's case is that only British courts can annul a marriage contract-ed under British Iaw. As police off-cers, crown attorneys and aggrieved persons can lay information in bigamy cases the lot of those who have remarpersons can lay information in bigamy cases the lot of those who have remar-ried on the strength of United States divorces will not be a happy one should decisions here follow that in the house of lords. Avon BFRINGS, N. Y., February 1st, 1901. DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE COMPANY. Gentiomen:--I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Athmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the pati 19 years. Having exhausted my own akill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife com-menced taking it about the first of November. I very scon noticed a mile a im-provement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entire-ity free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE COMPANY, Gentlement-I was troubled with Astlima for 29 years. I have tried numer-ous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have a family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. Lam now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.
