HAVE MONEY.

The Governor Says Next Thing is to Use the Schools.

Aycock on Effect of Lynchings. Labor Day at the Capitol. Disease Kills Ponies Also. Granville County Case.

Raleigh, September 2.—President John S. Cunningham of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association informs your correspondent that it will meet here during the State Fair in October.

Governor Aycock will deliver an educational address tomorrow at Beaufort. Speaking about public education he said to your correspondent: "We have now reached the point where we have the money for the public schools, and now the question is how to persuade the people to avail themselves of these schools."

The Governor then spoke of the trouble brought about by lynchings and said, "Let me show you one result. Some time ago in a certain county a prisoner was lynched. Later there was a murder in the same county and the murderer fled into Virginia, where he was arrested. Requisition was made for him upon the governor of that State, who informed the governor of this State that he did not intend to surrender the man, because it had been represented to him that if the man were taken back to that county he would be lynched. He therefore did not honor the requisition until the most positive assurances were given that the man would not be lynched."

The Supreme Court will tomorrow begin the call of appeals from the 3d district. The docket is a light one.

There was considerable interest in the first observance of Labor Day here today. The government and State buildings were closed. There was a large assemblage at the State Fair grounds, where speeches were made and dinner served.

A letter from Clerk Meekins of the Superior Court of Dare county says in regard to the outbreak of the horse disease there that it has killed 15 to 20 horses and ponies. It had been alleged that it did not affect the native ponies, known as "banker ponies," because they are found wild on the "banks" which divide the sounds from the ocean.

It is the belief that the reward of $400 offered by Gov. Aycock for the recapture of Thomas S. Rogers, the Granville county rapist, who was rescued by his friends from a deputy Sheriff, will result in the recapture of Rogers, unless a rumor he has gone to the far west. The reward of $50 for each of the rescuers of Rogers may produce great results. It is reported here as odd that the authorities of Granville has not investigated the conduct of the deputy who is openly charged with conniving at the rescue.

Odd fellows all over the State will learn with great regret of the critical illness of Grand Representative John A. Stevens, who is in a hospital at Wilson.

During August there was only one death of a white adult in this city. There were a few deaths of white children. The adult who died was 81 years of age.

Tomorrow a State embalmers school will open here, which will be largely attended. It is to enable undertakers to meet the requirements of the new law.

The State's Industrial School at Winston, for colored pupils, gets $2507 a year from the State of this $1877 being a regular appropriation, which under a special law a sum not to exceed $1000 is given in case the trustees put up an equal amount.

A never failing cure for cuts, burns, scalds, ulcers, wounds and sores is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A most soothing and healing remedy for all skin affections. Accidents only the genuine. F. S. Duffy.

CEBAR POINT.

Mr. A. J. Hurt of Oquaw is visiting relatives. Misses Irene Jones and Julia Egan will return with Mr. Hurt where they will spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Quite a number of our young people were disappointed by the rain preventing them from enjoying a moonlight party on the banks last Friday night.

Mrs. G. M. Egan of New Bern returned home Saturday. She has been spending a few days with Mr. Egan's mother.

The public school at Rocky Run will open the first of October. The school building will be completed and put in good condition, much to the credit of the committee. There is not a better public school building in the county and it is shameful that the needed work has not been done before, when the building is completed—painted, shingles added etc. It will be an ornament to the community.

WILDWOOD.

After Tobacco Curing it is Time to Frolic. Visitors Come in. Trouble on the Sound.

Wildwood, September 2.—The tobacco farmers have all gotten through curing tobacco and they all come together Saturday and gave a big fish fry for the benefit of the neighborhood. They gathered at Bogue Sound at nine o'clock a. m. the old farmers spent the morning in pleasant chats of their younger days while the young people whiled away the time, fishing, clamming, crabbing and bathing until time for dinner, then all gathered together for dinner. There was lots of fried fish and bread spread on the bottom of a boat and everybody ate, and seemed to enjoy themselves. After dinner the young people went to the beach, some went in bathing while others spent their time walking the shore and gathering sea oysters, having a pleasant sail over and back. Every one present seemed to be well pleased with the day and are talking of having another one soon. I don't care if they do myself.

Capt. Jim Pigott of Bogue spent a while with us Saturday, as he was passing by he was bound to.

Miss Mollie Oglesby left Sunday morning for Harlowe creek on a visit.

Mrs. L. C. Fulcher spent Sunday in Morehead City.

Ool Dennis of Bogue, was in Wildwood Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Tinsley is grading Mr. J. H. Bell's tobacco.

Miss Phenie Watson had company last Sunday from Kinston, Miss Winkle Wiggins, Miss May Tillman and two young men.

Mr. E. L. Tolson and Mr. W. L. Oglesby went off with Capt. Owen Lewis last week for Southport, where they will spend the fall and winter fishing.

Our clambers are about to get into trouble about clamming on the shores of Bogue sound in front of some of the occupants of the adjoining lands. They claim a right to protect the shores on their front. Some of the boys got shot at one day, and next day several of the boys went back and they again came down and tried to drive them away. This place is known as Jump and Run, on the edge of Bogue sound.

We are having it very rainy now, and it is getting mighty wet again. W.

GUM BRANCH.

Exchanged Mules By Mistake. Cotton Crop Appearance. Knows About Pollockville. Bear Hunt.

Two Crimes.

August 31.—Last week one of our young men went to Kinston with tobacco, and while there some drunken fellow took his mule instead of his own and drove off home. When day came we suppose the man was sober, for he brought the mule back about eleven o'clock. If the law was such as to make the bar keepers responsible for the misdoings of those who drink their liquors we think there would not be so many crimes committed by drunken men, of course all crimes would be laid at the drunkard's door, but that wouldn't make it so.

Rev. M. Brothers of the Methodist faith filled his appointment here Sunday last, subject "Pan's Conversion."

Cotton is beginning to open but it is not of fluffy appearance, but has a hard lock, the bolls being quite small in some sections.

Mr. L. D. Boggs has purchased a new buggy.

Mr. Z. F. Taylor from Tuckahoe was here Saturday last.

Hog cholera is raging on Blue creek. Louis Pettway losing twenty. Several others have sick ones and have lost some.

Ye scribe just returned from Stone's Bay.

The Pollockville correspondent seems to think I know nothing of Pollockville and her people. I did not mean to cast any reflection on the place or people, but I want the correspondent to know that I lived there one year and I want to know how they got rid of the substitute and where he buys hay since he quit feeding masts "limothy."

There will be no very good fodder saved in this section owing to the rainy weather.

The "biggest" rain of the season, fell on Blue Creek yesterday, the branches were flooded, and it rains some every day.

J. F. King's sow was caught by a bear, right recently. They have been hunting him but we think the hunt was fruitless.

A young lady at Rockland was stung very badly one night not long since by a man trying to get into her room. She gave an alarm when the tempter ran. She does not know if he was white or black.

We hear that Mr. Duncan Parkers bride was broken into and a good state of many brides, some of us a hundred dollars. Mr. Parker lives on what is known as Half Moon.

POLLOCKVILLE FIRE.

Damage Not Great But of a Dangerous Nature.

Pollockville, N. C., September 2nd.—Fire was discovered this evening in the back room of Mr. H. A. Chadwick's store at this place. The origin of it is a mystery. It was discovered among the oil cans and dry chaffy goods such as paper bags, soap etc. The fire was making rapid progress when discovered but prompt action soon had the fire under control, loss several hundred dollars. Had the fire gotten the advantage the loss would have been great to this place, however all responded promptly when the alarm of fire is given, ready for action.

—Sid Darling, 1013 Howard St., Port Huron, Mich., writes: "I have tried many pills and laxatives but DeWitt's Little Early Risers are far the best pills I have ever used." They never gripe. F. S. Duffy.

ARAPAHOE.

Fodder Being Damaged. Prof. Holton Going to Chapel Hill. Mr. Ernal Sick. Church Completed.

September 2.—The local showers continue in our section and have been somewhat on the increase for the last few days in so much that our farms have become very wet and much fodder has been damaged.

Mr. Thomas Qredle and Mr. Lary of Lowland visited our town Friday. They came down to view the residence at Arapahoe of Mr. T. A. Land of New Bern who has a fine location in our little town. We did not learn how they liked the place.

Mr. Fred Davenport of Trent was in town Saturday in the horse trading business.

Prof. R. C. Holton of Olympia is giving us his last visit, accompanied by Miss Lona Holton and Little Mary his two sisters, before he goes to Chapel Hill College where he will start for next Friday. We shall miss Prof's visits very much not-withstanding we appreciate his love for knowledge.

Rev. D. H. Petree, the pastor of the Christian church at this place attended the quarterly meeting here Saturday and will continue the meeting on all this week. He is having large audiences and preaching instructive discourses, the outlook bids for a good meeting.

Mr. J. H. Ernal of our place who has been overseeing a timber business on Dawson's Creek for Mr. J. W. Rawls returned home Thursday sick. He is now prostrated upon his bed with malarial fever. Dr. Eaton of Bayboro attended him yesterday and pronounced him very sick.

The brethren of the Free Will Baptist Church will begin to seal their house of worship at this place Sunday morning. It will be a credit to them when completed. J. B. B.
