TRANSPORTATION PASSES AND FREE PASSES.

Several days ago it was noted in the newspaper dispatches, that a special committee of railway executives from the three railroad associations,the Trunk Line, the Central Traffic and the Western Passenger, had voted that free passes shall cease on and after January 1st 1902, on all lines represented by these associations, which would mean all important railroad lines in this country.

This action was interpreted by so ce newspapers to mean the extinction of the free pass system, which would work a wonderful change for many persons.

The fact is that this committee has no power to vote away the pass system. and it was appointed to look into the matter of recommending the abolishment of the issuing of "exchange pass bs."-that is passes issued by one railroad company to the officials of another for like favors, which is generally known as the exchange of "annuals."

This is very different from the doing away of "free" passes, although the free pass system of today is practically done away with, compared to what prevailed a few years ago.

The old joke of the newspaper man al ways riding "free," is not applicable today, especially in North Carolina, where the elitor can only get transportation in exchange for advertising, the railroads generally getting the best of the exchange.

If the recommendation of the commit tee, as noted above, should be carried into force, there would be a large decrease in the travel of so called "railroad magnates," who every year work to the limit the privilege which the exchange of "annuals" gives them.

It Happened in a Drug Store. "One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in Outs, Sores, Brulees and Piles. Sold by stock," says Mr. O. R. Grandin, the popular drugglet of Ontario, N. Y. She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Gough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the soney to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." Overworked Women.

Fatigue is the natural result of hard work, but exhaustion results from weakness.

Hard work for a weak woman is traffic in flesh and It makes little difference what the field of work is whether at home or elsewhere, if there is weakness, work brings exhaustion. Ability to stand the strain of hard work is the privilege of the healthy and robust. How our hearts ache for the sickly women that work for daily bread at some ill-paid factory employment!

How distressing also to see a woman struggling with her daily round of household duties, when her back and head are aching, and every new movement brings out a new pain!

If the mere looking on at these suffering wemen touches our hearts, how hopeless must life be to the women themselves t

Evidence of Mrs. Pinkham's Cures.

DRAS Mrs. PIERHAM:—One year ago I read a letter in a paper telling how much good one woman had derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had been sick all winter and was nearly discouraged, as the medicine the doctor gave me did me no good. I had kidney complaint, leucorrhea, liching, bearing-down feeling, and painful menatruation. I wrote to you describing my trouble and soon received an answer telling.

ing my trouble and soon received an answer telling me what to do. I followed your instructions, and have taken nine bottles of Vegetable Compound and used one package of Sanative Wash and one box of Liver Fills. I am well now, do not have those sick spells at the monthly period, but can week all day, and that I never could do until I began taking the Compound. I cannot praise the Compound too highly. I do hope every suffering woman will learn of your remedies and be curred as I have been. I wish all success to the Compound; it has done wonders for me and I am so thankful."—MPS, GENIE KELLOGG, Berlie Lights Ohlo.

"DEAR MSS. PINKHAM:—For eight years I have suffered with inflammation of the womb and bladder, profuse and painful menstruction, and at times it seemed as though I should die. I doctored most of the time, but seemed to full every year. A short time ago I began to take Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, thanks to your wonderful medicine, I am to-day a well woman. Your medicine is woman's best friend."—MRS. L. L. TOWNE, Littleton, N. H.

"DEAN MRS. PHEHAM:—I suffered for aix years, sometimes being mable to get about at all. It seemed to me as though I could not live, and I did not ears to. I had womb trouble, kidney trouble, leuceurhose, backsabe, was nervous, and had no ambition. Was obliged to give up my trade. I tried three doctors, but they did me no good, so I though I would try Lydis E. Piukham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and I felt better after the first bottle, and by the time I had taken six I was able to resume my work again. I shall always praise your Vegetable Compound."—MRS. MARY A. RUSSELL, Chineoteague Island, Va.

"Dank Him. Furnime:—I was also for seven years without any relief, sithough treated by two of the very best dectors in this city. A faw years ago I was nothing but a living sheleton. The dector said my heart was the cause of all my sickness and that I could only be relieved, but never get well. Sometimes I would get so exhausted and short of breath that I would not kness subsit to do. My nerves ware vary weak, blood impure. Was troubled with hands sun feet swelting; sho had lencorphes. I have taken six bottles of Lydis E. Plankmark Vagetship Compound and feel well oncomer. I have gained twenty seven peunds and an abin to work all day to the store and do not feel livest when I get home at night Words cannot appress my gratifieds to fire.
