Josiah Turner, Dead.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Oct. 26.—Josiah Turner died at his home in Hillsboro, today, aged about 70 years.
His first public service was in the Lower House of the Legislature in 1861, as a Whig. He bought the Raleigh Sentinel in 1888, and became a great political power. He was Public Printer several years; was captain in the Confederate army, and served in the Confederate Congress. Was elected again in 1885 to the Lower House of the Legislature, but was expelled for his attack upon it, refusing to retract or apologize for his remarks.

TO CLEANSE THE SYSTEM

Effectually yet gently when constive or bilious, to permanently overcome habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds, fevers, use Syrup of Figs, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Parleying With Brigands.

Constantinople, Oct. 25.—Communication has been established from Melnik in the Province of Salonica, with the brigands who abducted Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and her companion Madeline Talika. At the United States Embassy here there was a long conference today on the phases of the case, based on dispatches received from Melnik.

Sofia, Oct. 25.—It is semi-officially stated here that no indication has yet been found of Miss Stone's kidnappers having been in Bulgaria.

The Bulgarian Government is determined to annihilate the band should it cross the frontier and will deal with the utmost severity with any Bulgarians whose complicity in the kidnapping shall be proved. Great resentment is felt here at the exploitation, to the discredit of Bulgaria, of a crime committed in another state.

W. T. Wesson, Ghosonville, Va.; drug gist, writes: "Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." F. S. Duffy.

It is an established fact that Cough is simply an effort of nature to get rid of some irritation, Carolina Cough Cure will directly effect this, by repairing the damage done to the tissues of the air passages in the lungs. You can't make any mistake in trying it, it is harmless and equally good for old and young. No cure, no pay. 25c. at Bradham's.

RALEIGH.

Fair Grounds Stripped and Fakirs Leave. Attorney General Gilmer Sick. To Hear Appeals Tenth District. Cranberry Mine Section.

RALEIGH, October 26.—The inquest was continued today in the case of Joe Russ, the 13 year old negro who was burned to death yesterday morning at 4 o'clock on the "Midway" at the State Fair grounds. Not a few people believed there had been foul play. Russ was only sleeping in the booth that night, to watch. It is said the owner of the booth had made more money than any other on the "Midway." The scene during the fire was exciting in the extreme. The wind was quite high, booths on each side were burned, tents were on fire, and the hundreds of fakirs were wild with excitement and fear. Yet as soon as the danger was over a lot of them began stealing, from some of the booths on fire. The body of Russ lay in the ashes of the booth until yesterday afternoon, when the coroner arrived and began the inquest.

The fair grounds were stripped today. Many of the fakirs went to Winston. All are heading for Charleston.

The Cullowhee high school, in the extreme west, which is aided by the State under a special act, as a normal school, had a fine exhibit at the State Fair and won 9 out of 11 prizes it competed for.

The Supreme Court will devote next week to the hearing of appeals from the 10th district.

Governor Aycock will formally open the fair at Weldon next Thursday.

The "marshals" ball, given by the marshals at the fair, was held last evening at the Capitol Club. Gen. W. P. Roberts, chief marshal, led with Mrs. T. J. Jarvis. The chief marshal gave his oath to Miss Hollowell of Elizabeth City.

Attorney General Gilmer is sick here, with malarial fever.

Gen. R. F. Hoke has returned here from the Cranberry Iron mine in Mitchell county, in which he is largely interested. No ore is now being mined, but great preparations are being made for resuming that work. He is very anxious to see the railway completed across the Blue Ridge, giving an outlet this way, as now the Cranberry section is literally cut off from the other parts of the State, its relations being almost entirely with Tennessee and a little with Virginia.

Appreciate A. & N. C. Favors.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the New Bern District Conference A. M. E. Zion assembled at Morehead City, N. C.

Whereas, The A. & N. C. R. C. Co., so kindly gave the delegation to the Conference reduced rates, over its road, to and from the Conference; and Whereas, on Monday night, on leaving New Bern, a delegation of our people having a meeting at James City, the R. C. Co. made a stop there, which is unusual, but much to the accommodation of that body, that a vote of thanks be tendered the Company for the same.

We the colored people along the line do commend and highly appreciate all favors shown us, especially by the present administration of which Mr. J. A. Bryan is President, and of which Mr. S. L. Dill is Superintendent. We do not think that better officers could be selected.

Great Demand For N. C. Booklet.

The demand for the North Carolina Booklet has been so great that the editions of numbers 3, 4 and 5 containing The Stamp Act, Betsey Dowdy's Ride and the Edenton Tea Party, have been exhausted. Should there be a sufficient demand to justify the expense the Editors of the Booklet, will have a reprint made of these numbers. All schools Rural Libraries and individuals who may still desire to avail themselves of this valuable historical publication, are requested to send their names with the subscription price $1.00 by the 15th of November, that the Editors may know how large a number to have printed. Arrangements have been made by which the unbound Booklets may be returned to the Editors, and for an advance of fifty cents bound in an appropriate library binding. State papers please copy. Address, The N. C. Booklet Co., box 125, Raleigh, N. C.

At Bingham School.

One of the most instructive lectures heard in a long time was delivered on the 12th inst. before the school by Dr. Henry P. Linscott, Professor of Latin at the University. His subject was, "The Private Life of the Romans," and it was treated in a masterly manner.

Next Saturday the Sopomore class football team of the University will have a game with Bingham on the school grounds. Several other games will be arranged shortly.

The Y. M. C. A. has recently enjoyed a visit from Mr. E. G. Wilson, Assistant State Secretary. Mr. Wilson's visits are always enjoyed and do much good. On the 6th inst. the Association was led by student Simpson, who took for his subject, "Swearing." On the 14th Mr. Gray led the meeting, taking for his subject, "Some Stories About China."

The enrollment is now larger than at any time last year and students are continuing to come in. In addition to the old faculty composed of Professors Gray, Johnston, Clay, Mangum and Kittrell, two new teachers are at work, Mr. Edwin Clark, Jr., as Instructor in Telegraphy and Mr. W. P. LeGrand as Instructor in Mathematics and Science.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all impurities from the liver and bowels. Small an easy to take. Never gripe or distress. F. S. Duffy.
