THE JUDICIARY SHOULD COMMAND RESPECT.

Already everything promises that next year will be a notable one in North Carolina politics.

The elimination of the negro as a political factor is going to make an independent white vote which is not going to follow any political machine, nor be bound to any political ticket, whose candidates are named by a political circle, because of "machine fitness".

The special indication of this promise of political uneasiness, is to be found in the columns of the State press.

The "whipping in process" by the "machine organ" is not proving successful, because the press generally believes itself capable of thinking and acting, without the supervision of a guardian newspaper, which is to set its "copy", as it is given insertion in every issue in best position, with payments in "kind words" from those eminent politicians, nominated and elected through "machine methods."

But of those to be nominated and elected in North Carolina next year, the judiciary should in the greatest possible degree be spared, and not be made to pass into and through the political wrangle, which is going to engage every candidate.

There should be a sense of feeling that a man worthy of being named for a judgeship should be above the politician. His personal reputation and individual character ought to raise him above any strict partisanship, so that the fact of being a "party man," in the modern political adaptation of the phrase, should not be the first and only test of the man to be named for the judgeship.

There are many men, capable, worthy as citizens, eminent in the study of law, of high social character, who could fill judgeships. And yet because of not being "politicians," these men will not be mentioned or thought of.

And it is because of this claim, that of being "politicians," the judiciary ticket is likely to have to meet the same political fling that will greet every nominee, from some side or through some newspaper, whose name will be on the different tickets.

It would be a wholesome and healthy campaign, if there could be men named for judgeships whose chief qualification was not that of being a "good politician."

It would inspire greater respect for

MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN

Wife of President Jakeman of Elders of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Women's Periodic Pains.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Before I knew of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I dreaded the approach of the time for my menstrual period, as it would mean a couple of MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN. My husband had with intense pain and suffering. I was under the physician's care for over a year without any relief, when my attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by several of our Mormon brethren who had been cured through its use. I began its systematic use and improved gradually in health, and after the use of six bottles my health was completely restored, and for over two years I have had neither pain or pain. You have a truly wonderful remedy for women. Very sincerely yours, Mrs. Hulda Jakeman, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The law, if those passing upon it were a little higher than the politicians, and in fact were not designated as being able "political campaigners."

But however it must be it is to be hoped that at least the judiciary part of next year's campaign tickets will be able to command respect before and after its election. Respect is due it and it remains with those who must name the candidates and the candidates themselves, to command all that is due.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps of Potosi, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Norwegian Hotel Fire Escapes.

Nor do Norwegian hotels themselves console you. Built of wood, their chief merit lies in the fire escape, which is to be found in the chief room upon every landing. At Vlanoe I spent a happy night answering the questions of nervous travelers who came from hour to hour to see if the fire escape in my room was working properly. Angry assurances were powerless to convince timid or ancient ladies. Did I really think the rope would work? Was there any danger? Had I tried the contrivance myself? Excellent souls! As if the printed notice were not enough!

Two Circus Feats. A great deal of unnecessary sympathy is wanted upon the circus man who stands up proudly in spangled tights and lets another circus man bring down a sledge hammer upon a rock placed upon his head with force enough to break it, says an old circus man. "This is spectacular, but is entirely painless and calls for no great strength or endurance. Upon the eruption of the strong man is put an iron contrivance weighing about 150 pounds and provided with cushions both above and where it rests upon the head. A pretty good sized rock is used, and the hammer is a heavy one, so you can see that the blow that cracks the rock is really a serious one. But most of the force is taken up by the rock and the rest by the iron and cushions, while the only sensation felt by the subject is a gentle tap."

How Our Ancestors Quarreled. A study of medieval rural life is apt to give the impression that the principal part of the life of the people was spent in quarreling or in the commission or prosecution of offenses. Our ancestors certainly were a very litigious and a very disorderly people. The records teem with instances of men and women drawing knives against one another, of breaking into houses, of prosecuting one another for slander. Then we have such entries as these: "It is ordained by common consent that all the women of the village must refrain their tongues from all slandering."

Such entries, frequently occurring, in addition to the innumerable instances of individual attack, slander, petty theft and other immorality seem to show a community of far from perfect virtue.—Lippincott's.

Some people expect fortune to break in the door and announce her arrival through a megaphone.—Nashville Banner.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons all system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. F. S. Duffy.

Very Clever, Indeed.

Patience—She is very clever with the pencil. Patience—Yes, her eyebrows are all right.—Yonkers Statesman.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as an adult. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

The Russian Climate.

The Russians count upon their climate as one means of defense, as it was when Napoleon invaded Russia. Their troops are accordingly trained in winter maneuvers, including loading a battery, with its war transport and material complete, upon sleighs, moving it for some distance over a difficult snow covered country and bringing it into action again.
