Notice Given by State Treasurer to Twelve Delinquent Sheriffs.

Tramps put to Work—Mexican War Veteran in Good Condition. Licenses Required. Foot Ball Saturday. Trinity College Case.

Raleigh, Nov. 13.—State Treasurer Lacy gives official notice that on the 16th of this month he will place in the collector's hands, in the Superior Court here, suits against the twelve sheriffs who have failed to complete their settlements of last year's State taxes. The suits will be pressed. One sheriff was given until Nov. 15 to settle. He has not paid anything because it has since 1865 been the custom to give his county until Nov. 14 to settle. He is warned that in future he must pay promptly.

The nine tramps who were caught in a box car of the Seaboard Air Line at Novina, locked in and brought here, were today put at work on the roads to serve 90 days. They had broken into the car, in which there were goods.

A veteran of the Mexican War named Wallace, 91 years of age, walked here today from his home 31 miles away, to get his pension and attend to some other business.

The Farina flouring mill here was today bought by Wallace De Rudean of New York, who will enlarge and operate.

J. Edward Cox of High Point is here. He controls the trade of making shuttle blocks and tells our correspondent he manufactures 90 per cent of all used in the world. He has timber factories in this State and 3 in Tennessee.

The insurance commissioner gives notice that all investment, bonding, debenture and "diamond" companies must be regular licensed as insurance companies are, to do business in this State.

The University foot ball eleven will meet for the second time this season, the team of the A. and M. College in this city next Saturday. This will be the University's last game before playing the University of Virginia, the following Saturday for the championship of the South.

The marriage of Miss Eliza Bellamy and Mr. J. Walter Williamson was solemnized Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at St. James' Episcopal Church, Wilmington where a large concourse of relatives and friends had assembled.

The following has been issued regarding the case of varioloid, or mild small-pox at Trinity College:

"Mr. H. O. Lawton, a student at Trinity College, has been found to have a case of varioloid, and has been moved to the house of detention. Every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The case was detected in time, and I do not apprehend any danger of the disease spreading. It is not known where the disease was contracted. Mr. Lawton is from South Carolina. There are no cases in the county so far as I know."

"N. M. JOHNSTON, County Health Officer."

"W. H. PROGRAM, Chairman of Faculty."

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes "Our little girl was attacked with croup last one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup. F. S. DUFFY, Nashville, Tenn."

More Convicts Recaptured.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—Three more of the fugitive convicts from Fort Leavenworth prison were captured at Basco, near Cottonwood Falls, Kansas, late today by penitentiary guards, after a fight in which one of the convicts was shot. The captured men are Gilbert Mullen, white, Fred Robinson, mulatto, and Sol Southernland, Indian. Southernland was wounded today, but not seriously. He was also shot while making his escape from the prison last week. None of the guards were injured today. Only nine of the escaping convicts are yet to be taken, and the whole country is on the lookout.

DIAMOND SHOALS LIGHTSHIP.

New Plan for Large Search Lights on the Vessel.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 12.—Diamond Shoals lightship, stationed off Cape Hatteras, has been ordered to Baltimore, where the stationary masthead lights will be removed and two large search lights will be so arranged on her decks as to throw their rays directly upwards toward the heavens. The masthead lights are only visible a distance of thirteen miles and the Light House Board expects that the search light rays will be seen for a distance of thirty-five or forty miles. The rocking of the ship will give the rays a wig-wag motion that is calculated to attract the attention of mariners trespassing near the dangerous shoals.

TO CLEANSE THE SYSTEM

Effectually yet gently when constive or bilious, to permanently overcome habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds, fevers, eye Syrup of Figs, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Ratifies New Constitution.

Birmingham, Ala., 12.—The new Constitution has been ratified by a large majority. It will probably reach 30,000 and will not fall below 25,000. The anti-ratificationists charge fraud in a number of counties, notably Jefferson, Dallas and Pickens. This county gave 2,500 majority for the new Constitution. General Shelly, chairman of the anti-ratificationists, claims that he has won the fight, but rather indicates that he does not expect it so recorded. He states, however, that he will push the fight to the bitter end. All things told, the new Constitution has been adopted and will be the law of Alabama.

Operatives Coming South.

NASHUA, N. H., Nov. 13.—It is estimated that more than 800 of the employees of the cotton mills of this city are about to leave town to be employed in mills in the South. This is the result, it is claimed, of the short hour system that has recently been adopted by the Nashua Manufacturing Company and the Jackson Company, which, it is claimed, is equivalent to a reduction in wages of 17 per cent.

Representatives of Southern cotton mills, noting the condition, came to this city offering inducements to the mill hands to go South.

Drive Mormons Out.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 13.—A committee of leading citizens of Bligden's Ferry last Friday visited two Mormon elders, who have been preaching there about, and warned them to leave within a limited time. Four of their converts were told that the community would hold them personally responsible for the presence of the elders there in the future and that summary proceedings would be taken if these notices were disregarded. Citizens of adjoining townships make common cause with the anti-Mormon agitators, and promise in the county papers to assist in measures necessary to expel the elders, or worse.

Schley Court of Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The Schley court of inquiry resumed its work at 10 o'clock today and adjourned shortly after 12:30. It was stated most positively after the session that not the slightest inkling of the court's verdict would be obtainable before it is rendered formally and that no statement whatever, not even regarding the progress of the work, would be given to the public.

It is the purpose of the court to have Secretary Long's announcement of the finding news in the strictest sense of the word.

A Last Joke.

John D. Long, in the Massachusetts campaign of 1878, was making his first run for governor against General Ben Butler, who had captured the Democratic nomination, and Judge Josiah G. Abbott, who was the candidate of the old line Democrats.

The late Judge Thompson was making a speech for Abbott before a big Democratic audience and, after praising the candidate as a jurist and a statesman, asked sarcastically, "And now, who is this John L. Long?" No one answering, he proceeded: "They say he has made a translation of Homer's 'Iliad'! What a good job is that to us? All Democrats read Homer in the original!"

Where She Differed From Paul.

A Scotch clergyman called upon a parishioner not long since, an old woman who was not blessed with many virtues, but who possessed a very varied assortment of vices. He took the latter as a text for a sermon and spoke to her at considerable length upon the subject, concluding with some extracts from one of St. Paul's epistles which he felt to be apropos.

She didn't speak for several minutes after he had finished, and he thought that he had made an impression upon her at last. He was mistaken, however, for she suddenly turned round with the remark: "Humph! That's just where Paul and I have differed these ten years."

Her Prayer.

The Buffalo News tells a story of a four-year-old girl who was spending a night away from home. At bedtime she knelt at her mother's knee to say her prayers, expecting the usual prompting. Finding Mrs. B. unable to help her out, she concluded thus: "Please, God, please me; I can't remember my prayers, and I'm staying with a lady that don't know any."

Pushing the Perambulator.

Mrs. Haskins—I saw your husband today in a bicycle suit. I didn't think you'd let him ride.

Mr. Strongmind—My dear, that was not a bicycle suit, although it might properly be called a "wheeling suit." You see, I want him to be appropriately garbed when he takes baby for an airing.—Philadelphia Press.

After the Ball.

She—How nice to be at home again! What a crowd there was! I don't suppose Mr. Banker knew one-half of his guests.

He—Didn't he, though? Why, he had four detectives in evening clothes there.—Life.

His Unlucky Day.

Hartuppe—Wigwag is rather superstitious, isn't he?

Horrors!—Well, he refused to be commended me with a loan this morning because it was Friday.—Philadelphia Record.

Willing Worker.

Lady—Why don't you quit begging and become one of the working people? Tramp—Well, mum, if I ain't working, people, don't I dunno who is.—Chicago News.
