RALEIGH, December 10.—General passenger agent Bunch of the Seaboard Air-Line was here today to see the corporation commission regarding the "Jim Crow Car" law. He was informed that it does not apply to through trains such as the "limited" ones on the Seaboard Air-Line.
There is much satisfaction here at the news that the force of shop workmen in the S. A. L. repair shops at this point will be increased. In the old days there used to be 200 employes here, but lately there have been only about half a dozen.
Today the legislative joint committee appointed to inspect the offices of the State treasurer and Auditor began that work. The committee is composed of Senators E. Y. Webb and Allen K. Smith and representatives Harry W. Stubbs, A. D. Wata and J. O. Masten. It will probably require a week to complete the work of examining the books and vouchers.
Among today's arrivals were E. F. Aydt, of Elizabeth City; J. Frank Ray, Franklin; James H. Merrimon, Asheville.
Gen. Teon was reported this morning as weaker than at any time during his sickness. His fever was high last night but abated this morning. He was not suffering any pain. There is yet hope for recovery.
The new dining hall and music hall at the institution for the white blind here was completed yesterday and is now occupied. The dining hall seats over 500.
The cases against the counterfeiters in the federal court here are so direct and strong that there is really nothing for them to do but submit. So far five have submitted.
D. H. Hill chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, the new children's chapter here, will give a Christmas tree to the 88 inmates of the Soldiers Home.
The grand lodge of negro Masons met at Kingston today in annual communication. Rev. J. J. Worlds of Raleigh is the grand master.

CONGRESSMAN C. R. THOMAS.
Reappointed to Committee on Public Buildings. $175,000. Bill For New Revenue Cutter.
Special to Journal.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 10.—Congressman C. R. Thomas introduced in the House to day among other bills, one to construct a Revenue Cutter to navigate the waters of Neuse River and Pamlico and Albemarle sounds. The bill appropriates $175,000.
He will urge the passage of bills for life saving stations in Onslow and Carteret counties.
The Speaker to day re-appointed Mr. Thomas a member of the important committee on Public Buildings.

Trenton Items.
December 9.—Mr. Thos. C. Gaskill, of New Bern, is visiting friends in the city.
Messrs. F. P. Koonce and C. G. Henderson went to New Bern this morning.
Rev. D. C. Geddie and Prof. W. H. Rhodes are attending conference at Fayetteville.
Miss Mal Kellum, who has been visiting in Trenton went to Dover yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis, of New Bern spent part of last week with Mr. G. H. Weston.
Rev. A. F. Leighton preached an excellent sermon in the Christian church yesterday, also one last night.
Mr. B. E. Windley returned from Swansboro Saturday, where he had been spending a few days.
A mad dog passed through town this morning, but he was pursued and killed.
Mr. E. A. Rhodes fired the fatal shot.
The Epworth League will hold their meeting on the second Sunday in the afternoon on account of preaching that night. They will also dispense with the meeting on the third Sunday afternoon and night entirely, as the Bright Jewel Society meets that afternoon and Rev. D. C. Geddie preaches that night.
We are going to have a telephone, so why couldn't we have a railroad? Trenton is a fine opening for any thing like that. A person would never lose should he invest in such a good cause. We have talked until we have nearly gotten the telephone, so now let's keep up the talk until we get the railroad.
The writer, accompanied by Miss Birdie Taylor, went to Cove yesterday, and on our way I noticed that the telephone poles were put up within three miles of Trenton, and that the holes were dug within a mile and a half. I was glad to see it progressing so. Guess they will come to Trenton today. The manager was over here yesterday looking for a place to have the central office. I think the same store where the post office is would be a good place.

ARAPAHOE.
December 9.—Business about our little town is as lively as can be expected under the press of the times.
We were pleased to read in last issue of the JOURNAL the proceedings of the Vanceboro commissioners meeting in connection with the liquor question. We congratulate the ladies of Vanceboro and every other town in the old North State for their zealous work in putting down this abomination. Since Fannin county has rid herself of this evil society has been more elevated.
Mr. D. B. Hooker of Bayboro visited our town last Tuesday in company with Mr. Norman who was representing Gilbert Bros., Baltimore.
Mr. Whitehurst, the son of Mr. Moses Whitehurst of New Bern, visited our town last Wednesday on business.
Mr. G. O. Brinson who moved from our town a few years ago to Carteret county, has recently moved back near this place on the Point Road. Mr. Brinson seems to like his old home best.
Mr. Asa Gillikin of Carteret county, has also moved to our county on Neuse river, near the mouth of Bald's creek on the farm of Mr. E. S. Brinson.
Mr. B. T. Bennett who moved from our place near one year ago to New Bern, moved back to our county last Tuesday on the farm of Mr. J. O. Harrington, Bald's Creek, who is making preparations to move to Dunn, N. C.
We regret very much to see our friend J. O. B. leave our county, as he is not only a good citizen, but a noble worker in the Christian church at Arapahoe.
J. B. B.
