Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Christenson of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digesta your food. Cures all stomach troubles. F. B. Duffy.

5,057 Miles of Road.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Figures prepared by the Railway Age show that railroad building in the United States has been greater during 1901 than for any one year of the 11 years previous, the total approximating 5,057 miles of lines. In 1890 the total was 5,070, and in 1900 it was 4,487 miles.
The construction for the year, added to the total mileage previous, brings the total of the country to approximately 109,870 miles.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from colds of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For cough it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. F. S. Duffy.

ROOSEVELT'S IDEA UPHELD.

Payne Declares Federal Patronage Will Not be Used to Build up Administration Machine in Southern States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—With Henry C. Payne as Postmaster General there will be no turning back by the Administration in its policy toward the South. Mr. Payne has a prejudice against that branch of practical politics known as the control of Southern delegates to Republican national conventions. He has for years been opposed to the plan of using Federal patronage to build up an administration, the following of which could be used in the national convention as a solid body to take from the Republican constituencies the power to select the candidate who could command the greatest Republican support.

Mr. Payne has for some years sought to have the Republican National Committee recommend and the Republican national convention adopt a plan of representation that would destroy the old power of the Federal Administration to dictate to the convention and insure the re-nomination of a President without the majority support of his party, as shown in the representation from the States which must supply the votes to re-elect.

President Roosevelt also is opposed to the old Southern influence in national conventions. One of the first things the President did was to appoint a Southern Democrat to office, at the same time giving notice that he proposed to fill the Federal offices in the South with the best men he could find without regard to their political affiliations. He has broken up the combination of members of the National Committee in the South which for years has boasted that it controlled the Federal patronage.

This condition in the South has been demoralizing. It has enabled a few men in control to use the Federal offices to dictate the selection of delegates and give instructions as to how they should vote in national conventions. It has also enabled these men to dictate nominations for the Federal offices. The operation of the plan has been to unite too closely Federal patronage and the Federal Machine devoted to the perpetuation of itself.

President Roosevelt will not use the Southern delegations in the national convention to obtain a nomination. If the Republican States will not give it to him in 1904 he will not try to obtain it by the use of Southern delegates who cannot aid in the election of a Republican President. He will continue to appoint the best men to office without regard to recommendation of the Southern members of the National Committee.

Opera House Monday, Dec. 30th. A Breezy Time.

De Wet's Haul Important.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Boer resistance has already been very strong in that part of the Orange River Colony which was the scene of General De Wet's Christmas coup.

A great quadrangle of blockhouses is being built there, the four points of which are Vereeniging, Volksrust, Hartswater and Kroonstad. At the southeast corner of this quadrangle is a long open space from Bethlehem to Lindley, where the square of blockhouses is still incomplete, and there De Wet made his attack. Colonel Firman's force probably amounted to 400 men, and the disaster, especially the loss of the guns, the possession of which may enable De Wet successfully to attack the blockhouses, creates a disturbing impression.

RALEIGH.

Heavy Payments for Pension Warrants.

Confederate Veteran Dead. Tax on Photographers. Annual Session North Carolina Association of Academies. More Jail Room.

RALEIGH, Dec. 27.—At the Soldiers' Home here last night W. A. Walker, of Rockingham county, died. He returned to the home last Friday, sick. He was 78 years old. Paralysis caused death. Dr. Dixon, of the board of directors, says that since he took charge last January no less than 15 inmates of the home have died; all of old age.

The pension warrants are pouring in to the State Treasury. Yesterday over $30,000 was paid out for them and today nearly $15,000.

William M. Brown, the oldest printer here, and one of the founders of the Evening Visitor in 1875, is at death's door, having yesterday suffered a third stroke of paralysis. His age is 70.

Governor Aycock will leave here Monday for Morganton to see the hospital for the insane and deaf-mute school there. He will be there two or three days.

Acting Attorney General Shepherd to day gave State Treasurer Lacy a ruling in regard to photographers' tax. He decides that where a photographer who has paid tax in one county goes to another to take photographs he must pay tax in the latter. Photographers from other States who come to this State to do work for sale must also pay tax.

Two rooms in the jail here, heretofore occupied by the jailer, are being fitted up with steel cells for women, so as to separate the latter entirely from the male wards.
The annual session of the North Carolina Association of Academies began this morning in the Senate chamber, Prof. S. L. Sheep of Elizabeth City presiding; John Graham of Warrenton vice-president; Robert L. Madison of Palmetto secretary. The opening prayer was by Rev. Dr. Marshall, rector of Christ church, and the address of welcome by Prof. W. A. Withers of the Agricultural and Mechanical college. During the day Gov. Aycock made an address. Special talks were made by Prof. Noble of the State University on "The work of the Academy in North Carolina," by principal Henderson of the Croatan Normal school on "Indian Education," and by Principal Campbell of Brice's Creek Academy on "Moral Training in the Academy."
