MUCH MONEY.

Where Are the Funds for State Expenditure to Come From.

Half a Million Dollars Will Be Needed for 1902. New Textile School Machinery. The Ailing Officials.

RALIGH, Dec. 30.—Today chief clerk Moody, of the State treasury, made up a summary of expenditures for 1900, and those which under the acts of 1901 will have to be made in 1902. The result is startling to the officials, and they want to know whence the money will come to meet the great increase. Here are the figures as prepared, showing the appropriations for various purposes in 1900 and those for 1902:

	1900	1902
Deaf Mute School	$ 40,000	43,500
Blind Institution	67,500	65,000
University	28,000	27,500
Normal and Industrial College	25,000	40,000
Agricultural & Mechanical College	10,000	30,200
Agricultural & Mechanical College (colored)	5,000	10,000
Morganton Hospital for Insane	100,000	196,000
Raleigh Hospital for Insane	55,000	77,750
Goldboro Hospital for Insane	45,000	75,000
Soldiers Home	10,000	13,000
Dangerous Insane and negro Normal schools	15,900	19,600
Totals	$ 398,440	$ 584,650

Net increase of 1902 over 1900 $ 186,210
Balance unpaid for 1901 100,000

To be paid in 1902 $ 286,650

Increase in pensions 100,000
Increase in public schools 100,000
Increase in judiciary 10,000
Increase in sundries 35,000

Total increase to be met $281,000. The act increase in revenue over 1900 will not be over $70,000, the officials say. There is therefore a great problem before them. Here is nearly half a million dollars to be met. How shall it be met? The legislature evidently thought the new revenue act would yield a vast increase. The treasury officials say it does not materialize.

Dr. George A. Renn, assistant surgeon U. S. A., arrived yesterday from the Philippines, where he has been two years. He made the trip around the world.

The machinery is being installed in the newly completed textile school building at the agricultural college here. Its value is estimated at $25,000 and it is a gift to the college. The cost of the building is $25,000.

Attorney General Gilmer is now able to sit up a little daily and yesterday took several steps. State Superintendent Toon's heart yesterday suddenly showed signs of weakness, and today its action was not good.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. F. S. Duffy.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near America, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

He Played For the King.

John Phillip Sousa and his band have been winning laurels in Europe. Their most noteworthy success recently was made at Sandringham, where they played before King Edward and the royal family. The Victoria medal was presented by King Edward to the bandmaster, the Prince of Wales personally affixing the decoration to Sousa's breast. In talking of the event to a London correspondent Sousa said: "We first played 'God Save the King,' and then his majesty sent word he wanted 'The Star Spangled Banner,' during the playing of which they all, including King Edward, stood up. The Tecsa-Davis collection of American hymn tunes and the 'Washington Post March' also were played. The king specially requested us to play 'Hands Across the Sea' and then sent word that he wanted 'El Capitan.' He next requested 'King Cotton' and the 'Cotton Band.' At the end the king again sent word to play 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and again all present stood up."

Ex-Speaker Heed on Sympathy.

Not one of the theater crowd knew Thomas Brackett Reed. The plays were over and the car crowded. The big man was seated thinking, perhaps, of the days when he was known as the car and the entertainment gave much of their talent and time in caricaturing his ample curves and round face. Perhaps the ex-statesman wondered that there was not one friendly nod or respectful bow for him among those typical, well-dressed and happy New Yorkers. The conductor knew the man from Maine and intended to stop the car near 100 Central Park South, for Mr. Reed does not like to be carried beyond his destination.

But with the many duties of his crowded car the conductor missed the chance to be courteous. The car had passed the corner when the conductor noticed the big man reaching to ring to the motorman. He hurried to the ex-speaker and expressed his sorrow at not stopping at the right place.

"Don't you sympathize with me, sir," said Mr. Reed, with the twinkle in his eye which used to mean danger to presumptive congressmen. "You must not sympathize with any one. It is out of style, and the only place you can find sympathy now is in the dictionary."—New York Times.

Will Protect Germany's Interests.

In view of the discussions among the attitude of Germany toward the United States because of the invasion of her markets by the products of this country the utterances of Imperial Chancellor Count von Bulow in the early hours of the present session of the Reichstag are significant. He said that he wished that there should be no mistake regarding the government's attitude toward the commercial treaties. The government considered the removal of the treaties of long duration to be most desirable, but Germany purposed arranging them on a basis satisfactory to herself. The interests of other nations would be met in a spirit of reciprocity and fair dealing, but Germany was in a position to give effect to her wishes with the same emphasis as other countries. She need show no more diffidence than they. As for the utterances of the foreign press the government would not be driven a hair's breadth from the path marked out nor suffer dictation touching German rights and interests.
