A STATE LEAGUE.

Eight Baseball Clubs Desired to be Formed.
Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Jan. 18.—Ed Aschenback left for Charlotte to night in the interest of State Baseball League. He will visit a dozen other places, including Wilmington and New Bern. What is desired is that a State league of eight clubs be formed.

A Profitable Investment.
"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demio, Bemerville, Ind., "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. F. S. Duffy.

The precise words of "Coming events cast their shadows before" occurred to Campbell in a dream. He awoke and found himself repeating them aloud and afterward used them in "Lochiel's Warning," a minor poem of much merit.

PRESSURE BROUGHT.

Effort to Induce the Governor to Issue Pardons.

Doubtful If He Will Act. A Baseball Meeting. The Foot Boner. Public Buildings Close Monday.

RALEIGH, Jan. 18.—C. M. Conboy, of Chicago, is here to see the Governor, and is urging the latter to pardon "Daly" one of the three gold brick swindlers now in the penitentiary here. The claim is set up that Daly, who played the part of "Indian" in the swindle, has not been tried before and that this is his first offense. The odds are, of course, that the Governor will do no such thing as pardon this swindler. There is no requisition for him from other States, while there are requisitions for Hawley and Howard, his associates in crime.

Locke Craig and Mr. Moore of Asheville are here to see the Governor and are urging him to commute the sentence of J. A. Gorham, who was an attorney of the Southern railway and who was convicted of tampering with a juror in a noted damage suit at Statesville and sentenced to 30 days in jail and to pay a fine. Gorham is also here. The effort being made is to have the jail sentence stricken out.

The Supreme court sustained the lower court and said Gorham must serve his term, but he has never been in jail. It is now settled that Raleigh will have a professional baseball team this year. This was done at an enthusiastic meeting last night.

Thomas J. Pence, who since Fred L. Merritt left the News and Observer to go on the Norfolk Virginian and Pilot has been the city editor of the News and Observer, goes to Washington to become the regular correspondent there of the Raleigh Morning Post and other papers. Edward E. Briston succeeds him on the News and Observer, and Mr. Rotter, a native of Petersburg, becomes a member of the staff of that paper. Mr. Pence began newspaper work in 1894 on the Raleigh Times and then became city editor of the Morning Post, which place he held until he went on the News and Observer.

John A. Boner, the wellknown North Carolina poet, after a stay here of 8 months for his health, returned to Washington. He has consumption. His wife is also an invalid. He has a position in the government printing office. Johnston Pettigrew Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of this city, this afternoon held special exercises in commemoration of Lee's Birthday. Officially this will be recognized Monday by the closing of the public buildings. The State Board of Education met today as did the council of State. The latter went over the whole subject of the State's financial status, figures being provided by the State treasurer. The figures were given in this correspondence two or three weeks ago.

TO CLEANSE THE SYSTEM

LOST.

My sight by pride, neglect and cheap glasses. Neglected when I was young to have my eyes examined when they were so troublesome and painful, put it off because I was ashamed people would think I was growing old. Bought a pair and could see splendidly bought them from cheap Billy the dry goods man, for 60 cents, and they have ruined my eyes.

You will find in my optical department, one of the most complete sets of instruments to be found anywhere, also every pair of glasses I fit are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, and as cheap as the class of work done will permit.

ADMIRE THE MUSEUM.

National Curator on a Visit. Counties That Have Schools.

Special to Journal.
RALEIGH, Jan. 18.—Dr. F. W. True, curator of the National Museum at Washington spent today here, especially to see the State Museum. He expressed great gratification at its plan and scope. It is most practical of all the State museums.

State Superintendent of public instruction has reports from Warren and Granville counties that they do not need a cent of appropriation to bring the terms of their public schools up to 4 months as they are now almost 5 months.

Children Especially Liable.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because so careless. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up." writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day." F. S. Duffy.
