RALEIGH.

Vampire Father's. Several More Pardons Death From Pneumonia. State Charities.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 18.—The temperature took a sharp fall last night and the indications are that the great snow will remain a considerable time. Very few side walks are cleared and those are merely narrow paths. There is, strange to say, no municipal regulation in regard to clearing sidewalks, and the city does nothing towards clearing them.

The State authorizes the Raleigh Ho-stery Company to issue preferred stock to the amount of $10,000.

The news that there is being formed an association to drive out the "vampire" fathers, who make their little children work in the cotton mills while they themselves live in utter idleness, is very gratifying. There are plenty of such "vampires" here and indeed at most places where there are mills. In one county the association has begun driving the "vampires" from its limits.

Governor Aycock pardons Ed Hill, colored, of Tyrrell county, who killed his wife and was sentenced to five years for manslaughter, of which he had served two. The pardon was recommended by the solicitor and many citizens. The jury was very doubtful about convicting him. There was evidence that the killing was accidental and not malicious.

A pardon is also granted James Marine, white, of New Hanover, who was convicted of larceny and given two years sentence. The judge, jurors and many citizens recommended the pardon. The young man has always borne a good character.

Another pardon was granted to Walter H. James, white, of Edgecombe who was sentenced to 18 months on the roads for stealing the use of a horse. The judge and many leading citizens recommended the pardon.

Jasper Fleming, the oldest student at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, died yesterday of pneumonia. He was 69 years old and was from Milton. He was a graduate of Randolph Macon college and was a classmate of Hon. T. J. Jarvis. He was taking the dairy course at the college.

The State charters the Washington Light and Water Company, capital $300,000.

Danish West Indies Now Ours.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Today in little more than three hours' time the Senate disposed of the treaty with Denmark ceding to the United States for a consideration of $5,000,000 the islands of St. Thomas, St. John and St. Cruz, comprising the group of the Antilles known as the Danish West Indies, and lying just east of Porto Rico and thus, so far as this country is concerned, constituted a transition which has been under consideration since the administration of President Lincoln.

OLD WAYNE MUTUAL LIFE.

Citizens Warned Against This Company, Observes no Laws.

RALEIGH, February 18.—It will be remembered that Insurance Commissioner Young some time since published the above company as a fraud and warned the citizens of the State against it. He had arrested and put on the roads of Wake county for two years, the man C. R. Hassell for representing this company. Commissioner Young is continually receiving letters from citizens of the state about this company and wishes to publish the statement below that he has just received from Hon. W. H. Hart, Insurance Commissioner of Indiana. Mr. Hart says:

"The Old Wayne Mutual Life is organized under one of the very loosest assessment laws that could be conceived. This objectionable law has been superceded by one more stringent in its provisions, so that it is no longer operative in this State, for the organization of new companies. I do not believe that this company complies with any insurance law in this world, or the next, and some time ago, asked the Attorney General to commence a suit to determine the matter in the courts, with a view of having it wound up, but so far, this suit has not been commenced. The company generally pays from ten to fifteen per cent on the face of its policies, when it pays at all. It is a disgrace to Indiana that such companies should be permitted under the color of law to do an alleged business, and I trust ere long, that the courts will have the opportunity of deciding as to whether its methods can have their endorsement under the statute."

This company never complies with the laws of any state but relies upon doing an "underground" business.

Clerk's Wise Suggestion.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily." You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. F. S. Duffy.

Navigation at Baltimore Closed.

Baltimore, Feb. 17.—The ice packing the upper part of Chesapeake Bay and the lower part of the Patuxent river has practically put a stop to navigation at this point. None of the boats of the regular lines plying between this city and points on the Chesapeake left the docks here today.

Geo. D. Bennett Dead.

Goldboro, Feb. 17.—George D. Bennett, of Goldboro, who has been ill in St. Louis of pneumonia, died at the latter place early Monday. His interment will likely take place at Charlotte, N. C., beside the grave of his wife. Mr. Bennett was widely and popularly known.

Country Inn in England.

A noted traveler says he has sampled a large number of hotels in his time—even in Greece—but for bare-faced dishonesty in the making of bills the bluff British landlord takes first place. "After charging twice what his food and rooms are worth he asks for a further charge for service, another for fire. In short, my experiences of country inns in England and I can speak with some authority—in that I pay as much a day at a shabby little country inn in England, where the food is poor and ill cooked, the attendance inferior and the beds poor, as I would at a good hotel in such towns as Springfield, Mass., or the very best in Switzerland or Germany. Indeed, it must have struck the average American that the incomparable Baedeker hardly ever finds it possible to recommend an English hotel."

WORST BLIZZARD IN YEARS.

New York City and Vicinity Have Hurricane, now and ice.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—This city got a taste of the kind of winter New York State has been having pretty much all the season, and made a fuss about it. A high wind, rising at night to a velocity of 60 miles an hour, drifted the snow a good deal, made trouble for the railroads and with the floating ice practically stopped business in the harbor. The total snowfall was about ten inches. The prospects were for clear, cold windy weather tomorrow. This city and the New Jersey coast immediately to the southward caught all the worst of the storm which was brewed on St. Valentine day in Western Texas. New Jersey coast towns had more snow than New York city, Long Branch reporting twelve inches. Atlantic City reported "one and a half inches of melted snow." This meant about ten inches of snow and considerable rain. From Atlantic City southward the reports showed less and less snow and more rain. Lynchburg, Va., for instance, had only an inch of snow, Baltimore had half an inch, Washington had an inch, Philadelphia had four and a half inches. To the north the snowfall was even lighter. Albany had merely a flurry, Boston had two-tenths of an inch.

The high winds, ice-clogged piers and the wet and driving snow practically tied up traffic in the harbor except that of the ferry boats. Not one steamship, liner or tramp, had been reported passing in at the Hook from midnight this morning until late tonight.
