His wife heard about it and gave him a piece of her mind, but he receive ed it as stolidly as ever. He went down to the store that morning, as usual, as placid and as self satisfied as ever.

When he returned at noon, a strange sight greeted his eyes. The house avas bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard. He went into the bedroo Bedsteads, bureaus, all'the furniture, the curtains, everything had been removed. It was the same bareness down stairs. This statement was made recently in a New York newspaper, but the reason given was wide of the mark. The American people read in the aggregate ten times more than any other people. The American boy gets his inspiration, his ener getic disposition, his ambition, his keen snapshot judgment and his quick wit largely from his reading—and very largely from his newspaper reading. The polee and culture and refinement and solidity come later in life from the reading of books and magazines and from contact with men and things. It is the American newspaper which sets the initial pace, Push and pluck are contagious, and more germs are hatched in the average American newspaper office than anywhere else.-Booklovers' Bulletin.
