Cycling Trade Tricks. There are tricks in all trades, and the pacemakers in cycling are known to have introduced schemes that sooner or later were adopted by bleyele manufacturers as part of the regular equipment. This was particularly noticea ble in the matter of straight forks for pace following. Last year, when the rule was enforced probibiting the rear man from sitting back of the rear tire, one pacemaker utilized a strap, which enabled him to lean far enough back to meet the head of the pace follower The new rule provides that the real wheel of the motor tandem shall no exceed twelve inches in radius and that the width of the motor shall not exceed six and one-half inches, allowing width of thirteen and one-third inche for necessary cams, plates and belts At no place shall the width be greater than twenty inches excepting the han dle bars and pedals. Young Corbett and Sullivan.

Dave Sullivan has decided to abandon his English trip altogether and to make his coming fight with Young Corbett at Denver the main purpose of his puglistic existence just at present while the champion will be a strong favorite in the bout, the contest will be watched with great interest as giving a line on Young Gorbett's condition and the value of his style of fighting against Sullivan as opposed to McGovern's.

Although "dope" cuts little figure in Although "dope" cuts little agure in the prize ring and probably is more of-ten overthrown than upheld, the fact remains that an easy victory over Sul-livan will been Young Corbett's stock immensely, especially as it took four-teen rounds for McGovern to dispose of Dave. A victory for Young Corbett probably will make him a much closer probably will make him a much close favorite in betting when he me Govern again than would be the case if the two were to come together at
