Winston-Salem Centennial.

May 31.—The week just closed at Winston-Salem has been one of extraordinary interest both to the community and to the State at large. Thousands of people have assembled here from all parts of the country.

The programme naturally divided itself into the historical, the musical and the general commencement features, and many distinguished men have been the guests of the city. Gov. Aycock of North Carolina, Adjutant Gen. Henry of New York City, Senator Clark of Montana, General Counsel McWhorter of Georgia, Dr. Chas. D. Melver of Greensboro, Supt. of Public Instruction, J. Y. Joyner, Senator Matt W. Ransom, and others.

Trained musicians under the leadership of Prof. Peterson, a large Centennial chorus led by Mr. Shidley regaled the multitudes with music both vocal and instrumental.

Sixteen realistic tableaux were given representing the visit of George Washington to Salem, the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, the coming of the Moravians to Wachovia, Gov. Tryon's visit to Salem, Cornwallis' stop with his army and many others.

At the great union praise service held Sunday, every denomination in the twin-city was represented by its pastor, and every minister with his congregation and multitudes of visitors and citizens of the community who assembled on Salem Square.

The illuminations on the Academy buildings and the square were as brilliant as thousands of colored electric lights could make them. The decorations also in the Academy colors, gold and white, were seen in interminable lengths of bunting draped around the college buildings, and upon private houses throughout the twin-city.

The crowning circumstance of the week was the impressive ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of the Alumnae Memorial Hall today.

RALEIGH.

Agricultural Department Receives 40 More Awards From Paris.

Options on Swamp Land in Carteret and Pamlico Counties Given to D. W. Morton and the Blades Lumber Co. The A & M College. Buy 58 Acres of Land Adjacent to Its Farm.

RALEIGH, June 3.—Today the agricultural department received for various exhibitions from this State at the Paris exposition 40 more awards, of which it previously knew nothing. Most of these were in the department of mines and mining.

The State board of education grants to D. W. Morton an option on the Swamp lands in Carteret county at 75 cents an acre, and to the Blades Lumber Company an option on the Swamp lands in Pamlico, also at 75 cents.

State Superintendent Joyner is advised that the people of Roxboro yesterday voted a special tax for public schools, only 6 votes being cast against it.

Gov. Aycock pardons Henry H. Smith of Richmond county who had served 3 months of a 12 month's sentence for larceny. Smith has inflammatory rheumatism.

The State entomologist finds that the corn ear worm is doing damage in Robeson county. There were, at the place he inspected, a dozen worms to a stalk.

The need for rain here is great. Gardens are showing the effect of the drought. Many persons went to the State University today, to attend the commencement. It was senior class day and also alumni day. Congressman E. W. Pou delivered the address before the alumni.

A number of lawyers, including several from Raleigh, went up to Greensboro today to appear in the notable case against the Revolution cotton mills. It is claimed that a pond at the mills, furnishing water for the boilers, furnished also malaria and the particular mosquito which carries malaria. A government expert says there are none of these mosquitoes at that place. There are 300 witnesses in the case, 30 of them being experts. The people who had chills and fever are the company for heavy damages.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College has bought a 53 acre farm west of and adjoining its farm for $10,000. It is a fine piece of property, with a large residence, barns, etc., and good land.

Blessings of Poverty. "No," mused the poor husbandman, "I do not envy the rich. I have no bitter feeling toward those who roll in wealth. My soul harbors no thoughts of malice toward the men who are popularly presumed to revel in luxury."

Here he picked up the stick with which he had been beating the parlor carpet and resumed operations, saying between strokes: "Think—of having—to beat—a million—dollars—worth of these—damned bladders—carpets—every spring!" —Baltimore American.

FOOD AND GIRLS.

Study Don't Hurt If They are Fed Right.

Some time ago one of the ladies' papers published a long list of extracts from letters from mothers, speaking of broken down school girls. True, over work and too much confinement is largely responsible, but, on the other hand, if the girl is fed on the right kind of food to rebuild the daily waste, she can stand more work and the matter of food is the real foundation of the subject.

A 17 year old girl writes from Caro, Mich., about how a change in food helped her. "I am only a school girl 17 years old but I am old enough to appreciate what the wonderful brain food Grape-Nuts has done for me. About two years ago my health became very poor and I was unable to study, and finally obliged to leave school."

I was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food. In about three months I recovered my strength, my mind became much more clear and acute and I was able to resume school work.

I continued to use Grape-Nuts until I discovered that I was getting too fat. I gained so much in weight that I had to discontinue it. It is the best food I ever heard of for building up a broken down system.

I have a aunt who went to India as a missionary and while there she was ill four times with Indian fever and became a mere skeleton. When she returned here her muscles were so flabby as could be. She was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and quickly recovered. Her muscles grew hard and firm and she entirely regained her health. She greatly increased in weight and never knew a sick day now. She is still eating Grape-Nuts and says she would not do without the food for anything.

I can never say enough in praise of your wonderful food. I have given my Father, Mother, Sister, and myself Grape-Nuts. Ask the cook to show you the recipe book in the package of Grape-Nuts.

Pass It On Gladfully.

If at a dinner party you happen to upset a glass of claret over your fair neighbor's white satin dress, smile pleasantly and say:

"Ah, it is always a sign of wet when the glass falls."

You will be forgiven and in all probability invited by her papa to dine with him on Sunday.

Littleton's Gala Week.

The Commencement of Littleton Female College is looked forward to by the people of the community with eagerness and pleasure from year to year.

Commencement began on Sunday, with a fine sermon before Faculty and Students by Rev. H. A. Humble, pastor of Littleton Church.

Rev. R. C. Beaman preached the annual sermon on Wednesday morning, from the text "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" His forceful, practical thoughts on character will, without doubt, bring forth fruit in the lives of the earnest young women to whom they were addressed.

Among the places of interest to visitors were the Art Studio with its fine exhibit of work done by students during the year; and the Literary Society Hall which has been recently furnished in soft, rich shades of oak and brown.

General Julian S. Carr was the speaker of the day and his splendid address on "Woman," was listened to with closest and most interested attention, eliciting frequent and enthusiastic bursts of applause. At the close of his address, Gen. Carr's establishment of a perpetual scholarship at Littleton Female College, in memory of Mrs. Melissa Frances Beaman (the beloved and sainted mother of Mrs. Rhodes) was not only a most graceful and happy thing, such as Gen. Carr knows so well how and when to do; but will prove a channel of blessing, the width and depth and length of which can not be measured this side of eternity.

The college closes a most prosperous year with every indication of the largest opening next fall in the history of the institution. President Rhodes announced that he already had on file one hundred and twelve applications for admission in September; and that applications were being received almost daily.
