LOOKS LIKE MURDER

Death of a Farmer Under Suspicious Circumstances.

Prominent Man Sick. School Closings. More Room Needed at Baptist Seminary. Building Leased For State University Medical School.

RALEIGH, June 5.—The coronor of this county went to Holly Springs this morning to investigate what promises to be a sensational case; the death of J. M. Dennis, a farmer. Last night two negroes, Charles H. on a powerful man, aged 30, and Bet. e. Judd. Dennis was found dead by the well in his yard Sunday afternoon. He and his wife and sister were on the porch of the house when a noise was heard at the well, some one having released the bucket, which fell with a great noise. Dennis went out to see what was the matter. At the well were the above named negroes. Horton says Dennis told him to be careful, and in an instant fell dead. Two hours later a doctor was called to see Mrs. Dennis, whom the death had prostrated. He looked casually at Dennis' body, and says the throat was bruised, and that there were other bruises on the temple, nose and cheek and that both ears were scratched. There was a large log beside the well. The coronor exhumed the body today and made a postmortem. It is claimed that the negro Horton had made grave threats against Dennis because the latter while a tax lister had made him pay the tax on the real value of his property. It is learned that W. J. Hicks, the superintendent of the Oxford Asylum, is very sick.

The summer law school at Wake Forest college opens June 8, with prospects for a larger attendance than ever before.

Raleigh's public schools will close tomorrow and there will be class exercises at the academy of music. State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner will speak on public education and editor C. T. Bailey of the Biblical Recorder on Archibald Murphy, the father of North Carolina's public school system. Plato Durham, a son of State Auditor B. F. Dixon, returned here today from the University of Oxford, England, where he is taking a post-graduate course in theology. He is a professor in Trinity College, Durham. During the war with Spain he was in the 2nd N. J. Volunteers.

President Vann of the Baptist Female University here says it is cramped for want of more dormitory room.

A building will be leased here in a few days, for use by the State University Medical school. A free dispensary will be arranged at the Rex hospital. The students will conduct this dispensary. There were 36 members of the graduating class of Trinity college this week.

The Cataleptic Trance.

It cannot be doubted that in numerous cases of cataleptic trance the apparently lifeless patient has been acquainted with all the arrangements being made for his interment. Several instances are recorded in which, although the body presented every appearance of death, the patient was conscious of everything going on around him, but absolutely unable to raise a limb or in any way communicate with those near his bed.

The Lost Patient.

Dr. Langet—It is hard to lose a patient. "Speaking of Guptatil, I suppose. Is he dead?" Dr. Langet—Dead? No, confound him! He has gone and got well.—Boston Transcript.

"I admire that pianist's finish. Don't you?" "Yes, but I always dread his beginning."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A BIG EARNER.

Good Food Pays Better Than Any Other Investment.

Money put into properly selected food that brings health and maintains it is better invested than any other way.

A man who had spent hundreds of dollars in medicines to try and get well writes that the past year he has used 126 packages of Grape-Nuts. He says, "Several years ago I had two severe attacks of paralysis, bringing on general nervous debility. I was not able to do work of any kind for several years. I doctored hundreds of dollars away. About a year ago I began using Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and have so steadily gained in strength and health that since last July I have worked every day at collecting for a large company, walking several miles a day and have not enjoyed better health for over 30 years than I do now. I am able to use all kinds of food but do not eat much besides Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Office, W. F. Allen, 297 Chestnut St., Toronto, Pa. Don't overlook the recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts."
