Oil Burning Engine Overturned.
Government Bulletin For Truckers. New Memorial Library at Trinity College, Durham.

RALEIGH, June 23.—Commissioner of Agriculture Patterson, State Chemist Kilgore and Prof. W. F. Massey left today for Washington, D. C., to attend the national convention of holders of farmers' institutes.

Commissioner Patterson will also have a conference with Secretary of Agriculture Wilson regarding the issue of special trucking bulletins in future, for the benefit of the truck-growers. This is a new suggestion and a valuable one.

One of the big oil-burning locomotives which passed here a day or two ago on the way to the Southern Pacific R. R., is "ditched" near Colon. It split a switch and went over.

The latest arrival at Pullen Park here is a very large wild cat, the special gift of the "Carolina Brights" smoking tobacco company of Wilson.

The electric power company which owns the Buckhorn falls, on the Cape Fear river, southwest of Raleigh, is building its canal. As yet only the earth work is being done.

The new memorial library at Trinity College is completed. A number of Raleigh men have been at work there and say it is the finest building in the State.

The Inter-State shoot at clay pigeons will take place here Wednesday and Thursday. Many States will be represented. Some of the best shots in North Carolina will participate. There will be 10 regular events each day. Much money is in the way of purses.

The State Liquor Dealers Association meets here tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. Its sessions will be of course not open to the public. It is said there are now over 2500 members, though no figures are given out. In 1894 it had 850 and since then bartenders, clerks distillers and wine makers have been taken in. There will be 2 or 3 delegates from each local association. All the cities, towns and counties are represented, even if they are under "prohibition" or "dispensary" laws. The association will be in politics support those who are friendly to its interests.

The trustees of the Oxford Orphan Asylum met at Durham this evening and tomorrow go to Oxford. It will be St. John's Day and the General Lodge of Masons meets there. Superintendent W. J. Hicks, who has been quite sick, is now better. Addition will be made as to the sale of property in Minnesota, bequeathed to the orphanage. For this property an offer is made.

Farmers declare the cotton and corn in this county are the best in 10 years. The size and color are notably good.

The State charters the Asheville Masonic Building Co., capital $75,000, which will build a temple there. It also charters the Teachey's Brick and Tile Company.

Yesterday afternoon the largest negro funeral ever seen here occurred. Bibb Matthews, worth $25,000, died June 18. The body was embalmed and will be buried in September. It is in a casket of cedar and glass, so that out of it can be seen from the top and sides. This casket was made by Matthews son-in-law. A vault will be built for it. Until then it will be at the undertakers to which place it was taken after the services at the church.

$100 REWARD.

Asheville, N. C., June 19, 1902.
$100 reward will be paid by the undersigned to any one who will furnish information leading to the recovery of three scrap-books filled with clippings and other printed matter pertaining to the proposed Appalachian National Forest Reserve.

These books were placed by Congressman Moody's secretary on the mail box in the National Hotel in Washington, May 6th; each book being wrapped separately and plainly addressed (under frank of Hon. J. M. Moody) to Dr. C. P. Ambler, Asheville, N. C. The books have not arrived in Asheville, and after the most thorough investigation by the postoffice authorities no trace has been found of the same.

Besides containing several thousand clippings, the books also contained records pertaining to the work done by the Appalachian National Park Association. These records are of no intrinsic value to any one except those interested in the proposed Appalachian Forest Reserve. Address either:

Hon. J. M. Moody, National Hotel, Washington, D. C. or Dr. C. P. Ambler, Secretary A. N. P. Association, Asheville, N. C.
